PREFACE.

THE present Catalogue includes all acquisitions made by the Department of Manuscripts during the five years 1921–1925, arranged under the heads of Additional MSS., Egerton MSS., Additional Charters and Rolls, Detached Seals, Papyri and Facsimiles of MSS. The total number of MSS. acquired during the period amounts to twelve hundred and eighty-eight; of Charters and Rolls, to three thousand nine hundred and thirty-one; of Seals, to three hundred and sixty-one; of Papyri, to five hundred and one; and of Facsimiles, to fifty-eight.

H 7-25-50 MV

As usual, the collections have been greatly increased by donations and bequests, which are all noted under the entries in the Catalogue. The following are of such importance as to call for special mention :—

(a) The voluminous correspondence and papers, official and private, of Sir Robert Peel, presented by Major the Hon. George Peel, on behalf of the Peel Trustees, in 1917, were incorporated in 1922 (Add. MSS. 40181–40617).

(b) The executors of the second and last Marquess of Ripon presented in 1923 the correspondence of the first Earl of Ripon, better known as Viscount Goderich, relating mainly to India during the years 1843–1846 (Add. MSS. 40862–40880). The papers of the second Earl (first Marquess), presented at the same time, were reserved from public use until 1933 (Add. MSS. 43510–43644).

(c) Another large series of modern political papers, the correspondence of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, was presented, along with other papers at present reserved, by John, Lord Pentland, in 1923 (Add. MSS. 41206–41252).

(d) Drafts of the despatches and other diplomatic papers of the Hon. Sir John Duncan Bligh (d. 1872), which were presented, in 1888, by Walter John Pelham, 4th Earl of Chichester, but reserved by instructions from the Foreign Office, were made available in 1925 (Add. MSS. 41268–41287).

(e) Mr. T. S. Vernon Cocks presented in 1923 a collection of papers of the Vernon family, mainly the political papers of James Vernon, Secretary of State under William III, and the naval papers of his younger son, Admiral Edward Vernon (Add. MSS. 40771–40850, Add. Ch. 66490–66495).

(f) Also of naval interest are the papers of Admiral Sir Charles Napier, K.C.B., presented by his grand-daughter, Mrs. M. C. Gooch, in 1921 (Add. MSS. 40018–40055).

(g) The well-known political diary kept by Charles Cavendish Fulke Greville (d. 1865), Clerk of the Council, which had been presented in 1895 by Mrs. Christina Georgina Jane Reeve, widow of its editor, Henry Reeve, was incorporated in 1924 (Add. MSS. 41095–41123).

(h) Mrs. Ottilie Hancock presented in 1921 the papers of her father, Karl Blind, who settled in London after the suppression of the Baden insurrection of 1848–1849 and corresponded with other political exiles and their sympathisers (Add. MSS. 40123–40126).

(i) Dr. John Wickham Legg presented in the same year a valuable collection of liturgical MSS., mostly Breviaries and Diurnals from Scandinavia, Italy, Germany and the Low Countries (Add. MSS. 40146–40159).

(k) Adela, Countess of Essex, presented in 1922 a portion of the papers and charters previously preserved at Cassiobury Park, Watford, including court-books of the halimotes of manors which had belonged to St. Alban's Abbey, mentioned below, and papers of the Morison and Capell families (Add. MSS. 40625–40632, Add. Ch. 64889–66125).

As in previous volumes, some of the more noteworthy acquisitions, whether by gift or purchase, will be briefly indicated under various classes :—

1. Among Greek MSS. literary papyri are represented chiefly by fragments of Bacchylides (Pap. 2443) and Ephorus (Papp. 2444, 2470), a leaf from a 3rd cent. copy of the Gospel of St. John (Pap. 2484), formerly conjoint with Pap. 782, and a bifolium containing portions of the Song of Solomon and the Apology of Aristides (Pap. 2486). Nearly all are from Oxyrhynchus and were presented by the Egypt Exploration Society. Most remarkable of the documentary papyri are the letter of the Emperor Claudius to the Alexandrines (Pap. 2248 verso), the group of 4th cent. letters relating to the Meletian schism (Papp. 2487–2489, 2543–2549, 2724), and a further collection of pieces (3rd cent. B.C.) from the archive of Zenon, son of Agreophon (Papp. 2243–2245, etc.). Also from Egypt, probably from the Thebaid, come fragments of wooden tablets of the 5th cent. containing metrological and chronological tables (Add. MS. 41203 A–F). The most outstanding MS. of the Byzantine period is an 11th cent. Psalter with marginal illustrations (Add. MS. 40731). Representing a later period are a metrical paraphrase of Genesis and Exodus, written about 1500 in modern Greek by Georgios Chumnos of Candia (Add. MS. 40724), and a Leitourgikon of the 16th cent. from Brusa in Asia Minor (Add. MS. 40755). A 14th cent. MS. of the Gospels in Slavonic (Add. MS. 41256) and a 15th cent. collection of lives of saints in the same language (Add. MS. 41087) may conveniently be mentioned in this section.

2. Latin MSS. notable on account of their early date or palæographical interest are :—(a) a waxed tablet of the 2nd cent. recording the appointment of a tutor in Egypt (Add. MS. 40723) ;—(b) a purple vellum leaf from the Codex Palatinus (4th or 5th cent.) containing the Old Latin version of the Gospels (Add. MS. 40107) ;—(c) three fragments from a MS. of the letters of St. Cyprian in uncials of the 4th or 5th cent. (Add. MS. 40165, ff. 1–5) ;—(d) a copy of the Gospels, of the Irish Vulgate tradition, in Irish minuscules of the 8th or 9th cent. (Add. MS. 40618).

3. The Historical Manuscripts and Political Papers in this Catalogue are mainly of late date. The earliest items of note are the compotus rolls of the treasurer of war to Thomas, Duke of Gloucester, as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, 1392, and of the treasurer of the household to Edward, Duke of Buckingham, 1503–1504 (Add. MS. 40859 A, B, presented by Sir Henry Stafford Jerningham, Bart.). Of much the same date as the latter is a Latin abridgement of Pembridge's Annals of Ireland, with which is bound a 15th cent. Anglo-Irish version of Giraldus Cambrensis, De Expugnatione Hiberniae (Add. MS. 40674). The 16th century is also represented by an early holograph draft of William Lambarde's Eirenarcha (Add. MS. 41137). For the 17th century there are minute-books of the House of Lords, 1621–1628, kept by Henry Elsynge, Clerk of the Parliaments, and his son (Add. MSS. 40085–40091), and the papers of Sir George Oxenden, who became first Governor of Bombay under the East India Company, 1642–1669 (Add. MSS. 40696–40713, Add. Ch. 66129–66239). All the more important collections of political, military and naval papers of the late 18th and 19th centuries have already been referred to under presentations; but a further series of historical papers from the Townshend collection was purchased in 1924 (Add. MSS. 41139–41152), and a valuable group of letters and documents relating to the First French Republic and Napoleon I was secured at the Earl of Crawford's sales (Add. MSS. 41170–41173, 41192–41194, 41289, 41290). Other volumes that may be mentioned are:—

Henricus de Bracton, "De Legibus et Consuetudinibus Angliae," of about A.D. 1300 (Add. MS. 41258, presented by Major E. A. Pegge-Burnell-Smith-Milnes).

Year-books, 1–9 Edw. III (Add. MS. 41160).

A collection of late 17th cent. English diplomatic cypher-keys (Add. MS. 40677, presented by Mr. W. C. Pendarves).

Papers relating to the proceedings in the House of Commons against H. S. Woodfall, printer, and the Rev. John Horne (afterw. Horne Tooke), 1774 (Add. MS. 41065, presented by Miss Laetitia Sharp).

Letter-books of George, 1st Marquess of Buckingham, chiefly as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, 1782–1789 (Add. MSS. 40177–40180, 40733).

Correspondence of Maj.-Gen. Alexander Stewart, Commandant at Ostend during the war of the First Coalition against France, with some papers of earlier date, 18th cent.—1839 (Add. MSS. 40633–40635, presented by Major J. R. Hannay).

Correspondence and papers of Thomas Clarkson, the slave trade abolitionist, and his family, 1785—20th cent. (Add. MSS. 41262–41267).

Papers from the correspondence of Henry, 1st Viscount Melville, including Napoleon's protest from H.M.S. "Bellerophon" against the violation of his rights, 1791–1829 (Add. MSS. 40100–40102, 41079–41085).

Papers of Admiral Lord Collingwood, including a letter-book and an order-book of Lord Nelson, 1804–1809 (Add. MSS. 40094–40098).

Papers of John Wilson Croker, 1821–1857 (Add. MSS. 41124–41129).

Correspondence and papers of Major George Broadfoot, of the Madras Army, 1838–1921 (Add. MSS. 40127–40131, presented by Major W. Broadfoot).

"The Balfour Declaration" on a national home for the Jews in Palestine, 1917 (Add. MS. 41178 A, presented by Lord Rothschild).

4. MSS. illustrating Monastic History include Chartularies of Reading Abbey, 12th–13th centt. (Eg. MS. 3031), the Priory of St. Mary, Canons Ashby, temp. Edw. I (Eg. MS. 3033) and the Priory of Blythburgh, late 14th cent. (Add. MS. 40725), a Customary of Milton Abbey, 1317–1322 (Add. MS. 40886), and a Terrier of the estates of Glastonbury Abbey in Somerset, 1514–1517 (Eg. MS.

3034). Other materials dealing with the properties of English monastic houses are referred to below (section 12). Of less local and more general interest are treatises on the Canons Regular of the Windesheim Congregation, of the 15th cent., from Louvain (Add. MS. 40882), and a MS. of the Rule and privileges of the Poor Clares, 15th cent., from Bergamo (Add. MS. 40076). Reference may also be made to a copy of the regulations for the Hospital of Santa Maria Nuova at Florence, early 16th cent. (Add. MS. 40077).

5. The Liturgical MSS. in this Catalogue are numerous and important. Among the volumes (Add. MSS. 40146–40159) presented by the late Dr. J. Wickham Legg are :—Seven Breviaries, largely of the 15th cent., including examples of the uses of Scandinavia, the Augustinian Friars Hermits, the Olivetan Congregation, the Vallombrosan Order (from the Abbey of San Salvi, Florence) and Augsburg ; two Diurnals, of the 15th–16th centt., the one of the use of the Canons Regular of the Windesheim Congregation (from Utrecht), the other from the Carthusian monastery of Bois-Saint-Martin, near Grammont, in the diocese of Malines ; and finally a 15th cent. Martyrology of the Franciscan convent at Milan. Among the acquisitions from other sources are :—Missal written in A.D. 1240 for the monastery of Fonte Buono, the parent house of the cenobitical branch of the Camaldolese Order (Eg. MS. 3036) ; Psalter and Hymnary of the 13th cent. from Campsey Priory, co. Suffolk (Add. MS. 40675) ; Hours of the use of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, of about A.D. 1300 (Add. MS. 41061) ; fragmentary Manual of Sarum use, of the late 14th cent. (Add. MS. 40740) ; Missals of Dominican use (from the Priory of nuns at Poissy, 14th–15th centt. ; Eg. MS. 3037) and of the use of Lyons (early 15th cent. ; Add. MS. 41174) ; Pontifical services for Maundy Thursday and Good Friday at Gerona, in Spain, early 15th cent. (Add. MS. 40738).

6. General Mediaeval Literature is represented by MSS. in a variety of languages. In Latin, lives of saints are most prominent. They include a 10th cent. copy of the Life of St. Martin of Tours by Sulpicius Severus (Add. MS. 40074), a Legendary written in the 13th century, apparently in Switzerland (Add. MS. 41069) and a 14th cent. copy of the abbreviated Legendary compiled by Johannes Aegidii, Franciscan of Zamora (Add. MS. 41070). Other Latin MSS. calling for remark are a collection of 12th cent. tracts on the Compotus (Add. MS. 40744) and a 13th cent. copy of the Historia Hierosolymitana abbreviata by Jacques de Vitry (Add. MS. 40075). French MSS. include a 13th cent. copy of the chronicle of the pseudo-Turpin (Add. MS. 40142), a poem on the mystical marriage of St. Catharine of Alexandria, written in England in the 14th cent. (Add. MS. 40143) and a prose collection of lives of women saints, of the 15th cent. (Add. MS. 41179). MSS. in the native tongue range in date from a 9th cent. fragment of the Anglo-Saxon Martyrology (Add. MS. 40165, ff. 6, 7) to Richard Rolle's translation of the Psalter (Add. MS. 40769), John Wycliffe's earlier version of the Gospels of SS. Matthew and Mark (Add. MS. 41175, presented by Viscount Dillon) and two collections of his sermons (Add. MSS. 40671, 40672), all of the early 15th cent. A 16th cent. copy of The Buike off King Allexander the Conqueroure (Add. MS. 40732), a translation of a French original into Scots heroic couplets by Sir Gilbert the Hay (fl. 1456), may also be referred to here.

7. Literary MSS. of more recent date may be said to begin with a copy of Sir Philip Sidney's Arcadia in its original form (Add. MS. 41204, presented by the late Miss M. E. Davies). Passing to the 17th century, we have a copy of the Sacrorum Epigrammatum Liber of Richard Crashaw, with an autograph preface (Add. MS. 40176), an anonymous pastoral allegory, in heroic couplets, entitled Uranus and Psyche (Add. MS. 40145) and a collection of poems in Irish (Add. MS. 40766). Apart from an autograph translation, dated 1796, of the Choephoroi of Aeschylus by Thomas Campbell, the poet (Add. MS. 40099), the 18th century has little to show. On the other hand, the 19th century provides an abundance of original material, including the two final chapters of Persuasion by Jane Austen, as originally composed in 1816 (Eg. MS. 3038), drafts of two of Wilkie Collins's early novels (Add. MS. 41060), Les Quarante-Cinq of the elder Dumas (Add. MS. 40664), works of the Indian poetess Toru Dutt (Add. MS. 40017, presented by Miss M. E. R. Martin), George Eliot's "quarry" or note-book for Romola (Add. MS. 40768), translations of Aristophanes by John Hookham Frere (Add. MS. 40057), a novel in Magyar by Maurice Jókai (Add. MS. 40669), early poems of "Christopher North" i.e. John Wilson (Add. MS. 40736), poems of the Rossetti circle (Add. MS. 41130), compositions of Swinburne during his residence at Eton and Oxford (Add. MSS. 40887, 40888, bequeathed by Miss I. Swinburne), J. A. Symonds's translation of the Life of Benvenuto Cellini, the text sent to the printer (Add. MSS. 40649–40652, presented by Dame Katharine Furse), a poem in Russian by Turgenev, his earliest surviving work (Add. MS. 40640) and drafts in the same language by Tolstoy (Add. MS. 40688). Of still later date is a draft, entitled The Utmost Isles, of the poem published by Charles M. Doughty as The Dawn in Britain (Add. MSS. 40622–40624, presented by admirers of Doughty's work). The correspondence and single autographs of literary celebrities are referred to below (section 10).

8. Illuminated MSS. of high quality are unusually few in number. By far the most remarkable is the Greek Psalter of the 11th cent. with miniatures and delicate marginal drawings (Add. MS. 40731) to which reference has already been made. Of great interest, though of less artistic merit, is the miniature of St. Luke in the Irish Gospels of the 8th or 9th cent. (Add. MS. 40618, cf. section 2), which MS. also contains two Anglo-Saxon miniatures of the 10th cent. Despite ruthless mutilation, a number of illuminated chapter-initials of excellent workmanship still remain in Add. MSS. 40619, 40620, an Old Testament in French of the middle of the 13th cent. No other mediaeval work calls for notice, apart from a 15th cent. chalk drawing, apparently English, which forms part (f. 27) of Add. MS. 40742; but attention may be invited to an example of modern illumination, a copy of the Communion Service, calligraphically written by Graily Hewitt and partly illuminated by Allan Francis Vigers in 1921 (Add. MS. 40144, presented by Mr. Graily Hewitt and Mrs. Vigers, in memory of A. F. Vigers).

9. Musical MSS. also are less in evidence than is usual. They include, however, important autographs, notably works of the American composer, Edward Alexander MacDowell (Add. MS. 40728, presented by his widow), the score of Giovanni Battista Pergolesi's motet O Salutaris Hostia (Add. MS. 41063 M) and Sterndale Bennett's overture Wald Nymphen (Add. MS. 40881). Original compositions are also to be found amongst the musica remains of Samuel Sebastian Wesley (Add. MS. 40636, presented by the late Mr. W. Barclay Squire), and Leonardo Perugini (Add. MSS. 41091–41094, presented by Mr. M. E. Perugini). Collections of earlier music include compositions for viols by various composers in the hand of William Lawes (Add. MSS. 40657–40661), motets and string trios by English and Continental composers of the 16th and early 17th centt. (Add. MSS. 41156–41158) and a volume of dance tunes, largely by Purcell and Blow, said to be in the hand of John Barrett (d. circ. 1735), Music Master at Christ's Hospital

(Add. MS. 41205, purchased with the aid of a gift from the late Mr. W. Barclay Squire).

10. Collections of private letters and family papers calling for mention are:—Papers and deeds of the families of Constable of Flamborough, and Langdale of Holme-on-Spalding-Moor, co. York, 1518–1821 (Add. MSS. 40132–40137, 41168, Add. Ch. 63734–63738, 66599–66601, 66608, presented by Mrs. F. D. Harford); papers and deeds of the Bowes family of Streatlam and Gibside, co. Durham, 1561–1817 (Add. MSS. 40746–40748, Add. Ch. 66317–66488); papers and deeds of the Loch family of Drylaw near Edinburgh, 1578–1788 (Add. MS. 40885, Add. Ch. 66525–66527, presented by Lt.-Col. G. H. Loch); letters and papers of Sir Philip Francis, the reputed author of the letters of "Junius," and members of his family (Add. MSS. 40756–40765); collections and correspondence of William Hone, the bookseller (Add. MSS. 40108–40122, 40856, 41071). Literary correspondences are a feature of the Catalogue. They include letters and papers of and relating to Jane Austen (Add. MSS. 41253 A, B, the latter presented by the late Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan), letters of Dorothy Wordsworth (Add. MS. 41186), Thomas Carlyle (Eg. MS. 3032), Elizabeth Barrett Browning (Add. MS. 40689), "George Sand" (Add. MSS. 41188–41191) and Jean Henri Fabre, the French naturalist (Add. MS. 40745). Volumes containing respectively letters of Emma Hamilton (Add. MS. 40739) and General Gordon (Add. MS. 40665) may also be mentioned.

There are, in addition, a number of notable single autographs, such as letters of La Rochefoucauld (Add. MS. 41132), William Collins (Add. MS. 41178 I) and R. P. Bonington (Add. MS. 41178 M). Many other interesting autographs will be found in the collection made by Dr. J. G. Cogswell, Superintendent of the Astor Library, New York (Add. MS. 40690, presented by Mr. Walter S. M. Burns).

11. Miscellaneous MSS. and Archaeological Collections. The outstanding acquisitions under this head are heraldic in nature. They embrace an early (15th cent.) example of the Ordinary and Roll of Arms known as Jenyns' Ordinary (Add. MS. 40851), a collection of badges of the nobility, mainly adherents of the House of York, made circ. 1466–1470 (Add. MS. 40742), and the original Parliament Roll of Arms of 1515, which was published in facsimile, in 1829, by Thomas Willement (Add. MS. 40078). Archaeology is represented by a collection of rubbings of palimpsest monumental brasses formed by the late Mill Stephenson (Add. MS. 40056, presented by the compiler). Of genealogical interest are the collections relating to the family of Young by James Shelton Young (Add. MSS. 40889–41059, Add. Ch. 66528–66566, presented by the executrix of the collector). In the field of Local History there is an order-book of the Quarter Sessions for co. Denbigh, covering the years 1675–1688 (Add. MS. 40175, presented by Sir H. Lloyd Verney). Some other MSS. of local interest are referred to in the next section.

12. The prominence given to Manorial Documents by the Manorial Documents Rules, 1926, made by the Master of the Rolls under the Law of Property Acts, 1922 and 1924, renders it desirable to indicate, for the first time, the more important MSS. of this class. Of particular interest is a group of MSS. dealing with property of St. Alban's Abbey. It comprises court-books, compiled from the original court-rolls, of the Hertfordshire manors of Barnet (Add. MSS. 40167, 40168), Park (Add. MS. 40625) and Cashio (Add. MS. 40626), and a 14th cent. extent of, and a portion of a chartulary relating to, the manor of Codicote in the same county, together with a survey of the copyhold tenures of the manor made in 1546, after the Dissolution (Add. MSS. 40734, 40735). Reference has been made in section 4 to manorial MSS. from Milton Abbey and Glastonbury Abbey. The documents acquired from the muniments of Redgrave Hall, co. Suff., are mainly manorial; they include deeds relating to the lands of Bury St. Edmunds Abbey and Mettingham College, co. Suff. (Add. MSS. 40061–40072, Add. Ch. 62771–63594). From Wales comes a court-book of manors in the lordship of Chirk, co. Denbigh, covering the years 1595–1599 (Add. MS. 40174, presented by Sir H. Lloyd Verney, cf. section 11). Attention may also be directed to a formulary of English legal and manorial documents compiled about the year 1300, which has been edited as a memorial to a former Keeper of Manuscripts, the late Mr. J. P. Gilson (Add. MS. 41201).

13. Of the Charters and Rolls little need be said. Most of the large collections have been referred to on p. iv and in sections 3, 10–12. To these may be added extensive collections relating to lands in cos. Ayr and Kirkcudbright (Add. Ch. 63798–64001, presented by Major J. R. Hannay), to properties of the families of Courtenay and Trelawney, chiefly in cos. Devon and Cornwall (Add. Ch. 64002–64888), and to the manor of Storeton, co. Chest., and other lands of the Stanley family (Add. Ch. 66240–66313). A concluding word may perhaps be spared for a quitclaim of the early 13th cent. with a fine impression of the seal of Robert filius Meldred—the saltire afterwards borne by his descendants, the Nevills of Raby (Add. Ch. 66126, presented by Mr. W. A. Littledale).

The Catalogue has been compiled by the staff of the Department on the same lines as previous volumes of the series, but its vicissitudes in the press have been without precedent. Almost all the descriptions had been printed before the outbreak of the late war, and the sheets lay in the warehouse of Messrs. William Clowes and Sons awaiting the Index. On the night of 16–17 April 1941 the warehouse was demolished by enemy action, the entire stock of sheets being destroyed. Specimen copies, however, had already been delivered to the Trustees, and it is from one of them that pages 1–368 of this volume have been reproduced by photo-lithography. The printing of the remainder had been put in hand more than a year before that catastrophe; but the dispersal of the collections to places of safety and the transference of most of the staff to other duties made the task of Sir Harold Bell, who had piloted the volume thus far on its course, exceedingly difficult. Upon Sir Harold's retirement in 1944 the work devolved on me. I have been assisted in the main by Dr. B. Schofield, senior Deputy Keeper of the Department, and by Mr. G. T. Hales, Assistant Keeper, now retired. The descriptions of charters, seals and papyri are of the nature of an inventory only. The fuller descriptions of charters will in due course be available in the Department in MS. form. Another volume of the special Catalogue of Papyri will be undertaken as soon as circumstances permit.

A. JEFFERIES COLLINS,
Keeper of Manuscripts.

40018–40055. NAPIER PAPERS: private and official correspondence and papers of Admiral Sir Charles Napier, K.C.B. (b. 1786, d. 1860). Napier entered the navy in 1799, was promoted Lieutenant 1805, Commander 1807, Captain 1809, Rear-Admiral 1846, Vice-Admiral 1853 and Admiral 1858. In 1833, under the assumed name of Carlos de Ponza, he accepted the command of the Portuguese Regency fleet against Dom Miguel, with the rank of Vice-Admiral and Major-General of the Portuguese Navy, and for his services was by the Portuguese government created Visconde and afterw. Conde do Cabo de S. Vicente, a title later changed to Conde de Napier de S. Vicente. In 1840 he was in charge of the English squadron off the Syrian coast during the war against Mehemet Ali; in 1847–9, as Commander-in-Chief on particular service, he was employed chiefly off the coast of Ireland, 1848, and on a mission to Morocco against the Rif pirates, etc., 1848-1849. In 1854 he was placed in command of the fleet in the Baltic during the Crimean war.

Many of the letters have been printed by Napier in his Account of the War in Portugal, 2 vols., 1836, and The War in Syria, 2 vols., 1842. Many of those on the state of the Navy, addressed to various newspapers and politicians, copies of which occur chiefly in Add. MSS. 40037, 40053 and 40054, were edited by W. Napier, The Navy: its past and present state, 1851. The papers have also been used and extracts printed by G. B. Earp, History of the Baltic Campaign of 1854, 1857; E. Napier, Life and Correspondence of Adm. Sir C. Napier, 2 vols., 1862; H. N. Williams, Life and Letters of Adm. Sir C. Napier, 1917; etc.

The papers of Napier passed, on his death, to his only daughter, Mrs. Éloïse Fanny Harriet Jodrell, who presented a portion of them, chiefly relating to the Baltic expedition of 1854, to the Public Record Office in 1901 (Giuseppi, Guide to the Public Records, i, p. 349). The present papers, which formed the remainder of the collection, were presented to the Museum by her daughter Mrs. Gooch. Thirty-eight volumes arranged as follows:—

40057. Translation of Aristophanes, "Birds," "Acharnians," and "Knights," by John Hookham Frere; the MS. presented by Frere to S. T. Coleridge and by him bequeathed to J. Gillman (see his will, 17 Sept. 1829, Poetical and Dramatic Works, J. T. Cox, 1836, p. iv); a fair copy, in the hands of two amanuenses, the first of whom wrote the "Birds" and "Acharnians," the second the "Knights," but with autograph corrections and additions, in ink or pencil, by Frere. Most of these corrections were adopted in the printed text (A Metrical Version of The Acharnians The Knights and The Birds, Pickering, 1840, printed at Malta, 1839), which however in some cases returns to the MS. text. The text was subsequently revised, as the edition shows many differences, particularly in the stage directions and explanatory sections. The translation of the "Birds" was left unfinished, ending at l. 1705 of the Greek (p. 99 of the edition), and gaps were left between ff. 18 and 19 (ll. 262–902, pp. 18–50 of the edition) and between ff. 28 and 31 (ll. 1058–1117, pp. 59–61). The second, but not the first, was filled in Frere's own hand.

Paper; ff. 256. Folio. Circa 1816–1828 (water-marks, "Birds" and blank leaves following 1821 and 1823 with two 1820, "Acharnians" and blank leaves 1820–1823, "Knights" 1816, 1818, 1821, two blank at the end 1826). On the blank f. 173 (water-mark 1822) is the signature "George Frere Hampstead," no doubt J. H. Frere's younger brother, a solicitor at Lincoln's Inn, for whom see Horace and A. H. Frere, Pedigree of the Family of Frere, 1899, p. 12 (letters by him to Windham in Add. MSS. 37885, f. 8, 37887, f. 134). Original binding of brown calf.

40058. "CHRISTOSOPHIA eller Wägen til Christum, författad i nio små Böcker som nu äro sammandragna i åtta"; an anonymous Swedish translation of the nine treatises of Jakob Boehme united in the 1682 Amsterdam edition of his works under the title Der Weg zu Christo, here compressed, by the combination of the first and third, into eight, as in the Amsterdam edition of 1730–31, from which this translation may well have been made; the separate issue of the work in 1731 has a "Vorrede" not here represented. Apparently unpublished. A very similar but not identical translation of some of the prayers is found in B. E. P[etri], Böner af Jakob Böhme (Stockholm, [1900]). In the fifth treatise § 25, at first omitted by the writer, is added by the same hand on an inserted slip (f. 79).

Paper; ff. ii + 126. XVIII cent. Quarto. On f. ii appears the name "Gústaf Almén 1861" and on f. 1 that of F. Lundberg (19th cent.). Presented by C. J. Barker, Esq.

40059. JAKOB BOEHME, miscellaneous works, translated into Swedish. The first three occur also in the preceding MS., but the translation is not identical. Contents:—

1. "Samtal emällan En Uplyst och Ouplyst Själ"; the eighth treatise (Von der erleuchteten und unerleuchteten Seele) in the earlier arrangement of Der Weg zu Christo. f. 1.
2. "Om En lefvande, sann och för Gudi gällande Bätring"; the third treatise (De Poenitentia or Ein Schlüssel Göttlicher Geheimnisse) of the same, which in the later arrangement forms book ii of the first treatise. f. 29.
3. "Om Det Öfversinneliga Lifvet är Et Samtal emällan en Mästare och Lärjunge"; the sixth (fifth) treatise of the same. In §§ 38 and 54 are inserted translated extracts from the Vierzig Fragen, De tribus principiis, and De incarnatione verbi. f. 39.
4. "Undervärda Prophetior Om Ändens Ingång i Begynnelsen"; a collection of extracts from Boehme's works, sometimes connected by notes of the translator. Other collections of the same kind were published as Mercurius Teutonicus, or A Christian Information concerning the last Times (London, 1649) and Die letzte Posaune an alle Völker oder Prophezeyungen . . . Jacob Böhmens (Berlin and Leipzig, 1779). f. 83.

Paper; ff. 113. xviii cent. Octavo. Presented by the same.

40060. Poems and other pieces, chiefly satirical. Most are dated, the extreme dates, some but not all of which seem to be those rather of copying than of composition, being 1687 and Feb. 1711 [1712]. There are many references to the Kit-Cat Club and its members, but the tone of most of the poems is Tory rather than Whig; only towards the end of the volume does a definite bias on the opposite side appear. All seem to be in the same hand. The majority are published or occur in other MS. collections, but variant readings are not infrequent. The following occur in Poems on Affairs of State (1703–1707), most of them also in A New Collection of Poems relating to State Affairs (1705), in his copy of which (British Museum press-mark, C. 28. e. 15) Pope has inserted the names of several of the supposed authors:—(a) "A Letter from I. B. to [Col.] H[enry] Heveningham occasioned by his 2 last Letters: May 1698"; at the end "June 1697." Beg. 40072. Redgrave Hall Papers. Vol. XII. Roll of Swan Marks, containing 534 marks, arranged in two columns, the majority of the swan owners belonging to cos. Norfolk and Suffolk. The roll, which includes such names as Bassingbourne Gawdy (the first of that name died 1590), Sir John Tasburgh (knighted 1603), Sir Thomas Playters of Sotterley Hall (knighted 1606), in addition to those of Royal, noble, and monastic owners, appears to be an early 17th cent. copy of an earlier collection (temp. Henry VIII ?) containing contemporary additions in order to bring it up to date; towards the end of the roll the compiler refers to "my cousin Tasburgh" and "my cousin Bateman." Somewhat similar collections of swan marks are in Harley MS. 3405, Egerton MSS. 2412, 2413, and Add. MSS. 4977, 6301, 6302, 23732. Vellum roll (19 skins sewn together); 38 ft. 0½ in. × 5¾ in. The prologue, headed "Incipit prologus magistri Iacobi Acconensis episcopi in hystoria Iherosolimitana," begins "Postquam diuine propitiationis munificentia," and is followed by a list of chapters (100) of Bk. I. Bk. I, headed "Incipit hystoria Iherosolimitana abbreuiata a magistro Iacobo Acconensi episcopo," begins "Terra sancta promissionis deo amabilis." Bk. 40077. " HOSPITALIS titulo Sanctae Mariae nouę in urbe Florentina principium, ordo et institutio " : copy of the regulations of the Hospital of Santa Maria Nuova at Florence, founded by Folco dei Portinari in 1288 (not 1278 as in this MS.). Latin. Addressed (in this MS.) by Francesco dei Portinari, papal prothonotary, to Henry VII of England, with prefatory letter and epilogue, from which it appears that the king was contemplating the foundation of a hospital ("amplissimum paras ęgrotantium domicilium et subsidium condere") and had requested an account of the regulations of the Florentine institution. This would probably be the Hospital of the Savoy, which was founded under the terms of Henry VII's will (see W. J. Loftie, Memorials of the Savoy, p. 87). But L. Passerini, Storia degli stabilimenti di Beneficenza . . . della Citta di Firenza, 1853, p. 304, states that the request was made by Henry VIII in 1524. He gives no authority for the date, but that king's name appears in a transcript made, apparently from another copy, then in the hands of Antonio Cocchi (d. 1758), by Giovanni Targioni, which Passerini prints, op. cit., p. 851. The patent for the Savoy was passed in 1511 (confirmed 1512) and the statutes were confirmed in January 1524 (cf. Loftie, op. cit., pp. 96, 100, and for an abridged copy of the statutes see Cotton MS. Cleop. C. v, f. 2).

Vellum ; ff. iii + 21. 9⅜ in. × 6 in. Early XVI cent. After the prefatory letter (f. 1 b) are the royal arms of England within a laurel wreath, and the first page of the text opposite (f. 2) is enclosed on three sides in a frame of renaissance foliage in colours on a gold ground. A panel with Virgin and Child and adoring angels is inserted between frame and text at the top, and in the frame at the bottom is a roundel with the arms of Portinari, or, a door supported by two lions rampant sa., with a prothonotary's hat, flanked by two gold shields charged with a crutch, the staff vert, the cross-piece gu. (cf. f. 2 b, "cum sigillo hospitalis id est scipione ex panno uel uiridi uel ruffo"). Illuminated initials in gold and colours. In a case (Italian, 17th–18th cent.) of red morocco, gilt-tooled, with fan and other patterns, with attachments for ribbons. Later the MS. was found in Lithuania by Michel Hausmann, Secrétaire de la Noblesse du Gouvernement de Minsk, who presented it to [Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy] in 1860 (cf. his letter formerly preserved with the MS., now Add. 40166, f. 29). Bookplate of arms of [Sir] Thomas Brooke, F.S.A., Armitage Bridge. Sir John Arthur Brooke sale-cat., Sotheby's, 1921, lot 797.

40078. PARLIAMENT Roll of Arms, 5 Feb. 6 Hen. VIII, 1515; the original roll of the Lords spiritual and temporal, with arms in colour, published in facsimile by Thomas Willement, 1829. It is referred to, jointly with a copy of the 1512 roll in Add. MS. 5831, as "U" in Papworth and Morant's Ordinary of Arms; no. 52 in James Greenstreet and C. Russell, "Reference List of the Rolls of Arms," The Genealogist, vol. v, p. 173.

Vellum roll; 13 ft. 6 in. × 8¼ in. A.D. 1515. Belonged to Thomas Willement (signature or initials, 1828, on back of each membrane; bookplate inside lid of japanned tin case; sale-cat., 1865, lot 795), William Bragge (sale-cat., 1876, lot 302), Sir Thomas Brooke, Bart. [1899], of Armitage Bridge, Huddersfield (Catalogue, ii, 1891, pp. 504–505), and Sir J. A. Brooke, Bart. [1919], of Fenay Hall, Huddersfield (sale-cat., 1921, lot 1161).

40079. TRANSCRIPTS of papers in the Florentine archives relating to a proposed marriage between Henry Frederick, Prince of Wales (d. 6 Nov. 1612), and a sister of Cosimo II, Grand Duke of Tuscany, 1611–1612. The chief correspondents are the Florentine representatives and emissaries in England and Rome and members of the Tuscan court. The arrangement is roughly chronological. A number of ecclesiastical pronouncements are in Latin, the rest of the papers in Italian. Different extracts from the same dossier are printed by C. Guasti in Giornale Storico degli Archivi Toscani, i (1857), pp. 55–64, 275–279.

40082. REPLICA by the nuns of the Benedictine abbey of Maredret, Namur, Belgium, of a page from their illuminated copy of Cardinal Mercier's Pastoral Letter, Christmas 1914; the text corresponds to p. 17 of the edition printed at Malines, 1914. Beg. "Nos malheurs ont ému les nations."

Vellum leaf; 9½ in. × 6⅝ in. Illuminated in a style adapted from French 14th century work, with a miniature of the prophet Habakkuk bringing food to Daniel in the lion's den (typifying America's help to starving Belgium), and a drawing in the lower margin representing the allied fleets coming to the assistance of the Belgians at the first battle of the Yser. The miniatures and marginal drawing are reproduced with slight variations in plates 22 and 25 of the coloured facsimile of the complete MS., Turnhout, 1921, but as illustrations to different parts of the text.

40083. 40085–40091. MINUTE-BOOKS of the House of Lords, 1621–1628, kept by H[enry] E[lsynge], Clerk of the Parliaments (the last by his son Henry Elsynge, jun., afterwards Clerk of the House of Commons), and entitled by him on the original vellum covers "The scrybled booke of the Parliament." These notes, as the numerous marginal directions indicate, were used to compile the official Journal of the Lords. Published, save for the last volume and omitting the matter printed in the Lords' Journals, by S. R. Gardiner, Notes of the Debates in the House of Lords (Camden Society, 2 vols., 1870, 1879). The unpublished volume covers the debates on the Petition of Right. As it now stands the series comprises, with gaps, the last two parliaments of James I and the second and third parliaments of Charles I, viz.:—

40085. Vol. I (ff. 160). 17 Apr.–18 May 1621.
40086. Vol. II (ff. 85). 14 Nov. 1621–8 Feb. 162½.
40087. Vol. III (ff. 122). 12 Feb. 162¾–25 Mar. 1624.
40088. Vol. IV (ff. 151). 1 Apr.–29 May 1624.
40089. Vol. V (ff. 160). 6 Feb. 162⅚–29 Apr. 1626.
40090. Vol. VI (ff. 130). 1 May–15 June 1626.
40091. Vol. VII (ff. 133). 17 Mar. 162⅞–26 June, 1628.

Two volumes, the first and the third, are missing from the 1621 parliament. An intentional mutilation occurs in vol. I at ff. 151–156, where the record of the Arundel–Spencer quarrel has been shorn away. In vol. IV the proceedings of 16 Apr. and 7 May 1624 are imperfect, and all between has fallen out. A few notes and entries in specified hands as well as the occasional signatures of attestation are indexed. Various numbers (library-marks or sale-marks) are written on the vellum covers and elsewhere. The original cover of vol. II is composed of a deed by Anthony Mason al. Wickes of Wintney co. Southt., Clerk of the Parliaments, transferring to Robert Bowyer of the Middle Temple [uncle of H. Elsynge sen.], his remaining life-interest in the office, 13 May 36 Eliz. [1594]. The subsequent history of the clerkship is detailed in the petition by H. Elsynge jun. for its reversion, 1636(?), in Cal. State Papers Domestic, 1625–1649, p. 545.

Paper (original covers of vellum). Folio. Belonged to James Brydges, 1st Duke of Chandos (sale-cat. 1747, lot 284, 8 vols. Perhaps vol. III, ff. 94-122 formed a separate volume). The letters, copied in rough chronological sequence, are strictly official and are in most cases addressed to individual commanding officers, victualling agents, etc., or to the Secretary of the Admiralty and the naval authorities. Only in one case are letters received by Nelson entered (those from Capt. J. W. Maurice relating to his surrender in June 1805 of Diamond Rock in the W. Indies, ff. 201, 202). Many of the letters are printed in Sir N. H. Nicolas, The Dispatches and Letters of Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson (7 vols. 1844–1846), but not from the present volume. The preceding letter-book is Add. MS. 34964. An index is prefixed to the volume.

According to a letter (bound up at the end, f. i), dated Vicenza, 20 Jan. 1771, from Frederick [Hervey, Bishop of] Derry [in 1779, 4th Earl of Bristol] to [John Garnett,] Bishop of Clogher, the MS. was "discover'd about nine years ago by a Soccolanti [observant] friar among the old rubbish of the castle" of [Christoforo Sizzo de Noris,] Bishop of Trent, who gave this leaf to Hervey. It was by him sent to the Bishop of Clogher, and according to a MS. note (f. iii) was given by the latter in 1776 to "J. G.", perhaps John Grimston (d. 1780), as the leaf has been found in an attic at Kilnwick Hall, co. York, the seat of the Grimston family. Another leaf, purchased at Dublin some years before 1847 by J. H. Todd and published by him in Proc. of Roy. Irish Acad., iii (1844–1847), pp. 374–381, is in the Library of Trinity College, Dublin, and was republished, with a facsimile, by T. K. Abbott, The Codex Rescriptus Dublinensis, 1880. In 1762 the whole MS. was lent to Giuseppe Bianchini, who made a copy of it, preserved in the Biblioteca Vallicelliana at Rome. After 1800 it was transferred to the state archives at Vienna and from thence in Nov. 1806 to the Hofbibliothek. It was edited by C. Tischendorf, Evangelium Palatinum Ineditum, Lipsiae, 1847, except the missing leaves, which were published in Sitzungsberichte d.k.bay. Akad. d. Wiss., Munich, xxiii (1893), pp. 281–287, by H. Linke, the present leaf from Bianchini's copy only. This leaf has been published by A. Souter, *Journ. of Theol. 40143. POEM on the mystical marriage of St. Catharine of Alexandria, in 869 octosyllabic lines rhyming in couplets. Fr.

The poem, after a prologue in praise of God, deals with the birth and education of the saint and the effect of her mother's inconsolable grief upon her. She resolves never to marry any but an immortal spouse, and a hermit from the desert, instructed by the Virgin, brings her to his cell, which is changed into a palace where she is baptized and the marriage with Christ celebrated. After a week's instruction in the Christian faith she returns to Alexandria, where her place has been miraculously filled, and the rest of her life is dismissed shortly without details. The poem is based on a Latin original ("Sicome en latyn trouay escrit / Translate ay hors de clergie"), which must have resembled the Latin "Tractatus de conversione sancte Katherine" printed from Munich MS. lat. 7954, f. 313 b (written A.D. 1337) by H. Varnhagen, Zur Geschichte der Legende der Katharina von Alexandrien, 1891, p. 18, but there are many important differences of detail. Beg.:

"A loenge lui gloriose pere
Qe tout le mounde ert fesere."

Vellum; ff. ii + 6. 8⅞ in. × 6 in. Written in England, middle of XIV cent. Two gatherings of 2 and 4 leaves. In two columns, 35 to 38 lines to the column. Sec. fol. "De haut parfound." Binding of brown morocco by Bedford. Belonged to Sir Henry Hope Edwardes, Bart. (Christie's sale-cat., May 1901, lot 404). Bookplate of F. W. Bourdillon (f. i). The seventh article in the MS. described under Add. 40142.

40144. COMMUNION SERVICE, calligraphically written in black, red and gold, by Graily Hewitt and partly illuminated by Allan Francis Vigers, the decoration being left incomplete at the latter's death in August 1921.

Seven gatherings of two leaves, only two of which (nos. 1, 5) have been decorated. One page only (f. 2) is fully illuminated in gold and colours, having a border of leaf scrolls with flowers and fruit and large figure initial. Another border (f. 1), with altar, chalice and Agnus Dei with adoring angels in the base, has been sketched in pencil and ink, with certain details tinted (? for gold). Other decoration consists of particoloured bars, wreathed with floral sprays and topped with naturalistically depicted birds, used to divide the double columns of the writing on ff. 1 b, 2 b, 9–10 b, and of leaf sprays used as line fillings on ff. 1 b, 9, 9 b, 10.

Vellum; ff. 14. A.D. 1921. Presented by Graily Hewitt, Esq., and by Mrs. Vigers and family, in memory of A. F. Vigers.

40145. "URANUS AND PSYCHE": a pastoral allegory, in five books in heroic couplets, each book concluding with "pastoralls" in the form of lyrical masques. Written circ. 1630, probably at Bow, co. Middlesex, by an Oxford man.

The theme is the redemption of the soul of man. Uranus (Jesus Christ), son of Pancrates (God Almighty), is the lover of Psyche (the Soul), daughter of Ander (Mankind) and sister of Soma (the Body). After the capture of Ander by Daimon (the Devil), son of Satan, Psyche and Soma, who do not know that they are brother and sister, come to Leboa (Bow on the River Lea), and the course of the rival loves of Uranus and Soma for Psyche, further complicated by the plots of Daimon, is related in pastoral terms. In the conclusion Uranus dies through the machinations of Daimon, but, reviving, recovers Ander from Cimmeris (Hell), and, the relation between Psyche and Soma being revealed, marries repentant Psyche. A sub-plot relates the love for Phillis of Coridon, with whom the author, in dedicatory verses to an earlier draft of Bk. I in Add. MS. 34179, identifies himself, stating that this is his first composition. On f. 291 b Oxford is referred to as Coridon's "reverend nurse." The many references to the neighbourhood of Bow, culminating at the end of Bk. V in a long allegorical poem in the Spenserian manner on the River Lea and her love for Thamesis, suggest that he lived at that place. The chief influence is that of William Browne's Britannia's Pastorals, 1613–16, though there are many imitations of other poets, Spenser, Shakespeare, etc. The date of composition is to be deduced from references to the birth of Charles II (1630), the masque after Bk. IV being in celebration of that event. By the loss of three or more leaves at the beginning Bk. I opens imperfectly at the line: "Twill force thee lowe on hands, and knees to climbe." The first draft in Add. 34179 begins: "Æternall Kinge! Whose Spiritt doth enflame." Four of the lyrics have been printed by N. Ault, Seventeenth Century Lyrics, pp. 65–67, 477.

Paper; ff. i + 311. Octavo. Circ. 1630. Modern binding of brown calf gilt-tooled.

The following MSS., 40146–40159, were presented by John Wickham Legg, Esq., F.R.C.P.

Vellum (except ff i, iv, v, vi); ff. vi + 387. 5½ in. × 3⅞ in. Written in Italy, xv cent. Gatherings of 10 leaves (i^{4}, ii^{2}, xiii^{8}, xiv^{8}, xvi^{11}, xxi^{6}, xxvii-xxxvi^{8}, xxxvii^{4}, xlii^{12}, xliii^{8}, xliv^{4}), mainly with catchwords. On f. 1 the following inscription has been added in a 15th cent. hand: "Sancte Marię Coronatę Mediolani ad vsum fratris Victoris de Mediolano frater Paulus de Pergamo vicarius generalis [Paolo Olmi of Bergamo, 1414-1484, Vicar General of Lombardy 1462-1483; see Domenico Gandolfo, Dissertatio Historica de ducentis celeberrimis Augustinianis Scriptoribus, p. 285] manu propria r[e]l[iqui]t." Three historiated, and numerous illuminated, initials with partial borders (except f. 7, which has a full border) of coarse execution occur throughout. The subjects of the historiated initials are:—St. Paul (f. 7), God the Father (f. 123), a martyr (f. 190). Other initials in red and blue. Modern tooled morocco binding by Rivière and Son. On f. iv is a description of the MS., copied from the Libri sale-cat. of 29 Mar. 1859, when the MS. was acquired (lot 191) by Sir William Tite, the architect (sale-cat., 19 May 1874, lot 394). Subsequently belonged to Robert Buchanan Stewart of Glasgow (bookplate, f. 1; Sotheby's sale-cat., 19 Apr. 1888, lot 91), and Rev. E. S. Dewick, whose notes occur on ff. iv-vi and signature on f. 11.

40149. Breviary of Olivetan use. Apart from the differences due to the greater length of the lessons in this MS., the text is in substantial agreement with that of Breviarivm congregationis Olivetanae, Venice, 1560, except in the Sanctorale, where divergences are frequent. An Olivetan breviary in two volumes at Rome (Vatican. 7235, 7236), described by Ehrensberger, Libri Litvrgici Bibl. Vaticanae, pp. 265, 266, probably differs little from the present version. Contents:—(1) Calendar, in gold (reserved for feasts of the Virgin), red and black, wanting the first two leaves (Jan.—April). Red entries include SS. Donatus (7 Aug.), Pontianus (25 Aug.), Placidus (5 Oct.), Minias (25 Oct.). Some of the additional entries are obscure, e.g. Damasianus, mar. (23 May), Teodoricus, mar. (16 Nov.). The differences from the calendar in H. Grotefend's Zeitrechnung des deutschen Mittelalters, ii, pt. ii, pp. 8-11, are not serious. f. 1;—(2) Tables, etc., viz.:—(a) Antiphons for Advent (as in Brev. congr. Olivetanae, 1560). f. 7;—(b) Rubric containing general directions for the year. Imperf. (three leaves wanting). f. 9 b;—(c) Movable feasts. f. 10 b. Mnemonic verses for finding the first day of the month by the Sunday letters have been added on f. 10 in a 17th cent. hand;—(3) Temporale, Advent—twenty-fourth Sund. after Pentecost, wanting two leaves at the beginning and single leaves after ff. 36, 163. The service for Trinity Sunday (f. 194 b) is substantially the rhythmical office (Dreves, Analecta Hymnica, v, pp. 19-22) composed by John Peckham, Archbishop of Canterbury, and made universal in 1343 (cf. the rubric in Breuiarium Romanum, Paris, T. Kerver, 1519, fol. cj); but the lessons are not from Peckham's homily on the doctrine of the Trinity. As in Vatican. 7235, the constitution "Excellentissimum" (Magnum Bullarium Romanum, Aug. Taurinorum, v, 1860, p. 14) of Eugenius IV, dated 26 May 1433, provides the first eight lessons for Sund. within the Octave of Corpus Christi (f. 202 b). f. 11;—(4) "Ordo psalterii secundum ritum monachorum sancte Marie montis Oliue[ti] ordinis sancti Benedicti": Psalter, with hymns, antiphons, etc. f. 261;—(5) Litany. The following invocations are in red:—SS. Benedict, Maurus, Bernard [of Clairvaux], Catharine and Scholastica. St. Zeno [of Verona?], whose name is at the end of the very short list of bishops and confessors, finds no place in the printed edition of 1560 (for a similar omission of this saint, cf. Add. MS. 39633). f. 341;—(6) "In festiuitatibus sanctorum [incip]iunt cantica ter[tii nocturni]." f. 343 b;—(7) Hymnary, including (f. 351 b) hymns "in festo sancti patris nostri Benedicti" (Chevalier, Repert. Hymnol., nos. 3007, 18984, 1664). f. 344 b;—(8) Sanctorale, SS. Saturninus—Catharine. At the end is the inscription: "Explicit proprium sanctorum per me fratrem Stephanum de Bapharie, etc." f. 357;—(9) "In aniuersario (sic) dedicationis ecclesie." f. 523 b;—(10) Commune sanctorum. f. 528;—(11) "[Ord]o officii beate Marie [virg]inis,"

f. 555 b;—(12) Communion and unction of the sick, ff. 560 b, 561 b, and commendation and burial service. f. 563 b;—(13) "Offitium mortuorum" (nine lessons). f. 571 b;—(14) "Absolutio a pena et culpa in articulo mortis fienda." f. 575;—(15) "Passio domini nostri Y[es]u Christi secundum Johannem" (Joh. xviii–xix. 37). Imperf. at end. f. 576.

Vellum; ff. i + 577. 7 in. × 4⅞ in. xv cent. (after A.D. 1433). Gatherings of 10 leaves (i^{14}, $lviii^{8}$, $last^{3}$; i has 1 cancelled, wants 2, 3, 11-13; ii wants 1, 2; iv wants 9; xvii wants 7), with catchwords. Decorative initials in Italian style in colours on burnished gold grounds (many have been excised or mutilated). Vellum binding (Italian, 18th cent.), gilt-tooled.

40150. Breviary of the Vallombrosan abbey of San Salvi, Florence (for another breviary from this house see Egerton MS. 2973; a third Vallombrosan breviary is Burney MS. 333). There are considerable variations of arrangement and other differences from the text in Breuiariū sm. ordinem Vallis-Umbrose (Venice, 1493). Contents:—

(1) Calendar in red and black. The Deposition (12 July), Canonization (1 Oct.) and Translation (10 Oct.) of St. John Gualbert and the Feast of St. Salvius (10 Sept.) are in red, each (except "Canonizatio Sancti Johannis Gualberti") with its octave in black. "Dedicatio ecclesie Sancti Saluii" (24 Sept.), although in black, ranks as "duplex maius," and "Conmemoratio defunctorum Sancti Saluii" (4 Aug.), also in black, as "duplex minus." Among the twelve-lesson feasts, in black, are:—(a) SS. Bernard Bp. [of Parma; abbot of San Salvi] (4 Dec.) and Romuald [founder of the Camaldolese Order] (20 for 19 June);—(b) SS. Alexander (6 June), Romulus (6 July) and Gaudentius (26 Nov.) of Fiesole;—(c) SS. Zenobius (25 May), Reparata (8 Oct.) and Minias (25 Oct.), venerated at Florence. f. 1;—(2) Psalter (with hymns, antiphons, etc.), Canticles and Creeds. f. 7;—(3) Litany, with double invocations of SS. Salvius, Bernard, Benedict and John Gualbert (in this order). The Florentine saints noted in the Calendar are also invoked. f. 67 b;—(4) "Ad completorium cotidianum collatio breuis." f. 69;—(5) Office of the Virgin, followed (f. 72) by a series of Memoriae differing considerably from those in Breu. sm. ord. Vallis-Umbrose, ff. ccclxxxvii[i] b, cccxci b. f. 70;—(6) Office of the Dead. f. 73 b;—(7) "Officium dicendum per totum annum secundum ordinem Uallis Umbrose": Temporale, Advent—twenty-fourth Sund. after Pentecost. The lessons for Sund. within the Octave of Corpus Christi and for the Octave itself (ff. 246–247) are from the constitution "Excellentissimum" of Eugenius IV, dated 26 May 1433 (cf. Add. MS. 40149, art. 3). f. 77;—(8) Tables of special antiphons before Christmas.

Described as "secundum curiam Romanam," the tables are in general agreement with those in Breuiarium Romanum (ed. T. Kerver, Paris, 1519), f. viii, and differ widely from the lists prefixed to the Vallombrosan edition of 1493. f. 289;—(9) Sanctorale, SS. Andrew—Saturninus. The lessons for the Visitation of the Virgin on 2 July (f. 366) are from the Bull of Boniface IX, dated 9 Nov. 1389 (Magnum Bullarium Romanum, Aug. Taurinorum, iv, 1859, p. 602). f. 292;—(10) Commune sanctorum. f. 444;—(11) Dedications of church and altar. ff. 461 b, 464 b;—(12) Miscellaneous lessons and collects for feasts of the Sanctorale. f. 466 b;—(13) "Offictium (sic) paruulorum": office for the burial of infants. The invocation of "beatiss[i]mi patris nostri Laurenti" is obscure; the corresponding prayer in the edition of 1493 (f. cccxcix verso) invokes St. Benedict. Imperfect. f. 475 b.

Vellum; ff. ii + 475. 6¼ in. × 4 in. xv cent. (after A.D. 1433). Gatherings of 10 leaves (i^6; xii–xix^8; xv has 6 cancelled; $xxxi^{12}$, 1 cancelled; $xlix^6$; last wants 9, 10), usually with catchwords. Sec. fol. of text "perdes omnes." Initials in red and blue, the larger with pen-work. Contemporary Italian binding of wooden boards covered with brown leather. Each cover is stamped with a border of foliage-scrolls enclosing a panel in which is a cruciform pattern composed of small crosses or saltires. Remains of brass clasps and straps.

40151. Breviary, pars hiemalis, of Augsburg use. The lessons in this MS. are frequently longer than those in the breviary printed by Erhard Ratdolt, Augsburg, 1495, and occasionally differ from them completely; the other divergences in the Temporale and Sanctorale are not serious. Contents:—

(1) Calendar, in red and black, with "Cisiojanus" (the differences from the text in H. Grotefend's Zeitrechnung des deutschen Mittelalters, i, p. 24, are largely accounted for by the introduction of Augsburg festivals), etc. On 28 Sept., in red, is "Dedicacio ecclesie Aug[ustensis]." Amongst the other red entries are:—SS. Udalric Bp. [of Augsburg] (4 July, with octave in black), Septem fratres (10 July), Afra (7 Aug.), Magnus abb. [of Füssen] (6 Sept.), Gallus conf. (16 Oct.), Narcissus ep. et m. [Bp. of Gerona, apostle of Augsburg] (29 Oct.), Othmar abb. [of St. Gall] (16 Nov.), Elizabeth vidua [of Hungary] (19 Nov.). There are no important variations from the calendar compiled by Grotefend, op. cit., ii, pt. i, pp. 4–7. f. 3;—(2) Astronomical tables for use in conjunction with the calendar. f. 9;—(3) Directions for Christmas (cf. ff. 397 b–401 of the breviary of 1495) and other ordinal matter. f. 12;—(4) Temporale, Advent—vigil of Pentecost, wanting the first leaf. The following rubric on f. 79 b may indicate that the MS. was written in A.D. 1443: "Nota ille ymnus A solis non habetur in choro quia breuiarium nichil narrat de eo nisi in sabbatum vel dominicam venerit. Anno etc. 1442[3] habebatur sic in choro." The vigil of the Epiphany, to which the rubric refers, fell on Saturday in 1443 and on Sunday in 1444. f. 19;—(5) Sanctorale, SS. Saturninus—Erasmus, ending (f. 305 b) with an office for the dedication of a church at Easter. An alternative service for St. Barbara (f. 225 b), subscribed "hec omnia secundum chorum Augustensem," is not found in the edition of 1495; but the MS. and printed text agree in appending a complete office for St. Odilia, who is commemorated (13 Dec.) only by a collect in the body of the Sanctorale in each case. A collect for St. Judoc, also on 13 Dec. (f. 236 b), "de quo chorus penitus nichil habet," does not occur in the printed version. f. 219 b;—(6). Commune sanctorum. f. 312.

Paper; ff. ii + 357. 12 in. × 8⅜ in. Double columns. A.D. 1443? (see art. 4 above). Initials, headings, etc., in red. Numbered gatherings of 12 leaves (ii wants 1, 2; last wants 11, 12; ff. 16, 17 are detached leaves). Sec. fol. of text "in suffragia." Contemporary foliation in red, ii–cclxxvii (ff. 19–309), and a–qq (ff. 312–357). Bound in wooden boards covered with white leather, blind-stamped, 15th cent.; back with three bands. Although the binding appears to be contemporary, the MS. had undergone repairs before becoming associated with it. Belonged, 19th cent., to William Francis de Vismes Kane, of Drumreaske, co. Monaghan (on ff. 1, 2, 11, 18, 311, 319, 320, 331, 338, 348, 351 are notes in his hand).

40152. BREVIARY of Augustinian use, as would appear from the rubric "In uigilia patris nostri sancti Augustini episcopi" for the feast of St. Augustine (28 Aug.) on f. 100 b, and also from the direction "Et nichil fit de sancto Augustino nec de pace" which is found between Vespers and Matins for the Conversion of St. Paul (f. 15 b). This instruction may have cancelled a monthly commemoration of St. Augustine formerly observed on the vigil of the Conversion of St. Paul; for in the calendar of Add. MS. 16890 (a breviary of Augustinian Friars, written A.D. 1469) is the following entry for 24 Jan.: "Commemoracio sancti patris nostri Augustini quod fit semel in mense si non cadit festum eius." But the Sanctorale of the same breviary (Add. MS. 16891, f. 104 b; cf. also Harley MS. 2872, f. 350) merely forbids any other commemoration than that of St. Peter. There are no offices in the Sanctorale of the present MS. for the distinctive Augustinian feasts (except the deposition of St. Augustine); but the feasts are similarly omitted from Harley MSS. 2872, 2988, Augustinian breviaries written respectively in Italy and Germany, and in Add. MS. 40148 they have been added at the end by a different hand. Contents :—(1) Sanctorale, SS. Andrew—Catharine, wanting the first leaf and a single leaf after f. 28. The first six lessons for the Visitation of the Virgin on 2 July (ff. 66 b–67 b) are from the decree of Boniface IX, dated 9 Nov. 1389 (Magnum Bullarium Romanum, Aug. Taurinorum, iv, p. 602). f. 1 ;—(2) Commune sanctorum. f. 141 b ;—(3) "Historia de dedicacione ecclesie." f. 165 ;—(4) Office of the Virgin (Roman use). f. 168 b ;—(5) "Officium in agenda mortuorum . . . secundum consuetudinem Romane curie." At the end is the colophon: "Et est finis breuiarium (sic) Per me fratrem Johannem de Argentina, 1472." f. 174 b.

Vellum ; ff. i + 178. 5⅜ in. × 4 in. Double columns. A.D. 1472. Written in Germany (possibly at the Augustinian convent at Strasburg). Gatherings of 10 leaves (i wants 1, iii wants 10), with catchwords. An illuminated initial in German style at the beginning of the Commune sanctorum.

40153. DIURNAL of the use of the Canons Regular of the Windesheim Congregation ; from the Priory of Our Lady and the Holy Apostles at Utrecht (see below). The text throughout is in close agreement with that in Diurnale sec. ord. regularium capituli Windechimensis, Basel, 1499, and has much in common with Add. MSS. 11864, 11863, a breviary in two volumes from the monastery of Roode-Clooster, near Brussels, which was united to the Windesheim Congregation in 1412 (see Le Grand Theatre Sacré de Brabant, i, p. 327). Contents :—(1) Tables for use in conjunction with the calendar, viz.:—(a) Golden Numbers, A.D. 1431–1449 ;—(b) Dominical Letters, A.D. 1401–1428 ;—(c) Table for finding the number of weeks between Christmas and Quinquagesima Sunday from the Golden Number and Dominical Letter. f. 3 ;—(2) Calendar. Apart from the absence of St. Anne (26 July), the Presentation of the Virgin (21 Nov.) and the dedication of the church of Windesheim (Sund. after 16 Oct.), the text is in almost complete verbal agreement with the calendar preceding the printed diurnal. All the Utrecht saints noted by Grotefend, Zeitrechnung des deutschen Mittelalters, vol. ii, pt. ii, p. 4, and others (e.g. Willibrord, 7 Nov.) appear. f. 6 ;—(3) Abridged ordinary, as in the printed diurnal. The "ordinarius abbreuiatus" in Add. MSS. 11864, ff. 25 b–32, 11863, ff. 15–17 is fuller, and contains references to the practices of the church of Cambrai on the festivals after Pentecost. f. 19 ;—(4) Psalms for Sunday Lauds, offices for SS. Monica and Anne (neither of whom appears in the Sanctorale), psalms at Compline. f. 28 ;—(5) Psalter (with hymns, antiphons, etc.), as in the printed diurnal. f. 36 ;—(6) "vij psalmi penitenciales" and Litany. St. Augustine heads the list of the confessors in the Litany, and the names of SS. Anne and Monica have been inserted. No differences from the printed diurnal. ff. 86, 91;—(7) Office of the Dead. f. 96; —(8) Hymnal, differing from the printed diurnal by the insertion of the hymns at Matins. Add. MSS. 11864, ff. 142–147, 11863, ff. 124 b–131, provide hymns for a few additional feasts. Imperf. at end (a gathering is wanting). f. 109;—(9) Temporale, Advent—twenty third Sund. after Trinity. Pars hiemalis (ff. 125–207 b) is in general agreement with Add. MS. 11864, ff. 156–199; Pars aestivalis (ff. 208–270) corresponds to Add. MS. 11863, ff. 140–168, but with considerable divergences in the offices immediately after Pentecost. Apart from differences in the rubric "De vacacionibus per estatem" and the following table on ff. 234, 235 (cf. also Add. MS. 11863, ff. 17, 18), the text conforms closely to the printed diurnal. f. 125;—(10) Sanctorale, SS. Andrew—Saturninus and others. The text in the main corresponds to Add. MSS. 11864, ff. 200–212, and 11863, ff. 170 b–208 (Add. 11864, 11863 omit the Utrecht festivals, transl. of St. Lebuin, SS. Frederick, Werenfrid, Gregory and Radbod, introducing the Transfiguration and the Cambrai saints Autbert, Gudule and Gaugeric, etc.). The Sanctorale of the printed diurnal differs from this MS. by the inclusion of offices for SS. Anne and Monica (see art. 4); neither has an office for the Presentation of the Virgin, although a marginal note in the MS. (f. 346) calls attention to its absence. f. 271;—(11) "In dedicacione ecclesie." f. 349;—(12) Commune sanctorum. An almost identical office in Add. 11864, ff. 213–222, has the colophon "Explicit diurnale de sanctis ab aduentu usque ad pascha." f. 351 b;—(13) Commemorations of the Virgin throughout the year and other suffrages, as in the printed diurnal. There are no material differences from the texts in Add. MSS. 11864, ff. 150–155, 11863, ff. 135 b–139, except that those include the services at Matins for the commemorations of the Virgin. f. 368.

Vellum; ff. iv + 373 (ff. 1, 2, 4 blank). 5¼ in. × 3¾ in. xv cent. (first half). Gatherings of 8 leaves (i^{6}, 2, 5 cancelled, a single leaf, f. 3, formerly pasted to the stump of 5; ii^{8}, f. 5 is a strengthening strip formerly pasted to f. 6; iv^{6}; viii has 7 cancelled; xiv^{10}; xvii wanting; xxxv^{10}; xlviii^{6}; last^{4}). Probably written at Utrecht. Initials in red and blue, some with penwork. Binding of oak boards covered with brown leather. Each cover is divided by diagonal three-line fillets into twenty-four compartments, twelve of lozenge shape, the remainder forming segments of lozenges. The lozenges contain four impressions of each of the following stamps: pelican in her piety (rectangular), swan with star (circular), quatrefoil (lozenge-shaped). These stamps are reproduced by A. Hulshof and M. J. Schretlen, De Kunst der oude Boekbinders, 1921, pl. III, nos. 3, 10, 11, and appear on books bound by the Brothers of the Common Life (or of St. Jerome) at Utrecht. The segments of lozenges bear impressions of two stamps: a heart transfixed by two arrows in saltire, surmounted by a star (circular), and a fleur-de-lys (lozenge-shaped). According to the South Kensington Catalogue of Bookbindings, 1894, pp. 168, 169, the two stamps occur commonly on books belonging to the Augustinian Priory at Utrecht; they are reproduced by Hulshof and Schretlen, op. cit., pl. I, nos. 4, 8. The evidence afforded by the occurrence of the various stamps on books at Utrecht suggests that the binding dates from the last quarter of the 15th century. Remains of brass clasps. Belonged to the Priory of Our Lady and the Holy Apostles at Utrecht; see the inscription, 16th cent., "Ad Regulares Ultraiectinos" on f. 372 b. Subsequently in the possession of John Hope, 5th Earl of Hopetoun (bookplate, f. i, cf. Add. MS. 33517), and Rev. E. S. Dewick (on ff. iii, iv are notes in his hand).

40154. DIURNAL of the Carthusian monastery of Bois-Saint-Martin, near Grammont, dioc. Malines (formerly Cambrai). For accounts of this house see Le Grand Theatre Sacré de Brabant, i, p. 357; F. A. Cartus.*, Basel, 1510, stat. nov., pt. i, cap. iv, 19–21, and Ordinarivm Cartvs., Lyons, 1641, cap. xxxvi, 14–16), all added; Officium benefactorum nostrorum (14 Jan.; cf. Ord. Cart., xlii, 6); Officium capituli generalis (Apr.; Rep. stat., stat. ant., pt. ii, xxix, 32); Commemoratio Cluniacensis (19 Oct.; Rep. stat., stat. ant., i, xlviii, 33, and Ord. Cart., xlii, 2); and presumably Festum laicorum (27 May);—(c) Local feasts: Dedication of the church ("Dominica prima post Magdalene [22 July] semper festiuitas est dedicationis ecclesie nostre domus scilicet Silue Sancti Martini ordinis Carthusiensis prope Geraldimontem"); festivals of St. Adrian (eleuatio, 4 Mar., aduentus in Geraldimontem, 27 May, [depositio], 8 Sept., and, 1 Dec., Nathalia uxor sancti Adriani). f. 7;—(4) "Arbor generationis Christi," including (amongst the descendants of Esmeria, sister of St. Anne) Servacius, Bishop of Tongres. f. 13;—(5) Diagram of the mundane and supermundane spheres, with text. f. 13 b;—(6) "Hore beate Marie virginis secundum ordinem Carthusiensem." f. 14;—(7) Psalter, with hymns, antiphons, etc. Differing widely in arrangement from the "psalterium in diuino officio dicendum scdm. morem ordinis Cartusiensium" at the beginning of Diurnum sec. Ord. Cartusiensium (T. Kerver, 1520), and omitting the psalms at Matins, Lauds, etc., which occur in that version. f. 46;—(8) Penitential Psalms and Litany, with the daily commemorations at Lauds and Vespers (cf. Harley MS. 2855, ff. 277 b–279; Diurn. Cart., ff. cccxix, cccxx). f. 74;—(9) Matins (abridged) and Lauds for the weeks following the first Sund. after the octave of the Epiphany and the octave of Corpus Christi. f. 80;—(10) Canticles for Sundays and twelve-lesson feasts, as in Diurn. Cart., ff. cxlii–cl, but somewhat differently arranged. f. 90;—(11) Temporale, Advent—twenty-fifth Sund. after Trinity. There are many variations in arrangement and other minor differences from the texts in Diurn. Cart., ff. clxxxij–cclxviij, and Harley MS. 2855, ff. 57 b–201. f. 98;—(12) Sanctorale, SS. Andrew—Saturninus, differing from Diurn. Cart., ff. cclxix–cccvij, and Harley MS. 2855, ff. 201–261 b, as in art. 11. An inserted leaf (f. 167) contains only a collect for St. Louis of France (25 Aug.). There is no office for St. Bruno. f. 152;—(13) "In dedicatione ecclesie." f. 175;—(14) "Benedictiones dicende ad lectiones" (cf. Diurn. Cart., ff. cccxx b, cccxxj). f. 176;—(15) Directions, roughly corresponding to the "Ordinarium de capitulis et orationibus dicendis in festis super annum" in *Diurn. Vellum; ff. xi + 210. 5¼ in. × 3½ in. End of xv cent. Executed in Flanders. The decoration consists of five large miniatures, thirty-six smaller miniatures, and five historiated initials, with full or partial borders, poorly executed in Flemish style. The subjects of the large miniatures are: Christ, half-length, with orb, blessing (f. 14), Crucifixion (f. 33 b), Pentecost (f. 41 b), Annunciation (f. 61 b), Visitation (f. 73 b). The smaller miniatures include representations of SS. Gommarus (f. 196), Drogo (f. 196 b), Wilgefortis (f. 205 b) and Godeleva (f. 206). The collation is uncertain owing to tightness of binding (leaves are wanting after ff. 91, 189). French binding of yellow morocco, 18th cent., gilt-tooled. Bookplate of arms of Frederick Perkins, of Chipstead Place, Kent (sale-cat., 13 July 1889, lot 1051). A cutting from an earlier sale-catalogue is pasted inside the front cover (f. i). Belonged subsequently to the Rev. E. S. Dewick (cf. ff. iv, vi, vii). The notes on ff. viii, ix are in the hand of the Rev. H. M. Bannister.

40156. Martyrology, in Latin, 24 Dec.—23 Dec.; written for the Franciscan convent at Milan, as appears from the entry on f. 54 b: " Eodem die [29 May] consecratio altarium ecclesie fratrum minorum de Mediolano, fiat festum duplex maius." A marginal addition to the text for 16 May, afterwards erased, reads " Ipsa die fuit reconciliata ecclesia sanctorum Naboris et Felicis Mediolani : de consecratione fiat festum duplex maius " (f. 49 b), and probably refers to the grant of the church and cloister of SS. Nabor and Felix to the friars by Alexander IV in 1255 (see Sbaralea, Bullarium Franciscanum, ii, pp. 15, no. xx, 58, no. lxxxi, and Cappelletti, Chiese d'Italia, xi, p. 202). Although the deposition of SS. Nabor and Felix (12 July) is not stated to be a feast of the highest class, these saints receive a much more detailed notice than is usual (f. 69 b), and the octave of the feast is recorded on f. 72. Their translation, on 17 May (f. 50), ranks as a greater double feast (see an extract inaccurately copied from this MS. in G. Trissinus, Acta S. Savinæ, 1627, p. 67, and cf. p. 91). Associated in this translation is St. Maternus, Bishop of Milan, whose body was discovered during the building of the refectory at the convent (cf. the Bollandists' Acta Sanctorum, 18 July, p. 364). Other relics at the convent included the heads of SS. Desiderius of Langres (f. 52), Barnabas (f. 59), Matthew (f. 96 b), Candidus (f. 97), and Odilia, one of the Eleven Thousand Virgins (f. 108 b), and the body of St. Caius, Bishop of Milan (f. 99). In the main, the text is a corrupt version of the martyrology of Usuardus (Migne, Patr. Lat., cxxiii, cxxiv), with many features in common with Martyrologium sm. morē Romane curie, Venice, 1498. Interpolated throughout are entries, upwards of sixty in number, of purely local interest. Nearly half of these relate to the early bishops and archbishops of Milan; amongst the remainder are curious notices of SS. Peter and Laurence on 31 May (f. 55) and St. Thecla on 24 Sept. (f. 97 b). Special prominence is also afforded to the Franciscan festivals, a long account of St. Berardus de Carbio and his companions being included at 16 Jan. (f. 8 b). Since the translation of St. Bernardino of Siena is recorded on 17 May (f. 50), the date of transcription may be placed after A.D. 1472 (cf. Acta SS., 20 May, pp. 88*, 90*); see, too, the statement on f. 121 that the feast of the Presentation of the Virgin was confirmed by Sixtus IV [1471–84]. The translation of St. Bonaventura (can. 1482) appears on 13 Mar. (f. 27), but his deposition is absent. While at the convent the MS. was consulted by several hagiographers, quotations appearing in G. Baldesano, Sacra Historia di S. Mavritio, 1604, p. 252 (ff. 93 b, 94), G. Trissinus, Acta S. Savinæ, 1627, p. 123 (f. 14, cf. also above), and P. P. Bosca, Martyrologivm Mediolanense, 1695, p. 183 (f. 65 b). At the end (f. 132) are "capitula que dicuntur per totum annum. ad absolutionem capituli" (imperfect; Temporale only, to Pentecost). These occur commonly in martyrologies of Franciscan houses (cf. Ehrensberger, Libri Litvrgici Bibl. Vaticanae, pp. 178–181), and appear in the editions of the Martyrologium sm. morē Romane curie published at Venice in 1498 and 1522. Two leaves after f. 125 and the last gathering are wanting.

Vellum; ff. ii + 134. 10⅛ in. × 7½ in. Written for the Franciscan convent at Milan, late XV cent. (after A.D. 1472). Gatherings of 8 leaves (xvi wants 6, 7), with catchwords; 22 lines to a page. Bookplate of arms of the Archinto Library at Milan, 18th cent. (cf. Add. MSS. 25130, 25449, 25450, 25453, 25454, 31912), with printed book-label L$\overset{\text{B}}{\text{X}}$VII.

A coat of arms, quarterly but otherwise indistinguishable, is at the foot of f. 1, surrounded by a laurel wreath and with cords. Of an erased note of ownership on f. 163 only the date, 3 Oct. 1561, can be read. Beneath, a 16th or 17th cent. hand has added, perhaps from a leaf now lost, a colophon (printed by Gatticus, op. cit., p. 167), stating that the MS. was written in the monastery of St. Mary on Monte Morcino at Perugia for Petrus de Monte, Bishop of Brescia (d. 1457), by Jo. Bruno of Deventer. For similar colophons in other MSS. written by Bruno for the Bishop, see Codices Vaticani Latini, vol. i, 1902, nos. 327, 332, 606.

40165. COMMENTARIES and theological treatises, with fragments of earlier MSS. used as fly-leaves, as follows:—

A. Fragments used as fly-leaves, viz.:—

1. St. Cyprian, three fragments from epistles lv, lxxiv, lxix. Portions of the following passages (Hartel's ed. in Corpus Script. Eccles. Lat., iii, pars ii) occur:—(a) Ep. lv, p. 645, l. 11, "facit daemoniis"—p. 647, l. 16, "inuenerint iudica[bit]." f. 1;—(b) Ep. lxxiv, p. 801, l. 12, "[re]tro nusquam"—p. 808, ll. 9, 10, "effectus [s corr. to m] est." f. 2;—(c) Ep. lxix, p. 752, l. 11, "aepiscopo legitima"—p. 754, l. 17, "episco[po] alium sibi." f. 5. The MS. of which these fragments formed part appears to have been the archetype, in these three letters at all events, of the English group of MSS. classed by von Soden ("Die Cyprianische Briefsammlung," Texte und Untersuchungen, N.F., x, 1904, p. 130) as η, viz. Royal MS. 6 B. xv, two MSS. at Oxford, Bodl. lat. 210 and New College MS. 130, and one (from Abingdon Abbey) at Cambridge, Corpus Christi Coll. MS. 25. For a full description, with facsimiles of parts of ff. 3, 4, 6, see New Palaeographical Soc., ii, pl. 101.

   Vellum; ff. 1–5. The full leaf measured about 12 in. × 9 in.; the fragments are cut to irregular sizes. They are portions of five (out of eight ?) leaves of a gathering of a MS. written in four narrow columns (33 lines to the column, though no more than 24 lines survive in any case) in a good uncial hand of the 4th (Lowe in Classical Quarterly, xxii, 1928, p. 48) or 5th cent. (N.P.S.). Biblical quotations are indented and written in red ink. Part of f. 3 has been erased to receive the 12th cent. table of contents of MS. B, below.

2. The Anglo-Saxon Martyrology, the portions for 2–10 May, printed by G. Herzfeld, An Old English Martyrology, E. E. T. S., 1900, pp. 70–80. Beg. "On þone æfteran [dæg þæs] monðes" (p. 70, l. 10), ends "þæs martyres tid sancti Gor[dianes]" (p. 80, ll. 13–14). The last page is badly rubbed, but most of the remainder is legible. For facsimiles of ff. 1 verso, 2 recto, and a description of the MS., see New Pal. Soc., ii, pl. 102. There are two other MSS. of parts of this text in the Museum, Add. 23211 (fragment, 9th cent.) and Cotton MS. Julius A. x, f. 44 (10th cent.). A later copy (late 11th cent.) is inserted in the margins of the Parker MS.

of Bede's Ecclesiastical History, Corpus Christi Coll., Cambridge, MS. 41.

Vellum; ff. 6, 7. IX cent. The leaves are cut down, but the original size of the text (without margin) must have been about 7¼ in. × 5¼ in. 30 lines to the page. Initials and line-fillings in red.

B. 1. "Cantica Glosata" (in the hand of the list of contents in A, f. 3): commentary on the Song of Songs, described on the binding as "Gu . . . [? Gulielmus] super Cantica." Pref. beg. "Liber iste uocatur canticum canticorum," text "Osculetur me . i . delectet me." f. 1.

ADDITIONAL MANUSCRIPTS

ACQUIRED IN THE YEAR

1922.

40167, 40168. Court-books of the halimote of the manor of Barnet, co. Hertf., 1246–1691, extracted from the original court-rolls, not now known to exist, at various dates, as noted below. As bound, Vol. I contains all the records before the dissolution of St. Alban's Abbey, to which the manor belonged, but it consists of several compilations of different date, the earliest of which was made, as the heading on f. 88 shows, under direction of John Mote, then Cellarer (1354–1374) and afterwards (at the time of the Peasants' Revolt) Prior. For some account of this compilation in book form, which apparently extended to most of the manors in Mote's charge (another is in Add. MS. 40625, below), see Miss A. E. Levett, "The Courts and Court Rolls of St. Albans Abbey" in Trans. of the R. Historical Society, 4th Ser., vii, pp. 52–76. The MS. is imperfect at the beginning, perhaps not wanting here more than one leaf, although a 15th cent. foliation-register at f. 190 b suggests that about six leaves are missing from the first 197. The first complete court is of Fri. after St. Matthias, 30 Hen. III [2 Mar. 1246], and hands very similar, if not actually the same scribe, carried down the work to the end of Edw. III [1377]. After this it was probably made up at short intervals to 3 Hen. V, the first entry for which, at the end of a quire (f. 167 b), is cancelled, because repeated in the new quire begun by another hand at f. 168. This second section ends imperfectly in the last year of Hen. V (f. 190 b), followed by a loose leaf of uncertain date. Between the courts for 5 and 6 Hen. V (f. 173) is the heading "Hic non habetur curia in isto anno quia clamant tenere per per (sic) cartam et placitare cum abbate Willelmo incipiunt," marked by marginal drawings of a mitre and crozier. The section for Henry VI, which has a separate foliation-register (f. 242 b), was formerly misbound in front of 3 Hen. V (f. 168). It has the heading (f. 192): "Extracta rotulorum de halimotis siue curiis tentis in diuersis maneriis siue dominiis ad porcionem abbatis pertinentibus ab anno primo regis Henrici sexti vsque ad annum eiusdem regis et ab anno tercio prelacionis abbatis Iohannis sexti [sc. Whethamstede] usque ad annum Officium rexit hunc scriptor dummodo scripsit / Librum Willelmus Walyngforth nomine dictus "; i.e. it was written during Wallingford's cellarership, which began later than 1445 (see f. 218) and not later than 1452 (see f. 225 b). There are no extracts for Edw. IV–Hen. VII, and those for Henry VIII (on smaller vellum) beg. Thurs. aft. St. Mark, 23 Hen. VIII [27 Apr. 1531] and end with a court the heading of which is blank [1538 ?]. Besides the courts held at Barnet the books include many pleas heard at the Abbey's central court at St. Albans under the ash-tree (see Miss Levett, op. cit., p. 9). Under 5 Edw. I (f. 16) is a marginal record of the "Tallagium de Barnet," 17 names with sums ranging from 6*d.* to 18*s.* There are a few wills proved in the court (19 Ric. II, 4 Hen. IV, ff. 142 b, 149 b, 150 b, 152 b, 153 b), the cellarer apparently acting as commissary for the archdeacon of the monastery. Chipping Barnet and East Barnet are sometimes treated as separate manors. A few holdings are noted in a late hand in the margin as belonging to the fee of the kitchener. Vol. II is all in one or more hands of temp. William and Mary, and contains courts from 5 Apr. [1554] to 4 July 1691. For the descent of the lordship during this period through the families of Butler, Weld, Munday and Latton, see Victoria County History of Hertfordshire, ii, p. 331. From 1687 the courts are in the names of Richard Haley and Thomas Marriott. Prefixed to Vol. I (ff. ii, iii) is a paper map (early 18th cent. ?) of Barnet Common, on a scale of about 20 inches to the mile.

Vellum (except ff. i–iii of Vol. I); ff. iii + 263; i + 385. 19 in. × 13 in. and 17 in. × 13½ in. Gatherings normally of 8 leaves, but with many insertions. The binding of both volumes was of thick boards covered with rough calf (circ. 1700 ?) with slight blind-tooling. The descent of the manor since 1691 is given in the Victoria County History, l.c.

40169–40172. NOTE-BOOKS of John Richard Green, historian. Four volumes, as follows :—Vol. I (ff. 59), consisting principally of jottings during two tours in Normandy (1867, 1868) ;—Vol. II (ff. 26), containing, besides descriptions of Italian and English places (? 1873), rough schemes for Geography Primers (before 1875) and "The People's Bible" ;—Vols. III, IV (ff. 377, 237), forming Green's collections for a history of the Angevin dynasty (cf. Letters of J. R. Green, ed. L. Stephen, 1901, p. 387). A number of odd leaves have been transferred to the end of Vol. IV.

Paper. Octavo and quarto. Presented by the writer's widow, Mrs. Alice Stopford Green.

40173. FORMULA BOOK of a lawyer practising in the courts at Ghent (?), probably Michael Clarebaut; compiled in 1624.

1. Formulas for use in civil actions. f. 2.
2. "Corte Instructie omme de Ionghe practisienen die in Vlaemsche taele in Vlaenderen practiquieren zullen willen in ciuile Zaecken": abridgement of the Flemish version of the civil part of the work "Brieue Instruction pour Josnes gens veullans hanter la pratique en causes ciuilles et criminelles en là Chambre du Comte de Flandres" by Philip Wielant, President of the Council of Flanders (d. 1519). The work was first composed in French in 1519. Only two copies of the French version are known, Lansdowne MS. 627 (probably the author's own copy) and a MS. at Ghent. The part dealing with civil procedure was printed in a Flemish translation at Antwerp in 1558 (not in the British Museum), and Joost de Damhoudere used the French version as the basis for his Pratique judiciaire es causes civiles, Antwerp, 1572. Accounts of Wielant and discussions of the relation between his work and that of Damhoudere are in articles by E. Nys, Revue de Droit international, Brussels, 1889, p. 155, and Ad. Dubois, Messager des sciences historiques, Ghent, 1889, pp. 301, 380. f. 30.
3. "Index decem temporum": contents list, so headed, of a book of legal practice, apparently of 85 folios. f. 116.
4. "Hier volghen diueersche requesten van diueersche materien": forms in Flemish and French. The French documents are chiefly concerned with Arras, and an account of the entry of the Count d'Hoogstraeten as Governor of Artois into Arras in 1624 (f. 137) dates the compilation of the volume in that year. f. 122 b.

Paper; ff. iv + 186. Folio. 1624. On f. 1 is the inscription "Michael Clarebaut Gandensis me possidet anno 1624," and the MS. appears to be partly in his hand. A later inscription is "Fostier Advocaat 1757." Contemporary vellum binding with thongs. In the binding were found four more or less complete strips of vellum and paper (ff. i–iv), containing documents in Flemish, 1555–1789, including receipts to Pieter Cortewille, treasurer of Ghent, from Ieronimus van den Berghe (8 June 1555, f. i) and Raesse de Cleercq (15 July 1568, f. ii).

40174. COURT-BOOK of manors in the lordship of Chirk, co. Denb. Latin. The lordship was bought by Thomas Middleton, esq. [knighted 26 July 1603], from John, 2nd Baron St. John of Bletso, in 1595, and the dates in the present court-book extend from 5 Nov. of that year (with some "placita pendentia" from earlier in the year) to 12 Sept. 1599. The entries were made from time to time in a separate book for each manor, the whole being bound together later (ff. 157–162 were bound in upside down and must be read in the reverse order). The manors are :—Ysclaudd [Isglawdd], ff. 1–27 ; Glyn, ff. 28–52 ; Llangollen, ff. 53–108 b ; Moghnant [Mochnant], ff. 110–162 b ; Kynlleth yr Yarll [Cynlleth yr Iarll], ff. 163–194 b ; and Carreckova [Carreghofa], ff. 195—end ; all in co. Denb. except the last, which is now partly in co. Montgom. For these manors see the 1568 survey of Chirkland published by J. Y. W. Lloyd, The History . . . of Powys Fadog, iv, pp. 39–43. The courts were held most often at Llangollen or Chirk, but also at Glyn Fechan, Llansilin, Llanrhaiadr, and Chirk Castle ; the steward was William Penryn, esq. On f. 143 is a letter or copy of a letter, signed, from him to Gruffydd Lloyd ap Lewis, bailiff of Mochnant, in Latin, concerning a case for the next court ; 30 Nov. 40 Eliz. [1597] ; followed by notes, in Lat. and Engl., with signatures, by Lloyd and another bailiff Wm. ap Kaddr [William ap Cadwaladr]. Printed, with a description of the whole MS., by H. I. Bell, Bull. of the Board of Celtic Studies (Univ. of Wales), v, pp. 47–8. On f. 164 b, reversing the volume, is the beginning of a letter of apology for breaking a promise ; printed ibid.

Paper (vellum cover, f. i); ff. i + 212. Folio. 1595–1599. Leaves have been torn out in several places, and others are imperfect. Presented by Sir H. Lloyd Verney, K.C.V.O.

40175. ORDER-BOOK of the Quarter Sessions for co. Denbigh. Leaves are lost at the beginning and in several other places ; in the present state of the volume the entries, which are in various hands, extend from 5 Oct. 1675 to 2 Oct. 1688, with a gap (ff. 17–18) between 13 Jan. 1679 [1680] and [Apr.] 1681. The inscription on the cover shows that they originally began at 13 Apr. 1675. The orders concern, among other matters, the repair of bridges, roads, etc., relief of the poor and of disabled soldiers, and the expense of the prisons. Signatures of the justices occur from time to time, and are recorded in the Index. Similar books " from 1647 to near the end of the century " are noted among the Chirk Castle MSS. in the Appendix, p. 73, to the Second Report of the Royal Commission on Historical Manuscripts. For a fuller description, with extracts, see H. I. Bell, Bull. of the Board of Celtic Studies, v, pp. 48–54.

Paper ; ff. ii + 49. Folio. 1675–1688. In the original vellum covers. Presented by Sir H. Lloyd Verney, K.C.V.O.

40176. RICHARD CRASHAW, " Sacrorum Epigrammatum Liber " : probably an earlier form of the collection published in 1634 (Cambridge) under the title Epigrammatum Sacrorum Liber. Six epigrams which do not occur in the 1634 edition are included here (as also in Bodl. MS. Tanner 465), the arrangement is somewhat different, and there are a few differences of reading. The dedicatory preface to the Master of Peterhouse, signed "Tuorum minimorum minimus Ri: Crashaw" (which, like the title on f. 1, is autograph), is replaced by a quite different one in the edition, which also contains four dedicatory poems not found here. A full description of the MS., with list of contents and facsimile of the signature, is given on pp. liv–lvii of the edition of Crashaw's Poems (Oxford, Clarendon Press, 1927) by L. C. Martin, who collates it with his text (under the designation A 4).

Paper; ff. 59. Duodecimo. On f. 1 is the name "James Andrew —Ashford." Original vellum binding, gilt-tooled and stamped. Sotheby's sale-cat., 14 Feb. 1922, lot 424.

40618. GOSPELS in Latin, Vulgate version. Imperfect at the beginning, wanting about 18 leaves containing all before Matth. xxi. 32. After f. 7 two original leaves are lost containing the end of St. Matthew from xxviii. 11, "uenerunt in ciuita—," followed doubtless by a miniature of St. Mark, and the beginning of his Gospel, to ii. 4, "cum non possent." Between the conjugates of the missing leaves is a guard, evidently belonging (see below) to an inserted Anglo-Saxon miniature. The rest of St. Mark and the other two Gospels are complete, except for the loss of the original miniature of St. John and the original text of the last leaf, after Joh. xxi. 16, "dilegis me," which has been replaced by a leaf written by an Anglo-Saxon scribe of the 10th century, with colophon "finit. QUI LEGAT ORAT (sic) PRO SCRIPTORE EADVVARDO DIACONE." Presumably at the same time as this replacement, miniatures of the evangelists in the Anglo-Saxon style were inserted either in addition to, or in replacement of, the four original Irish miniatures, of which only one (St. Luke, f. 21 b) now survives. Of the Anglo-Saxon substitutes two, SS. Luke and John, remain (ff. 22 b, 49 b). The same artist doubtless added the initials to the beginning of SS. Luke and John's Gospels, which are illuminated in Anglo-Saxon style over the original Irish interlaced initials, which have been washed out.

The text belongs to the Irish Vulgate tradition represented by the Kells, Armagh, Lichfield and Rushworth Gospels and the marginal readings of the Epternach Gospels (Paris, fonds lat. 9389), but without specially close agreement with any one of these, and has a few Old Latin readings not found in them. The only liturgical indications seem to be gold crosses in the margin against Joh. xi. 1, xv. 26, and xviii. 1, and these may be later.

Vellum; ff. 66. 5⅛ in. × 4⅛ in. Gatherings of 20 or 16 leaves (a^7, b^{20}, c^{20}, d^{16}, $e^8 + 1$). VIII–IX (and X) centt. Written (originally) in three minute Irish hands (but the second writes only a few lines, f. 51, col. 1). Facsimiles and notes on the abbreviations are given in New Palaeographical Society, Series II, Plates 140, 141. The Irish miniature of St. Luke closely resembles the evangelist miniatures preserved in the Book of Mulling (Trinity College, Dublin, MS. 66); see E. H. Zimmermann, Vorkarolingische Miniaturen, 1916, iii, pl. 194. The Anglo-Saxon miniatures are poor examples of the Winchester style, St. Luke in an oval, St. John in a rectangular frame. The emblems (ox, with book, and eagle, respectively) are above, on a curtain tied in complicated loops. It is probable, though not certain, that the gold of the initials in the margin is a later addition. The general treatment of initials to the sections is unusual. A line is very rarely broken for a new paragraph. In most cases the text runs on, omitting the initial in its proper place and leaving it to be inserted in the margin. The commoner practice of beginning a new line and filling up the space at the end of the previous line from the end of the first line of the new section also occurs.

Of the old binding one oak board remains and is kept separately from the MS. (40618 A), together with a vellum cover (40618 B) taken from another book ("Opusculum de auditu Kabbalistico" and "Scotica quaedam"), used since the 17th century as a wrapper.

On f. 66 b is an erased inscription (12th cent.) "iste est liber sanct...." Later owners recorded are William Newman, 1538, and Robert Lancaster, 1662. Sotheby's sale-cat., 1 Apr. 1922, lot 439.

40619, 40620. OLD TESTAMENT, in French, in two volumes. The version is that which S. Berger (La Bible française au Moyen Âge, 1884) styles "La Bible du xiii^e siècle," although, as P. Meyer pointed out (Romania, xvii, p. 135), the name should not be taken to imply a necessary unity among all its component books. Originally perhaps the most sumptuous of all extant copies in which this translation of the earlier books is preserved, this MS., like MS. français 899 at the Bibliothèque Nationale at Paris, has been ruthlessly mutilated by abstraction of miniatures and initials. Other MSS. which contain the earlier books are, at Paris, Arsenal 5056 and Bibl. Nat. fr. 6, 7, at Cambridge, Univ. Lib. Ee. iii. 52, and in the British Museum, Harley MS. 616 (of which the second volume is Add. MS. 41751). The translation of the prophetic books, etc., in the second volume occurs in many more MSS., being used to complete the Bible Historiale of Guyart des Moulins. In the present MS. the text is purely biblical throughout, without the gloss interpolated in the other MSS. in the translation of Genesis, Joshua–Ruth, Job, etc. There are no chapter-summaries nor, except for a brief rubric to Baruch, any prefaces or arguments to books. The numeration of six books of Esdras is unusual, but not unparalleled (see Burney MS. 6), and a virtually identical arrangement in five books, where Ezra and Nehemiah are counted as one, occurs in a fairly large class of Latin MSS., and is perhaps recognised by the ancient stichometry; see Berger, Hist. de la Vulgate (1893), pp. 21, 22, 94, 326, and R. L. Bensly, The Missing Fragment of the Latin Translation of the Fourth Book of Ezra, 1875, pp. 82–86. Cf. also Royal MSS. 1 B. viii, 1 E. i, 1 E. ix; Burney MS. 4; Harley MSS. 1793, 2814; Add. MS. 32124; but all these MSS., except 1 E. ix, give for 3 Esdras the version printed as "versio altera" in Sabatier's Bibliorum Latinae Versiones Antiquae. In the French the text is conflate, taken partly from the "versio vulgata," partly from the "versio altera" of Sabatier. Vol. I has lost two whole quires (i and xv) and about 48 other leaves, and the majority of the historiated and illuminated initials have been cut out (a few are replaced). Vol. II has lost quires iii, xiii, xiv, xviii, xxiii, xxiv, xxxi and about 19 other leaves, but retains more of the illuminated chapter-initials. Contents :—

Vellum; ff. ii + 201, i + 268. 17 in. (Vol. II, 17½ in.) × 13 in. Middle of 13th cent., written probably in France. Gatherings of 12 leaves (in Vol. I i missing, ii wants 1 and 3, iii wants 2, 6 and 7, iv wants 10, v wants 3, 8 and 9, vi wants 1 and 10, vii wants 4, 5 and 11, viii wants 5, x wants 1 and 10–12, xi wants 1 and 7, xiii wants 6, xiv wants 2, xv missing, xvi wants 1–3 and 5–9, xvii wants 6, xviii wants 2–11, xxi wants 4, xxiii^{6}, wants 3 and 4; in Vol. II i wants 6 and 7, iii is missing, iv wants 11, vii wants 9, ix wants 4 and 9, x wants 1 and 6, xii wants 11, xiii, xiv, xviii, xxiii, xxiv missing, xxv wants 6, 7 and 11, xxvii wants 1–3 and 7, xxviii wants 4 and 11, xxx wants 10 and 11). Many other leaves are mutilated by cutting out of illuminated initials and some are almost entirely removed. The MS., as appears from a note (Vol. II, f. 65 b), was imperfect circ. 1700, but most of the damage is probably of later date. The single historiated initial which survives (1 Chron., A with four circles showing, on gold background, trees of descent of the patriarchs, Vol. I, f. 163) is not remarkable, but the illuminated chapter-initials (some with grotesques) are of excellent execution, and the text is very well written. Many of the letters following the chapter-initials and some others are ornamented in ink by the scribe with faces or animal forms. Headings are flourished in red and blue. The binding is of oak boards originally covered with stamped leather (damaged on Vol. I, removed from Vol. II), probably English and of the Tudor period. The stamps include crown, fleur-de-lys, rose, portcullis (?), etc., and are disposed to form the border of the centre panel and outer line of the border of the outer frame, the inner line consisting of quatrefoils within lozenges. Remains of a brass clasp. A few English interlinear glosses in Isaiah (Vol. II, ff. 157–158) appear to indicate English ownership in the 15th cent. They include some unusual words: for fondra "schal goote," chaume "edisch" (stubble), escorre "vnhudde," sap "birre" (this perhaps a mistake for "firre"). Marginal scribbling of the 17th–18th centt. includes a fragment of the metrical version of Ps. i in Sternhold and Hopkins (Vol. II, f. 48), and four lines on marriage (ib., f. 2) beg. "How unhappy is yᵉ man yᵗˢ inslaued | To an earthly aourse (sic) and a wife." In 1655 the MS. belonged to one Roger Wood (see Vol. II, f. 268 b, and on f. 129 b the note: "It is a very good French bible for Mr. Roger Wood but I doe thing he doth not vnderstand it. Anno Domini 1656. John Prince"). This is not the Roger Wood who became Canon of Wells in 1638, for he died in 1650 (Cal. for Compounding). On f. 1 of the same volume is "Tho. Wood est ueror (sic) possesor hujus libri." A mutilated inscription (18th cent.) on f. 9 b of Vol. I, ". . . ylde Esq. . . . Taunton . . . [t]he Boible." Afterwards the MS. belonged to Edward Ayshford Sanford, of Nynehead Court, co. Som. (d. 1871). The name of his grandson E[dward] C[harles] A[yshford] Sanford is on Vol. I, f. i b. Sotheby's sale-cat., 28 Mar. 1922, lot 456.

40621. CORRESPONDENCE AND PAPERS of the Harley family, supplementary to the great collection of Harley papers at Welbeck Abbey calendared by the Historical MSS. Commission in vols. iii–vi of the Duke of Portland's MSS., 1894–1901, viz.:—

1. Eighteen letters addressed to Robert Harley (1st Earl of Oxford and Mortimer 1711) from his father and brother, Sir Edward and Edward Harley, at the time of the Revolution; 9 Dec. 1688—Apr. [1689]. f. 1.
2. Correspondence (letters received and draft replies) and papers of Thomas Harley, Secretary to the Treasury, as envoy on two occasions to Hanover; Feb.–Sept. 1712, Jan.–May 1714. The chief writers are [Robert Harley, 1st Earl of] Oxford as Lord Treasurer and H[enry] St. John, [Viscount] Bolingbroke (1712) as Secretary of State; there are also a few letters from the English plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, [Thomas Wentworth, Earl of] Strafford (1711), and John [Robinson, Bishop of] Bristol. St. John's letters are in most cases printed from other sources by G. Parke, Correspondence of Lord Bolingbroke, 1798, and some of Oxford's are calendared in the H.M.C. volumes above-mentioned. f. 38.

3. Letter from J[oseph] Addison, as Secretary to the Lords Justices, to [Matthew] Prior, ambassador in Paris, requesting copies of his dispatches since Queen Anne's death; St. James's, 14 Aug. 1714. f. 244.
4. "The state of the Bill for an annuall and trienniall Parliament with objections to and necessesary (sic) Reflections thereupon"; [1693]. f. 246.
5. "Observations by Mr. [Lewis] Innes [sometime Principal of the Scots College at Paris] on Mr. [Robert] Leslie's paper on the Kings leaving Scotland, March 1716" (so the endorsement). Leslie was son of the nonjuring Dr. Charles Leslie. His MS. at Windsor (see H.M.C., Calendar of the Stuart Papers, vol. iv, 1910, p. 23) is endorsed as "wrote by Mr. Leslie, junior, at Paris, March, 1716, from Lord Mar's journal," and was published in 1716, with alterations, as the Journal of the Earl of Mar. f. 250.
6. Letter from [Charlwood Lawton] to [the Earl of Oxford ?], dat. Northampton, 13 Aug. 1719, with extract of a letter [1687] from Lawton to John Trenchard [knighted 1689] rel. to the latter's pardon; followed (f. 254) by Lawton's autograph account of his friendship with William Penn and of the latter's intercession for Trenchard and Aaron Smith, more or less identical with the first part (pp. 216–220) of Lawton's "Memoir of Penn" published in the Memoirs of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, vol. iii, pt. ii, 1834, pp. 215–231. f. 252.
7. "The Narrative of Capt. Mark Lynch: Relating to a Project Form'd in France, after the Peace at Reswick [1697], For Burning the English Fleet Then at Portsmouth and Chatham." Printed. f. 256.

Paper; ff. 257. Folio. XVII–XVIII centt.

40622–40624. "THE UTMOST ISLES," by Charles M. Doughty: the autograph MS. of an early form of the poem published in 1906 under the title "The Dawn in Britain," differing widely throughout from the printed version and differently arranged. There are, as in the printed text, twenty-four books in all, but the poem is divided into two volumes (the second in two parts), each containing twelve books, separately numbered, and entitled respectively "Samothea" or "Book of the Mist" and "Alban"; and the divisions of the books do not in any case correspond with those of the work as published. Most of them are furnished with prose arguments and some with lists of the persons who occur in them. The original title was "The Utmost Isle"; the alteration was made in Vol. I, but not in Vol. II. The volumes are thus arranged:—40622, Vol. I; 40623, Vol. II, Books I–VI; 40624, Books VII–XII. Though an early, this is not the original, form of the poem, many alterations having been made, partly by insertions and deletions, but more frequently by pasting slips of paper over the original text. The greater part has been cancelled by a line drawn through each page of text.

Paper; ff. 988, 527, 452. Octavo. XIX–XX cent. Presented by admirers of Doughty's work.

Nos. 40625–40632, with Add. Ch. 64919–66125, were presented by Adela, Countess of Essex.

40625. CASSIOBURY PAPERS. Vol. I. Court-book of the halimote of the manor of Park (al. Parkbury, in St. Stephen's, co. Hertf.), 1237–1537, extracted from the original court-rolls, some of which appear still to exist (see Hist. MSS. Comm., Rep. on various Collections, vii, pp. 304, 306): a similar volume to 40167 (q.v., and cf. Miss Levett's paper on the St. Albans Courts, there quoted). Beg. Mon. after St. Ethelburga, 21 Hen. III [12 Oct.? 1237], but there are gaps noted, especially in the Hen. III rolls (e.g. "nichil inueni de anno xxv^{to}"). The hands of the extracts made in Mote's cellarership seem to be partly the same as in 40167. The first series, as in 40167, is carried to the end of Edw. III, and a second (on smaller vellum) begins with 1 Ric. II (f. 121), ending 3 Hen. VI. A third beg. with 1 Hen. VI (f. 185), the first three years being duplicated, with slight differences, and ends 38 Hen. VI. There are no extracts for Edw. IV–Hen. VII. The fourth series beg. (on still smaller vellum) with 23 Hen. VIII (f. 214 b) and ends Tues. after Low Sunday ("Dom. in Albis"), 28 Hen. VIII [10 Apr. 1537]. The tallage for 5 Edw. I (f. 21) contains 83 names, with sums from 6*d*. to 13*s*. 4*d*. There are several probates of wills, the cellarer acting as commissary of the archdeacon, as on ff. 140, 154, 158 b, 162 b, 172 b, 175 (on f. 124, by the accidental omission of "commissario," Robert de Chestan is made to appear as himself the archdeacon), or having a commissary with him, as on ff. 144 b, 145, 157, 157 b. Not all the wills are recited.

Vellum; ff. 229 (f. 120 blank). 20 in. × 13½ in. XIV–XVI centt. Gatherings normally of 8 leaves (for temp. Hen. VI 2 gatherings of 12, with 4 extra leaves); catchwords to the end of Hen. V. The binding (17th–18th cent.) was plain rough calf. The MS. doubtless passed with the manor to Sir Anthony Denny in 1547, and in 1608 to Sir Charles Morison; see Vict. C. Hist., Herts., ii, p. 424, and cf. 40626.

40626. CASSIOBURY PAPERS. Vol. II. Court-book of the halimote of Cashio manor, in Watford, co. Hertf., 1238–1460: a volume similar to the preceding. For some of the rolls used in the compilation see Hist. MSS. Comm., Rep. on various Collections, vii, pp. 302, 306. The original portion, executed in Mote's cellarership, beg. "Extracta rotulorum . . . Halimot' apud Kaysho in octabis apostolorum Petri et Pauli anno r.r. Henrici XXII" [6 July 1238], but there are gaps due to loss (or, as at f. 15, illegibility) of the rolls, and a leaf seems to be lost after f. 1. From 40 Edw. III to the end of the reign it was perhaps made up at short intervals, but new series begin at 1 Ric. II (imperfect at the end, 7 Hen. V), and at 1 Hen. VI, the latter ending Wed. after St. Dunstan, 38 Hen. VI [21 May 1460]. The tallage for 5 Edw. I (f. 18) gives only three names, the rest being assessed together at 20*s*. The names of the assessors are added. Probates of a few wills are noted, 2 Ric. II–4 Hen. V (ff. 95–126), but several of the wills are not recited. In a plea at a court on Thurs. aft. Whitsunday, 21 Ric. II [30 May 1398] (f. 111 b), reference is made to a disseisin during the Peasants' Revolt ("tempore insurrectionis communium") in 1381.

Vellum; ff. 156. 18 in. × 13 in. XIV–XV centt. Gatherings normally of 8 (temp. Hen. VI of 12) leaves; catchwords in the second series only. The binding (17th–18th cent.) was rough calf, slightly blind-tooled. After the Dissolution the manor was given in 1545 to Sir Richard Morison (al. Moryson), the diplomatist, whose inscriptions are on f. 7 b in Greek, Ρικαρδου Μορυσίνου καὶ των φιλῶν, with a quotation from Hesiod, τὴς ἀρετης ἵδρωτα φεοὶ (sic) προπαροίθεν ἴθηκαν | αθανατοι, and in Latin on f. 15 b, "Sum Ricardi Morisyn." It passed, by the marriage of his great-granddaughter Elizabeth to Arthur, 1st Lord Capell, into the family of the Earls of Essex; see Vict. C. Hist., ii, p. 453.

40655. Lives of the early monks and ascetics, in Greek, viz. :—

1. The Historia Lausiaca of Palladius, bishop of Helenopolis, beg. Ἀντίγραφον ἐπιστολῆς γραφείσης Λαύσῳ...Μακαρίζω σου τὴν προαίρεσιν, with no further rubric before πολλῶν πολλὰ. The present MS. belongs textually to the same group as nos. 14–18 of C. Butler's edition (Texts and Studies, vi, no. 2, 1904, pp. xv, xlix, 186), where the type is described as " a B text which has been subjected to a free literary revision." It differs therefore considerably from the text in Migne, Patr. Gr., xxxiv. 1001–1260, and still more widely from the uncontaminated G text edited by Butler, op. cit. Order and contents are identical with those of the 11th cent. Vienna MS. Hist. Gr. 84 described fully by H. J. Foss, Macarii Aegyptii Epistolae, etc., 1850, pp. 291–310, the same colophon τέλος τῆς τοῦ Παλλαδίου πρὸς Λαῦσον ἐπιστολῆς (f. 87) being followed by the same additional material, beg. Ἀκροώμενος λόγον (see E. Preuschen, Palladius und Rufinus, 1897, p. 149). Mistakes in spelling, especially through itacism, abound. f. 1.
2. The Historia Religiosa of Theodoret, bishop of Cyrrhus, beg. Πρόλογος τῆς φιλοθέου ἱστορίας...Τῶν ἀρίστων ἀνδρῶν. Ends imperfectly with κελευσθὲν in the account of Symeon Stylites, which also begins imperfectly with ἐρέσθαι (f. 185) through loss of a leaf after Νιμουζᾶν in the account of Asclepius. A few marginal corrections and interpretations are in the original hand. Printed in Migne, Patr. Gr., lxxxii. 1283–1496. The text agrees, for the section in question, with the group pvs in H. Lietzmann's Das Leben des Heiligen Symeon Stylites (Texte und Untersuchungen, xxxii, Heft 4, 1908, pp. 1–18). f. 89.

Vellum; ff. 190. 7⅞ in. × 6 in. xi–xii cent. Gatherings of 8 leaves (the last imperfect) with signatures on first and last pages. The numeration starts anew at f. 89 with Theodoret. Twenty-three lines to the page. Binding (17th cent. ?) of brown leather over wood, with acanthus border and central stamp. Various scribblings occur throughout, and there are the following notes of ownership: f. 1, + σβημα σεμνόν ἐκ (?) πόλεις βηζαντήου αναζοφὸν; f. 1 b, + λαμψατῆκῶ και ἦναι σβημα η (?); f. 2 (in a different hand), τού ρουσάνου μαναστήρου καὶ ὅστης το ἀπωξενω να ἐχη τας αρας τον π̅ρ̅ω̅. Belonged to Angela Georgina, Baroness Burdett-Coutts (d. 1906; sale-cat., 15 May 1922, lot 220); one of the manuscripts obtained by her from Janina, Albania, in 1870–1872.

40656. Psalter and Canticles, in Greek. The Psalter is divided as usual into twenty καθίσματα, which are sometimes, but not always, numbered at the end, each subdivided into three στάσεις, which are marked at the end by the word δόξα in red ink. The additional Psalm cli, which is given, is not included in this arrangement. The Canticles are the usual nine Odes of the Horologion, for which see J. Mearns, The Canticles of the Christian Church, 1914, p. 11. Here the Ode numbered by Mearns 7*b* follows continuously on 7*a*, without a separate heading, but the Benedictus is distinct from the Magnificat, making ten Odes in all. Numbered Evan. 612 by Scrivener; 932 in Gregory's Textkritik des Neuen Testamentes, vol. i, p. 452, but omitted from his later list, Die griechischen Handschriften des Neuen Testaments, 1908.

Vellum; ff. 117. 3½ in. × 3 in. xii–xiii cent. Gatherings originally of 8 leaves, not numbered; leaves are lost after ff. 23, 26 (two), 36 (two), 45, and ff. 53, 56 are later insertions, to replace lost leaves. The ink is often much faded, and in some cases, e.g. f. 86, the characters have been re-written later. In addition to those mentioned above, a leaf would appear to be missing after f. 109, but the gatherings before and after contain the normal number of leaves and there is no trace of mutilation; this leaf may have been omitted when the book was bound. Ornamental headpiece in red at the beginning; initials and headings in red. The front cover remains, brown leather over board, traces of a panel pattern, with six studs (all now lost) in three rows; perhaps 15th century. Belonged to Baroness Burdett-Coutts (sale-cat., 15 May 1922, lot 172); one of the Janina manuscripts, see 40655.

40657–40661. Compositions for two, three, four, five and six viols, in parts, in the hand of William Lawes (d. 1645), by composers of the 16th and 17th centuries, including, in addition to Lawes himself, Thomas Lupo, [Robert ?] Chetwoode, Thomas Holmes, John Cooper al. Coprario al. Coperario, Nicholas Guy, John Ward, Thomas Ford, Simon Ive al. Ives, Alfonso Ferrabosco, Dr. John Bull, and William White. In addition the MSS. contain arrangements for viols of madrigals by Claudio Monteverde, Luca Marenzio, Orazio Vecchi, and Benedetto Pallavicino. Five volumes, containing respectively the Cantus (Vol. I), Alto (Vol. II), Tenor (Vol. III), Bassus (Vol. IV) and Quintus (Vol. V); the sixth vol., containing the Sextus, is wanting. In Vol. V some hymn-tunes in two parts have been copied on ff. 16 b–24 in an early 19th cent. hand.

Paper; ff. 50, 50, 35, 50, 35. Small folio. Early XVII cent. (except Vol. V, ff. 16 b–24; see above). Contemporary bindings of brown calf, each stamped on both covers with book-stamp bearing the arms of the Shirley family of Staunton Harrold (cf. E. P. Shirley, Stemmata Shirleiana, 1873, pp. 101, 117). Belonged to Baroness Burdett-Coutts (sale-cat., 16 May 1922, lot 336).

40662. "L'Histoire de la mort d'Anne Boullenc, royne d'Angleterre": poem in French decasyllabic couplets on the trial and death of Anne Boleyn, beg. "Les cas nouueaux et choses merueilleuses." The author dates his work from London, 2 June 1536, a fortnight after Anne's execution on 19 May. His name is given in the first printed edition (Lyons, 1545) as [Lancelot de] Carles, almoner to the Dauphin (and afterwards Bishop of Riez), but a MS. at Valenciennes (no. 419 in Cat. Gén. des MSS. des Bibliothèques Publiques, vol. xxv, 1894, p. 377) and Meteren in L'Histoire des Pays-Bas, 1618, p. 21, ascribe the poem to a certain Anthoine de Crespin (al. A. Crispin), seigneur de Miherne (al. Miherve). The latest editor, G. A. Crapelet, in Lettres de Henri VIII à Anne Boleyn, 2nd ed., 1835, pp. 167–214, does not commit himself. The text varies considerably between the various versions and is extended in the present MS. by four extra verses at the end: "Mille cinq cens que l'on comptoit ainsi | Ie prie à Dieu quil vueille auoir mercy | De ceste Royne aussi de ces seigneurs | Et auec luy soient en gloire et honneurs."

The correspondence, all save the last letter, belongs to the period of Gordon's governorship in the Equatorial Provinces and the Sudan, and consists partly of business instructions and partly of accounts of his activities. Some of the letters are illustrated with thumb-nail sketches. Not mentioned in J. M. Bulloch's bibliography (Aberdeen University Studies, no. 94, 1924, pp. 129–175), but occasional pencilled brackets, and the pencil note "Print verbatim" on f. 7, point to publication.

40671. SERMONS on the Gospels by John Wycliffe, in English. Lettered as L but not collated in Thomas Arnold's Select English Works of John Wyclif, 3 vols., 1869, 1871. The contents are arranged as follows:—

40674. ANNALS of Ireland, 1162–1370, in Latin ; and the Irish-English version of Giraldus Cambrensis, De Expugnatione Hiberniae.

1. Annals of Ireland, 1162–1370, abridged from " Pembridge's Annals " (for this title cf. Analecta Hibernica, Irish MSS. Commission ii, 1931, pp. 320, 321, where an account of these annals is given), which were first printed by Camden at the end of the 1607 edition of his Britannia, and, more accurately, by J. T. Gilbert, Chartularies of St. Mary's Abbey, Rolls Ser., 1884, ii, p. 303, in both cases from the Bodleian MS., Laud Misc. 528. The abridgement is probably that of Philip Flattisbury of Johnstown near Naas, who in 1517 made extracts from Pembridge's Annals for the 9th Earl of Kildare (cf. Campion, Historie of Ireland, ed. Sir J. Ware, 1633, p. 68, who used these extracts in three copies in the possession of Lord Trimleston, Arthur Agarde and Thomas Stanyhurst, and a copy in Trin. Coll. Dublin MS. 584). The present MS. was clearly prepared under Flattisbury's eye, for at the end of the Annals are certain extracts in his hand (for which see a facsimile of the Red Book of Kildare compiled by him for the 8th Earl in 1503, Gilbert, Nat. MSS. Ireland, iii, Pl. ix, and entries in the same hand in the Kildare Rental, Harley MS. 3756, passim), viz.:—(a) Three paragraphs headed " Jus et titulum (sic) Corone Anglie," beg. " Henricus filius Edmundi " : note on Lancastrian and Yorkist claims to the crown. f. 54 b ;—(b) Obit of Richard de Burgh, 2nd Earl of Ulster, 1326, as printed among the de Burgh entries in J. Grace's Annales, Ir. Arch. Soc., 1842, p. 160. ib. ;—(c) Various annalistic memoranda, 1394–1513, chiefly of Fitzgerald interest, not in strict chronological order, agreeing with the additions to Grace's Annals, op. cit., p. 156 ; with some additions in a later hand. ib. The connection with Grace here is significant, for in Cotton MS. Vespasian D. x, ff. 138 b–143, are some fragments of annals for 948–1145, 1242–1257, also in Flattisbury's hand, which are obviously the source for the corresponding annals in Grace. These are followed by other extracts in different 16th century hands, viz.:—(d) Obits of Mortimers, Lacies and Genevilles ; cf. Grace, p. 158. f. 55 b ;—(e) Tale about the battle of Knocktow, A.D. 1513, not among those found in the Book of Howth, pp. 181 sqq. Engl. Printed in Anal. Hib., ii, p. 327. f. 56 ;—(f) A curious account of the murder of William de Burgh, 3rd Earl of Ulster, 1333, for which see Clyn, Annals, Ir. Arch. Soc., p. 24, and Orpen, Ireland under the Normans, iv, p. 246. Engl. f. 56 b ;—(g) Obit of Nicholas Comyn, bishop of Lismore and Waterford, 12 July 1557. Lat. f. 57 ;—(h) Account of Lord Leonard Gray's proceedings, 1536, agreeing except for verbal differences with that in Grace's Annals, p. 158. Lat. f. 58 b.

A quire of ten leaves has been inserted between ff. 43 and 54, the last two leaves of the original annals, on which a later 16th century hand has made a transcript of the last annal, 1370, followed after two blank leaves by annals for 1397–1433/4 (f. 47). These derive from Marleburgh's Chronicle, cf. Camden, Britannia, ed. 1607, p. 832. The Annals have been annotated by a number of later 16th century hands, among them that of Lord Burleigh, who has made entries from other Irish annals. On a flyleaf at the beginning (f. 1) are various lists in Engl. in hands later than that of the Annals, viz.:—(1) " Archiepiscopi et Episcopi Hibernie " ;—(2) " Quincque porciones et principes Hibernie " ;—(3) Calculation of the number of cantreds in the five provinces ;—(4) Latin note on two of the Twelve Abuses ;—(5) Lists of the sons of Shane O'Neill, — mac Faghtna O'Moore and Calvagh O'Conor. Transcribed from this MS. by Laurence Nowell in Cotton MS. Domitian xviii, f. 91. f. 1 b.

2. Giraldus Cambrensis, De Expugnatione Hiberniae, translated into Anglo-Irish. The version found in several MSS. (Trinity College Dublin MS. 575, the most archaic form, Bodleian MS., Rawlinson

B. 420, Lambeth MSS. 598 and 623, f. 6). Printed (T. C. D. MS. 575 and the Rawlinson MS.) by Furnivall, The English Conquest of Ireland, E. E. T. S., 1896, who points out that the nearest form of the Latin text is that found in Harley MS. 177, and by Brewer and Bullen, Cal. of the Carew MSS., Book of Howth, etc., 1871, pp. 36 (Lambeth 623) and 261 (Lambeth 598). A specimen of the text of T. C. D. MS. 593 is given by Furnivall, op. cit., p. xiv. The present text, which has characteristic verbal differences from all the others, is preceded by a prologue on the right of the English crown to Ireland, beg. " Here folowyth. how manẏ tẏmes. & of what personys Irlond was ynhabyt " (cf. the Book of Howth, p. 32). The work beg. " In the thẏme that kyng Harrẏ regned in Englonde," and ends (in chap. lix, E. E. T. S. ed., p. 140), " they wold kepe þ^{e} ryght of þer old fredomes othyr þei wold lese þer lẏwes." A later hand has added at the end (f. 102) a note on the stipends paid by the King of England to various Irish kings, beg. " Kyng Hanry the second gaw to Mak Morzche." f. 67.

Vellum; ff. ii + 106. 8½ in. × 6 in. xvi cent. (art. 1) and xv cent. (art. 2). Gatherings: in art. 1, i–ii^{10}, iii^{8}, iv^{10}, v^{12} (lacking 2, 4, 8, 12), vi^{10} (a later insertion between ff. 43 and 54), vii^{8} (lacking 6), viii^{6} (lacking 1, 3, 5); in art. 2 all of 8 leaves; the gatherings are lettered at the beginning (inaccurately) in a later hand. Binding as in 40671. The two parts were originally distinct. Art. 1 was compiled apparently under the supervision of Philip Flattisbury, probably in connection with his work for the 8th Earl of Kildare. Art. 2 appears to have been in the possession of the D'Arcy family of Platten, co. Westmeath, in the 15th–16th century period, cf. an obit on f. 105: " Obitus Johannis Darcii iunioris anno m°cccc°lxxxii° primo die Januarii," and on f. 106 a roughly-drawn shield of arms of the family, semée of cross crosslets and four (recte 3) cinquefoils (16th cent.). "Jus Appellandi ad Regem ipsum a Cancellaria; or, A manifestacion of the Kings Power to Relieve his subjects against Erroneous and unjust Decrees in Chauncery in the Intervalls of Parliament . . . . by Wa[lter] Williams of y^e Midle Temple Esq.": apparently a draft of Part I of the work published in London under this title, Part I, 1683, Parts I and II, 1684. There are a number of alterations (perhaps by the author), several of which are not embodied in the printed text. f. 1.

2. Defence of his conduct, as Secretary of State, in regard to the naval operations of 1692, submitted (pursuant to the orders of William III) by Daniel Finch, 2nd Earl of Nottingham [6th Earl of Winchilsea 1729], to the House of Lords during the inquiry into the causes of the escape of the French fleet after the victory off Cape La Hogue, and the failure of the attack on St. Malo. The defence (which was presented by the Lords to the Commons at a conference of both Houses held 20 Dec. 1692) is in the form of a narrative ending at 2 Aug., and consists chiefly of an abstract of Nottingham's correspondence with "Mr. Russell" [i.e. Edward Russell, Earl of Orford 1697, Admiral of the Fleet 1692], upon whom an attempt is made to lay the blame. Printed, Journals of the House of Commons, vol. x, p. 749. Copy, late 17th cent. f. 39.

Paper; ff. 57. Folio. Late XVII cent. Presented by More Adey, Esq.

40720, 40721. HISTORIES of the Clan Mackenzie. Two volumes. Paper. Folio. (For other Mackenzie papers see Add. MSS. 39187–39211). Presented by Baroness Rosenkrantz.

40720. Vol. I (ff. 250). "The Genealogical History of The Fitz-Geralds and MacKenzies. From the Year of Our Lord 1000 till the year 1720. . . . By George MacKenzie M.D. and Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians at Edinburgh" [d. 1725]. Followed (f. 245) by "A Genealogical Account of the Family of Kilcoy" and (f. 247) "Cadets of Kilcoy." Copied by Capt. Alexander Mackenzie of Breda from MSS. in possession of Sir Colin Mackenzie, Bart. of Kilcoy, 1840, 1841 (see notes on ff. 1, 2, 243, 245).

40721. Vol. II (ff. 123). 1. "A Brief Geneological (sic)-Historical Account of the Origin . . . of Mackenzie from Colin the First Baron of Kintail, to Kenneth the Third Earl of Seaforth's death, which happened 16th of September 1678. Written first in several letters to a friend, and now collected into one continued discourse, by J[ohn] M[acRa, Minister of Dingwall, d. 1704]." The bulk of the MS. (ff. 4–43) is in an earlier hand and was bought from a London bookseller, Russell Smith, in 1849 by Lewis Mark Mackenzie; the rest has been added in various hands from other copies (see notes on ff. 2, 45 b, 46). Later owners were A[ugustus] C[olin] Mackenzie of Mountgerald, 15 Mar. 1863; and Sir James D. Mackenzie, [7th] Bart. f. 2.

2. "Genealogy of the Chiefs of the name of MacKenzie containing their history from Colin Gerald who was the first that came to Scotland." Ends with the death of George, 2nd Earl of Seaforth, in 1651. Copied from "the 'ancient' Allangrange MS." (see note on f. 51 by A[lexander] Mackenzie, dat. Celtic Magazine Office, Inverness, 1878). On f. 50 is the statement: "MS. from Murdoch Mackenzie Esq., Calcutta," in L. M. Mackenzie's hand. f. 51.

3. "History and Genealogy of the Clan Mackenzie by [—— Mackenzie of] Letterfearn." Begins imperf. with Alexander, 7th Baron of Kintail, and ends, like art. 2, with the 2nd Earl of Seaforth in 1651. Copied by L. M. Mackenzie from a MS. lent him by W. F. Skene, Dec. 1849, and belonging to Donald Gregory (see note on f. 123). f. 105.

40722. Additional Correspondence of Maj.-Gen. John Randoll Mackenzie during the Peninsular War, 2 May—6 July 1809, complementary to Add. MS. 39199. Lists of troops, army orders, and other military papers are included.

Paper; ff. 220. Folio. Presented by Baroness Rosenkrantz.

40723. Waxed Tablet, imperf. at the top, probably the first leaf of a diptych, recording the appointment by T. Flavius Titianus, Prefect of Egypt, of M. Numisius Longus as tutor to Erennia Antonia, daughter of L. Erennius Valens, at the request of Publius Diodorus. Written in Latin cursive on the inner waxed surface, with a duplicate of the text on the outer unwaxed side. For a perfect example in the Bodleian Library (Lat. inscr. 10–11), see B. P. Grenfell, "A Latin-Greek Diptych of A.D. 198," in Bodl. Quarterly Record, ii, 1919, pp. 258–262.

3½ in. × 5½ in. II cent. (two Prefects of the above name are recorded in Cantarelli's Prefetti di Egitto with latest dates A.D. 132 and 166).

40724. Metrical Paraphrase of Genesis and Exodus in modern Greek, by Georgios Chumnos of Candia; 1412 rhymed "political" couplets in the Cretan dialect, here in a very corrupt orthography, beg. Δέομαι τρισυπόστατε κύριε καὶ πατέρα, ending καὶ ἀπὸ τὸν φόβον ὁ λαὸς ὅλος ἐπαραπάρθη, followed by two additional couplets, viz.: Τὰ δύο βιβλία τοῦ Μωϋσῆ· τόρα ξετελειοθῆκα. | στὸν τόπον αὐτὸν τὸν ἔρχησα· τίβοτες δεν αφῆκα: | Γεωργ΄τζη Χούμνος μὲ σπουδή ἐβάλθηκεν νὰ γράψη. | Στὴν γένεσιν καὶ ἔξοδον· σε ῥῆμαν νὰ τὴν τάξιν. The date assigned to the poem by Krumbacher (Gesch. der Byz. Litteratur, 2nd ed., p. 818) is late 15th or early 16th cent., but if the date of a MS. of it at Venice is correctly given by G. A. Mágas (Byzantinisch-Neugriechische Jahrbücher, vii, p. 210) as 1493 the date of composition must be placed definitely in the 15th century. Besides the MSS. at Vienna and Venice referred to by Krumbacher, op. cit., p. 819, there is a third at Zakynthos (Pernot, Rev. Critique, xciv, 1927, pp. 352–

354), and a fourth still exists in the monastery of Sinai, whence the present one came (Gardthausen, Catal. Cod. Gr. Sinait., no. 1187, 16th cent.). The present MS. was first described in Byz.-Neugr. Jahrb., iv, pp. 96–8 (see also p. 426) by F. H. Marshall, who in 1925 published lengthy extracts from the text (including most of the non-Biblical legends), with a translation and some of the illustrations, under the title Old Testament Legends. From a Greek poem by Georgios Chumnos; see, too, Ph. Meyer, Göttingische Gelehrte Anzeigen, 1926, pp. 356–362; Dawkins, Byzantion, 1925, pp. 473–479; Xanthoudides, Ἐπέτηρις Ἑταιρείας Βυζαντινῶν Σπουδῶν, iii, 1926, pp. 337–344; and G. A. Mágas, Byz.-Neugr. Jahrb., vii, pp. 209–216. The last-named points out that large tracts of the poem are closely allied to the popular prose Ἰστορία τοῦ παλαιοῦ.

Paper; ff. ix + 137. 10½ in. × 7½ in. Late XV or early XVI cent. (4 modern Greek rhymed "political" couplets, probably of circ. 1600, on an additional leaf, f. ix, at the end of the volume, which comment unfavourably on the "barbarous" orthography and illustrations, refer to the MS. as παλαιόν; see Marshall, op. cit., p. xii). An old foliation in Greek numerals does not include f. ix. The text is interspersed with 373 illustrations in ink and colour, in a crude but vigorous style (a note on f. 137 b incorrectly gives the number as 370: ἄπ ατὰ ἠσὶ ἠστορίε το̄); those on ff. 12–14, by a different artist, are noticeably superior in execution to the rest. On f. 1 is a representation of the Trinity, with the author kneeling below. Belonged to the monastery of St. Katherine on Mount Sinai; see note on f. 137 b: + αὕτη ἡ βίβλος ὑπάρχει τοῦ ἁγιου ὅρους Σϊνᾶ καὶ εἴ τὶς τὸ ξενόση ἰκ τοῦ ἁγίου μοναστηρίου νὰ ἔχει τὰς ἀρᾶς τῶν ἁγίων πατέρων; a later scribe has added ἱ (i.e. ἡ) ὁπου κόψη τὸ φίλω and a note in an ornamental hand apparently beginning with ἐν and ending ὅρους Σϊνᾶ. On the front fly-leaf (f. viii, Ital. watermark) is a note in cypher, anathematizing the steward [of the Sinaitic Μετόχι] at Cairo, whose conduct had involved the monastery in a heavy fine. This is dated 20 June 1646; shortly afterwards the Μετόχι and its chapel were desecrated by the Turks (P. Gregoriades, Ἡ Ἱερὰ Μόνη τοῦ Σινᾶ, pp. 197–226). Decipherments of this note and a key to the cypher [by J. P. Gilson] and a corrected decipherment and tentative translation [by F. H. Marshall] are bound in at the beginning (ff. iii–vii). Later owners were Sir Thomas Brooke, Bart., of Armitage Bridge, Huddersfield (Cat. of the Brooke Library, 1890, i, p. 50; bookplate of arms, f. i) and the Rev. W. Ingham Brooke, Barford Rectory, Warwick, 1908. Sold at Sotheby's 20 Dec. 1921 (sale-cat., lot 321) and again 13 Nov. 1922 (sale-cat., lot 270), when it was bought by the British Museum. In a modern binding of brown leather.

40725. Chartulary of the Priory of Augustinian Canons at Blythburgh, co. Suff., a daughter-house (or possibly cell) to the Abbey of St. Osyth, co. Essex; compiled at the end of the 14th century, with a few later additions. Latin. The contents, which consist mainly of grants to and from the priory, mainly in Norfolk and Suffolk, are arranged in very rough alphabetical order, conveyances from (dimissiones) in each case following those to the Priory. Included also are :—(a) Notes on the value of the spiritualities and temporalities of the house in the Archdeaconries of Norfolk and Suffolk, based on the taxation of Pope Nicholas IV, with the yield thereon of various taxes. f. 1 ;—(b) Extract from the Domesday Survey relating to Blythburgh church (ed. Rec. Comm., ii, 282). ib. ;—(c) Extracts from the taxation of Nicholas IV relating to the possessions of the Priory in the Archdeaconry of Suffolk. f. 1 b :—(d) Customary of Hyntone [Hinton, in Blythburgh]. f. 35 b ;—(e) Extract, in a later hand, relating to the tenement of John Broun from the "Domysday de Iernemutha" [Great Yarmouth, co. Norf.], then preserved "in le Tolhows," but now apparently lost (cf. H. Swinden, History of Great Yarmouth, p. 72), temp. Edw. I. f. 43 ;—(f) Extract from the court-roll of Reydone [Reydon, co. Suff.], 1402. f. 48 ;—(g) Agreement between William, Prior of Blythburgh, and William, Prior of Wangford, respecting the tithes of Stofuene [Stoven, co. Suff.], 1260. f. 50 b ;—(h) Agreement whereby Sir Robert FitzRoger releases the Prior and Canons of Blythburgh from the custom of giving a feast at Christmas for his men and serfs of Walberswick on condition that they provide a resident chaplain in the chapel at Walberswick to celebrate Mass daily instead of twice weekly as before, 1278[9]. f. 60 b. Many extracts from the Chartulary are given in Hist. MSS. Comm., 10th report, appendix iv, p. 451, and the Victoria County History of Suffolk, ii, p. 91, n. 30.

Vellum : ff. i+60. 10½ in. × 7⅝ in. Late xiv cent., with additions of the xv cent. Gatherings of 12 leaves (4 wants 6, 7 ; last^{14}). Initials in red. A fly-leaf (f. 1), formerly pasted on the front cover and attached to the first gathering, contains a choral setting of parts of the Mass for three voices, in score, in a 14th cent. hand. Contemporary binding of oak boards covered with leather, having remains of silk tag. On f. 1 is a note in a 16th cent. hand : "This was the fyrst leaff at the fyrst delyuery to Thom[as] Thurston." A chartulary of this Priory is stated to have been in the possession of Sir John Playters [4th Bart.] in 1714 (Suckling, Hist. of Suffolk, ii, p. 147), and Sir Richard Gipps refers to one in the library of Gresham College (see Tanner, Notitia Monastica, 1744, p. 513, note f), but whether these were one and the same MS. and identical with the present one is not clear. Belonged in 1885 to the Rev. Thomas Smythe Hill, Rector of Thorington (Hist. MSS. Comm., l.c.), and later to Frederick Arthur Crisp, F.S.A. (Vict. County Hist., Suffolk, ii, p. 92; Sotheby's sale-cat., 4 Dec. 1922, lot 188).

40726. Manual of Byzantine ecclesiastical painting, similar in character and origins to the Ἑρμηνεία τῆς Ζωγραφικῆς by the monk Dionysius of Fourna, last edited by A. Papadopoulo-Kerameus, St. Petersburg, 1909. Two distinct MSS. (the division is at f. 68), in different hands and with different original pagination, are bound together to form the present volume, which is composed as follows:—(1) Introduction, beg. Πασῶν τῶν ἐραστῶν. . .γινώσκεται τοίνυν ὦ φιλομαθεῖς μαθηταί. Lower down the compiler professes to have found material εἰς παλαιὰς ἑρμηνείας τοῦ Πανσελήνου καὶ Θεοφάνους. f. 1;—(2) Iconography, beg. *Ἀρχὴ σὺν θεῷ ἁγίῳ τῆς ἑρμηνείας τῆς ζωγραφικῆς τέχνης περὶ ἔχουσα τά τε εἴδη καὶ σχήματα . . . Other sporadic correspondences occur, but some of the material is new. f. 2 b;—(3) Technology, beg. Ἑρμηνεία τῆς ζωγραφικῆς τέχνης ἤτοι πῶς νὰ ἱστορίζῃς εἰς τὸν τοῖχον. Γίνωσκε ὦ μαθητά, largely identical with App. ii in Papadopoulo-Kerameus. f. 68;—(4) Περὶ τοῦ πῶς νὰ ἱστορήσῃς ἐπι σοί χαίρει. Ἐπὶ σοὶ χαίρει, really belonging to iconography. Cf. Dionysius, op. cit., pp. 146, 147. f. 77 b;—(5) Ἡ ἀποκάλυψις τοῦ ἁγίου Ἰωάννου τοῦ θεολόγου καὶ εὐαγγελιστοῦ. Ἐγενόμην ἐν τῇ νήσῳ: iconographic directions for the Apocalypse, identical in the passages chosen for illustration with Dionysius, op. cit., pp. 129–134, but with differently worded instructions. Ends imperfectly with the seventh angel. f. 79 b.

Paper; ff. ii + 83. 6¾ in. × 4⅝ in. xviii cent. Single leaves are lost after ff. 7, 11, 15, 19. Original leather covers with large simple panel. The name ὁ ἅγιος Γεώργιος is repeated on f. 2, and there are pencil scribblings.

ADDITIONAL MANUSCRIPTS

ACQUIRED IN THE YEAR

1923.

40731. Psalter and Canticles, in Greek. Contents :—

1. Ὑποθέσεις τῶν Ψαλμῶν (i.e. table of contents of the Psalms) of Eusebius Pamphili, Bishop of Caesarea in Palestine. Printed by Migne, Patr. Gr., xxiii. 66–72. Owing to the loss of a leaf after f. 1, the introductory matter (Migne, 66–68), with the title, and the τίτλοι of the first five Psalms are missing. f. 2.
2. Psalter, written in στίχοι, with the usual headings and division into twenty numbered καθίσματα; some of the numbers were omitted by the original hand and have been added in red at a later date. The numbering at the end of the 14th κάθισμα (f. 176 b) has been omitted. Each κάθισμα is subdivided into three στάσεις, each marked Δόξα or Δ°; about half of them have numbers. The 17th κάθισμα (Ps. cxviii), f. 197 b, makes four στάσεις, the first and third being marked, in the body of the text, ὑπαλλαγή (after vv. 72, 131), and the second (after v. 93), στάσις τοῦ Σαββάτου. Further divisions in the Psalter are marked by the word στάσις ᾱ at the end of the 7th κάθισμα on f. 89, and by a miniature on f. 125 b before Ps. lxxvii at the end of the 10th κάθισμα. At the end of the Psalter on f. 240 is a note giving the number of στάσεις, καθίσματα, Psalms and στίχοι in the Psalter. This is followed by the supernumerary Psalm cli, μικρὸς ἤμην, with the usual heading, beg. οἶτος ὁ ψαλμὸς. ἰδιόγραφός. f. 8.
3. Canticles, etc., viz. :—(a) The usual nine Odes of the Horologion (cf. J. Mearns, The Canticles of the Christian Church, 1914, p. 11), followed by the Prayer of Hezekiah (f. 260), the Prayer of Manasseh (f. 261 b) and the Nunc Dimittis (f. 263 b). Owing to the loss of a leaf after f. 256, vv. 46–54 of Daniel iii (Theodotion's version), part of the Ode of the Three Holy Children, are missing. f. 241 ;—(b) Ὕμνος λυχνικός (Evening hymn), beg. Φῶς ἱλαρὸν (Mearns, op. cit., p. 16). f. 263 b ;—(c) Ὕμνος ἑωθινός (Morning hymn), beg. Δόξα ἐν ὑψίστοις θεῶι (Mearns, p. 15), imperfect at the end. f. 264.

Vellum ; ff. ii + 265 (several blank end-papers). 4⅛ in. × 3⅜ in. XI cent. Gatherings normally of 8 leaves (iii^{6}, last ^{6}, wants 5, i wants 2, xxxiii wants 4). Iota adscript is regularly used. Initials, headings and sub-divisions are in gold ; large capitals at the beginning of Psalms normally in gold, but in gold and colours (blue, green and red) at the beginning of the first Psalm of each κάθισμα except before καθίσματα 13 (f. 154 b) and 14 (f. 176 b), where they are in gold only. A few smaller initials in gold and colours are found before Psalms at the beginning and end of some στάσεις ; also before Pss. ii, xv, xli. Before the first Psalm of each κάθισμα there is frequently a band of gold ornament. On f. 112, before Ps. lxx, at the beginning of the 10th κάθισμα, and on f. 211 b, before Ps. cxix, at the beginning of the 18th κάθισμα, the first of the Songs of Progression, are headpieces in gold and colours. Rather more elaborate headpieces filled with conventional foliage occur on f. 8, before Ps. i, f. 126, before Ps. lxxvii, the first Psalm of the 11th κάθισμα, and f. 241, before the Canticles. At the end of the supernumerary Ps. cli (f. 240 b) there is a decorative tailpiece in gold. The finely executed miniatures, which have been described, thirty of them being reproduced, by M. P. Perry, in the Burlington Magazine, xxxviii (1921), pp. 119–128, 282–289, are ninety-five in number (originally ninety-six, one being lost before f. 257), all with explanatory inscriptions in red, and usually with references in the margin of the text. Two are full-page, ff. 7 b, 125 b, nos. 1, 61, the rest marginal vignettes. In their general position in the Psalter, and in some cases their iconography, they are related to the miniatures in the " monastic-theological " group of Byzantine illuminated Psalters, and consequently to Add. MS. 19352, but the scheme of the illumination here is less elaborate than in the chief members of the group, being almost entirely confined to direct illustration of a particular verse, or to the prophetic aspect of the verse as foreshowing events in the life of Christ ; cf. N. Kondakov, Histoire de l'Art Byzantin, translated by M. Trawinski, 1886, i, chap. v ; J. J. Tikkanen, Die Psalterillustration im Mittelalter, 1895, pp. 11–111 ; H. Brockhaus, Die Kunst in den Athos-Klöstern, 1891, pp. 177–183. The last deals specially with the connection between the illustrations of this group and the Greek commentaries on the Psalms. Nos. 21, 43, 85, 86, 89, 93 in the list below, however, show a marked relationship to the miniatures on ff. 6^{vo}, 136^{vo}, 4^{vo}, 435^{vo}, 446^{vo} in the 10th cent. Psalter, fonds grec 139, in the Bibliothèque Nationale at Paris, the most important member of the so-called " aristocratic " group of Byzantine illuminated Psalters ; cf. Tikkanen, op. cit., pp. 112–134 ; H. Omont, Miniatures des plus anciens MSS. grecs de la Bibliothèque Nationale du vi^{me}–xiv^{me} siècle, 1929, pp. 4–10, Pll. iv, vi, viii, xiii, xiv. Nos. 84, 89 are reproduced in British Museum, Reproductions from Illuminated MSS., Series iv, Pl. viii. On the vellum and paper fly-leaves at the end are some jottings in modern Greek. Binding of the 16th cent. in dark red stamped leather. In the centre is a rectangular panel bordered by 3 lines with small roundels at the corners and in the centre. Round this is a broad border composed of identical triangular stamps juxtaposed and forming a continuous band. The design on these stamps is a lion's head surrounded with foliage. At the edge of the binding is a border formed in the same way as that of the centre panel, but with roundels in the middle of each side as well as at the corners. A rather similar binding is found on Add. MS. 12182. Belonged to the Western College at Bristol.

40732. "THE BUIKE off King Allexander the Conqueroure" (so the colophon), translated from a French original (resembling no doubt the version of the Historia de Proeliis in Royal MS. 19 D. i.) into Scots heroic couplets by Sir Gilbert the Hay (fl. 1456), and to be distinguished from the other "Buik of Alexander," which is assigned by its latest editor, R. L. Graeme Ritchie (Scottish Text Society, 4 vols., 1921–1929) to John Barbour. Hay's work, which, unlike Barbour's, covers the whole Alexander legend of Pseudo-Callisthenes and its most popular mediaeval accretions, had dropped out of knowledge until the discovery of the present MS. about 1831 by David Laing, Secretary of the Bannatyne Club, who shortly afterwards brought out a privately printed account of it, Extracts from the Buike of King Alexander the Conqueroure, a Manuscript in the Library at Taymouth Castle ; an imperfect copy of this, acquired with the present MS., has been placed in Add. MS. 41063 V. Subsequently a second MS. was discovered in the same library (see Laing's edition of Dunbar's Poems, 1834, vol. i, p. 317, and C. Innes, The Black Book of Taymouth, 1855, p. vi, note 2), and it was from this second copy (the present MS. having meanwhile changed its quarters) that Albert Herrmann published his detailed analysis of the poem, The Taymouth Castle MS. of Sir Gilbert Hay's "Buik of King Alexander the Conquerour" (Berlin, 1898) and (in 1900) the complete episodes of "The Forraye of Gadderis" and "The Vowis." The two MSS. vary sufficiently in small points of spelling and reading to show that neither is directly copied from the other; both begin imperfectly, after a number of blank leaves destined to receive the missing introduction, with "That mony hardie knycht of gret renoun," and both present a later blank (ff. 275, 275 b = Herrmann, ff. 223 b, 224). Another blank (ff. 83 b, 84) is apparently a copyist's skip, and the original f. 95 is cut out, with or without loss of text. In addition, a marginal entry, "Nota, non valet" at f. 258 b, points to defects of omission and disorder, due no doubt to displacement in the exemplar, which extend to f. 264 and which are remedied by a new hand (f. 265), repeating the faulty text in correct sequence. The translation was originally made at the instance of [Thomas, 2nd] Lord Erskine, but the epilogue at least has been worked over by a redactor, who finished his task 21 Aug. 1499.

Paper; ff. iv + 282. Quarto. XVI cent. Original binding of brown skin over wood, with clasp, now preserved separately. Perhaps copied for " Duncan Campbell of Glenvrquhie " or Glenvrquhay (f. i), whose name occurs several times on ff. i, iii b, iv, with dates 1579, 1581, 1582. He is the ancestor of the present Marquis of Breadalbane, was knighted 1590 and created baronet 1625. Among other scribblings on the fly-leaves are the names of Alexander Levingstoun (in a hand resembling ff. 265–282), Johne Campbell, Robert Campbell, W[alte]re M^cillchreist, James Betheg, Isobell Mackonoschie. The pencil notes on f. 259, etc., are by David Laing. Old press-marks on f. ii: " Shelf 28, Number 1 " (16th cent.); " pr :. 6 sh : 2 N° 36 " (cf. similar marks in Egerton MS. 2899). Another (catalogue ?) number, 2299, is on f. i. With the old covers is a fragment of a 14th cent. MS. taken from the binding and containing a portion of a tract, in Latin, apparently of a philosophical character.

40733. LETTER-BOOK of private correspondence (out-going letters only) of George Nugent-Temple-Grenville, Earl Temple 1779, 1st Marquis of Buckingham 1784, chiefly during his two periods as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland (1782–1783, 1787–1789); 25 July 1782—29 Dec. 1784, 3 Nov. 1787—8 Dec. 1789. There is an index at the beginning (ff. 1–12). For the corresponding volumes of private letters addressed to the Lord Lieutenant see Add. MSS. 40179, 40180.

Paper; ff. 213. Large folio.

40734. EXTENT of, and portion of a chartulary relating to, the manor of Codicote, co. Hertf., the property of St. Alban's Abbey. Latin.

1. Extent of Codicote manor, June, 6 Edw. III [1332]. Apparently one of a series of copies of similar extents for manors appropriated to the cellar of the Abbey, other examples in the British Museum being those for Caldecote (Lansdowne MS. 404, ff. 46–48) and Tyttenhanger (Add. MS. 36237, ff. 1–12); cf. also the extents of Cashio, 1332, and Park al. Parkbury, in St. Stephens, 1331, catalogued in Hist. MSS. Comm., Various Collections, vii, 1914, p. 305. This and the Caldecote and Tyttenhanger extents all seem to be in one or more hands of about the same date as the original entries in the court-books of Codicote (Stowe MS. 849), Croxley (Add. MS. 6057), Barnet (Add. MS. 40167), Park (Add. MS. 40625), Cashio (Add. MS. 40626), etc., which were made during the cellarership of John Mote, 1354–1374 (see Miss A. E. Levett, " The Courts and Court Rolls of St. Albans Abbey " in Trans. of the R. Historical Society, 4th Ser., vii, pp. 52–76). The extent begins with a valuation of the site of the manor-house, the arable land, cultivated under the three field system (viz. "prima," "secunda" and "tercia seisona"), meadow, pasture, wood, pannage, perquisites of courts and water-mills. Then follow (f. 1 b) a list of tenants with particulars of their holdings and services, the "tenentes in foro et burgagio de Codicote et iuxta forum et burgagium" being distinguished from the remainder (f. 10 b). Finally the annual value and details of various customary services, including extracts from the Liber Albus, are given on ff. 15 b–16 b. An earlier extent of manors belonging to St Alban's Abbey is in Cotton MS. Tiberius E vi, ff. 8 sqq., the portion for Codicote occupying ff. 30–35; revisions have been made in a later hand to indicate changes of tenancy, the new holders and services corresponding, in many cases, with those in the present extent of 1332.

2. Copies of forty-five deeds relating to the manor of Codicote, originally part (folios [171]–183 in large figures) of Cotton MS. Otho D. iii, a chartulary of St. Alban's Abbey compiled in the second half of the fourteenth century (see British Museum Quarterly, vii, 1932, p. 15). Additions, including a deed dated 1428, have been made at the end (f. 30 b). The leaves were probably extracted from the chartulary before its acquisition by Sir Robert Cotton, possibly at the time of the grant of the manor after the dissolution. f. 18.

Vellum (except ff. ii, iii); ff. iv + 30. 13¼ in. × 8⅞ in. Gatherings of 8 leaves, with catchwords (i^1, the last leaf of a gathering, iii wants 8, v wants 6, 7, 8; f. 17 is a blank leaf between artt. 1 and 2). Vellum binding. At the end are two leaves containing notes, in a 17th cent. hand, on the nature, jurisdiction and procedure of a court-leet.

40735. Survey of the copyhold tenures of the manor of Codicote, co. Hertf., arranged under names of tenants, an index to which, in an 18th cent. hand, is given at the end (f. 44 b). The work has no heading, and an early 18th cent. (? 1704, see Add. MS. 40734, f. i) note on the cover, viz., "Pars altera Extent. An° R. H. viij. xxxviij. viz. 1546" (later wrongly altered to 1542), perhaps suggests that it is, in its present form, imperfect, as no date is given in the manuscript itself. The manor was granted in 1545 by Henry VIII to John Penne, Groom of the Privy Chamber, who in the following year, the date of the survey, alienated two portions to Nicholas Bristowe and John Michell (Letters and Papers of Henry VIII, xx, pt. ii, p. 449; xxi, pt. i, p. 580; Vict. County Hist., Hertfordshire, ii, pp. 346, 347). Many of the persons mentioned in the extent occur as witnesses to the latter transactions. Additions, marginal notes of measurements and changes of tenants, etc., have been made throughout in contemporary or slightly later hands.

Paper; ff. ii + 44. Folio. A.D. 1546. Vellum cover.

40736. " POEMS on various Subjects by John Wilson," with a dedication to Margaret Mitchelson, a Preface, in which Wordsworth receives especial commendation, and a table of contents. Autograph. Wilson, afterwards Professor of Moral Philosophy at Edinburgh and famous as " Christopher North," met with Miss Mitchelson during his student years at Glasgow, 1797–1803, and the present volume, entitled Vol. I in the colophon, belongs to that period (the Dr. [William] Lockhart of the obituary verses on f. 73 b died 8 Feb. 1802, and the paper bears the watermarks 1800, 1801). For a fuller description of this MS. see the biography of Wilson by his daughter, Mrs. Gordon, "Christopher North" : A Memoir of John Wilson, 1862, vol. i, pp. 53–56. Attached to the volume is a leaf (f. 130 b) with three draft stanzas of a poem on the Shannon by Wilson.

See G. Nypels, Hoe Nederland Ceilon verloor, 1908, where extracts are given from the similar report, 7 Mar. 1797, sent by van Angelbeek to the Directors in Holland. f. 1 ;—(2) Extracts from earlier documents (1740–1766) relating to Ceylon, including (ff. 185 b–186) a list of officers in charge at Manaar (1659–1755). f. 177 ;—(3) Six original letters in Dutch from members of the Dutch East India Co. in Java, 15 Oct.—1 Nov. 1773. f. 202.

40742. BADGES of the nobility, etc.; circ. 1466–1470.

A. Fifty-seven badges, originally drawn in ink and tinted, on two sheets of paper, one pasted on the back of the other, but cut out and laid down in their present form by Sir John Fenn, the Norfolk antiquary, about 1779 (cf. a note in his hand on f. 1 b). They are preceded by a cutting of a diagram of tinctures, below which is a name "Wyllm fforthe" (see below); under that again is a mark of a reversed 4 flanked by the letters "w" and "f." Nineteen of the badges are larger than the others, and may be of a different date. Sixteen of these have names attached, three have mottoes. They are mainly of Yorkist nobles, and five out of the nine lordships of Edward IV (cf. Harl. MS. 992, f. 67) occur, viz. :—(a) The falcon and the fetterlock of York. f. 5;—(b) The white hind of Joan, the Fair Maid of Kent. f. 6;—(c) The white lion of the Earl of March. f. 8;—(d) The white hart "yᵗ he bereth by King Richard." f. 9;—(e) The black bull of Clare, given here to "yᵉ erle of Vlstur." f. 9. Among those with names attached the following badges may be allotted with some certainty, viz. :—(1) "my lorde of Glowctr," Richard Plantagenet, Duke of Gloucester, afterw. Richard III. f. 5;—(2) "my lord Cantebery," Thomas Bourchier, Archbishop of Canterbury 1454–1486. f. 6;—(3) "my lord of norforke," John Mowbray, 4th Duke of Norfolk, d. 1476. f. 7;—(4) "my lord of Swffolke," John de la Pole, Duke of Suffolk, 1463–1491. f. 7;—(5) "my lord Warweke," Richard Neville, Earl of Warwick, d. 1471. f. 10;—(6) "Worcester," John Tiptoft, Earl of Worcester 1449–1470. f. 10;—(7) "lord Bovcher," ? Sir William Bourchier, sometimes styled Lord Bourchier, son of Henry Bourchier, Earl of Essex, d. 1483; cf. G. E. C., The Complete Peerage, v, p. 138. f. 11;—(8) "hastynges," Sir William de Hastings, Baron Hastings 1461–1483. f. 11;—(9) "Sir Thomas Borowgh," Sir Thomas Borough of Gainsborough, knt. 1466, 1st Baron Burgh of Gainsborough 1487; cf. F. P. Barnard, Edward IV's French Expedition of 1475, pp. 61–67. f. 12. Three of these badges differ from those ascribed to the same owners in the College of Arms MS. 2. M. 16 reproduced by Barnard, op. cit., the first two being there the supporters from the coat of arms, viz.:—John de la Pole, Duke of Suffolk (cf. a seal of his father William de la Pole on Harley Ch. 54 I. 10), Lord Hastings (cf. his seal on Add. Ch. 19808), and Sir Thomas Borough. A number of the other badges are found in the College of Arms MS.; Harley MSS. 992, ff. 95–101; 4632, ff. 234–236 (cf. Collectanea Topographica et Genealogica, iii, pp. 66–76); and in Lord Howard de Walden's Banners, Standards and Badges from a Tudor MS., 1914.

B. Two drawings formerly pasted over the badges and removed by Fenn, viz.:—(a) Pen and ink drawing of a foliated cross. English, 15th cent. f. 19—(b) Black chalk drawing of the crucifix with God the Father above. English (?), 15th cent. f. 27. On f. 27 b is an inscription in mirror writing, possibly an offset, in a 15th cent. hand, reading "R[eceyued] of Renard Wycway."

On f. 21 b is a description of a drawing, probably of Henry VI, holding a cup in guise of one of the Magi, formerly pasted over the badges and removed by Fenn. The drawing was apparently that engraved by T. Cook as a frontispiece to Fenn's edition of the Paston Letters, 1787, and considered fictitious by O'Donoghue, Catalogue of Engraved Portraits in the British Museum, ii, p. 499, no. 21. On ff. 23–26 b are miscellaneous notes on the MS. in the hand of Fenn, who has also completed some of the drawings where they were fragmentary.

Paper; ff. i + 27. Folio. Circ. A.D. 1466–1470. Fenn gives a tracing of the original watermark (a crown with a trefoil) on ff. 1 b, 22. It is a common 15th cent. type; cf. Briquet, Les Filigranes, nos. 4636–4648, and Add. MS. 38687, ff. 117, 118. The name "Wyllm fforthe" on f. 2 is probably that of the owner of the original collection. A William Forth of Hadleigh, co. Suff., died 20 Henry VII [1504–5] (cf. Add. MS. 19130, f. 76), and in the Calendar of Patent Rolls, 1499–1509, p. 3, a William Forth of Hadleigh is described as a clothmaker alias "marchaunt." Belonged, in the 18th cent., to Sir John Fenn. Sotheby's sale-cat., 14 Feb. 1923, lot 1022.

40743. ACCOUNT by Phillida Bathurst of her expedition to Perleberg in Prussia to enquire into the disappearance of her husband, Benjamin Bathurst, Envoy to the Court of Vienna, who vanished there on 25 Nov. 1809 while returning to England; 20 May—July 1810. Incomplete, the last words being: "we got to Fehrline [Fehrbellin]." Preceded (f. iii) by notes of Lady Fanny Isabella Geary, wife of the 4th Bart. and niece of Mrs. Bathurst, and of her son, Sir William Nevill Montgomerie Geary, 5th Bart. Inserted (f. i) is a letter from [Seymour Henry, 7th Earl] Bathurst, comparing a completer copy in his possession, 4 Aug. 1919. The whole case has been discussed by Sir J. R. Hall, Four Famous Mysteries (1922), pp. 34–87.

Paper; ff. iii + 18. Quarto. Presented by Sir W. N. M. Geary, Bart.

40744. TRACTS on the Compotus, etc., viz.:—

1. "Incipiunt capitula Heperici [sc. Helperici, cf. f. 10 b] super compotum annualem," preceded by a prologue: the treatise on the Calendar by Heiricus al. Helpericus, etc., monk of Auxerre, composed probably before A.D. 900, with marginal glosses. Printed in Pez, Thesaurus Anecdotorum, ii. 2. 182, and in Migne, Patr. Lat., cxxxvii. 15. For the authorship, date and some MSS. see Vorlesungen und Abhandlungen von L. Traube, iii. Kleine Schriften (1920), ed. S. Brandt, pp. 128 sqq. The prefatory letter to Asper of Auxerre is omitted, as also the chapter "De annis a creatione mundi" which occurs after ch. xxii in Royal MSS. 12 D. iv, f. 27 b, and 12 F. ii, f. 13. The date (hoc anno) calculated in cap. xxiii is A.D. 994 and the MS. therefore falls into group iv e of Traube's classification. Prologue beg. "Cum fratribus adolescentioribus nostris." Treatise beg. "Annus solaris ut maiorum constat inuestigatum sollercia"; ends (f. 10 b) "illa deinceps facilius assequantur." f. 1.
2. Rules and notes on questions connected with the compotus, apparently based mainly on portions of the "De natura rerum" of Isidore, the Compotus of Rabanus Maurus, and the "De argumentis lunae" printed among the doubtful works of Bede (Migne, Patr. Lat., xc. 717, 723). Rubric "Qualiter claues terminorum sunt seruande." Text beg. "Claues terminorum seruandorum argumento"; ends (f. 12) "xv° Kalendas Maii." f. 10 b.
3. "Versus · xii · signorum": two sets of verses on the signs of the Zodiac, the first, beg. "Principium Iani sancxit tropicus Capricornus," by Ausonius (ed. Schenkl, Mon. Germ. Hist., Auctores Antiquissimi, v, p. 13; Riese, Anthologia Latina, i, no. 640), the second, beg. "Primus adest Aries obscuro lumine lambens," printed among the doubtful works of Bede (Migne, Patr. Lat., xciv. 637), but really from Cicero's Aratea, ll. 320–331 (ed. A. For an account of the family, with copious extracts from their papers, see Sir Cuthbert Sharp, Memorials of the Rebellion of 1569, 1840, pp. 366–406.

Paper. Three volumes. Folio. 1561–1817. Lots 654, 664, 666, 675, 690 at the Strathmore sale (Sotheby's, 28 Mar. 1923). As follows:—

40746. Vol. I (ff. 140). Papers, chiefly of Sir George Bowes (d. 1580), relating for the most part to his activities in repressing the Northern Rebellion of 1569–1570, and comprising letters received, drafts and copies of his own letters, accompts, returns of rebels, musters, law-documents and so forth; 1561–1691, except for an earlier letter, bef. 1484, from Elizabeth Bullmer to Sir Robert Claxton, which is prefixed at f. 6.

40747. Vol. II (ff. 194). Correspondence addressed mainly to Sir William Bowes (d. 1707) of Streatlam, M.P., his widow Elizabeth Bowes, daughter and heiress of Sir Francis Blakiston, Bart., of Gibside, and their eldest son William Blakiston Bowes; 1693–1724. The chief writers are:—George Bowes of the Middle Temple, John Bowes, D.D., afterwards Prebendary of Durham, both brothers of Sir W. Bowes, and Cuthbert Bowes of Durham, son of Sir George Bowes of Biddick. Included also are a number of letters from the above W. B. Bowes, addressed mostly to his mother.

40749. Offices for St. Demetrius Myroblytes and the Great Earthquake, from the Menaeum (26 Oct.). The volume consists of two distinct portions, of different dates, viz. :—(1) A 17th cent. MS., containing part of the Morning Office, with large gaps before f. 1 and after f. 2. The text, beg. Ναμάτων ἐπέβης, agrees with the printed version, but is followed (f. 4 b) after Lauds by a special Legend (μαρτύριον), beg. Συνήθειαν ἔχουσιν οἱ βασιλεῖς, mainly an elaboration in popular language of the usual Legend to be found after the sixth Ode of Matins (see f. 52 b). The missing conclusion (καθὼς—εὐαγγέλιον) has been supplied on an inserted leaf (f. 31) by an 18th cent. scribe, who duplicates the preceding text from αὐτὸ εἶναι to ἀς ποιοῦμεν (ff. 29 b, line 13—30 b, end) and adds a new conclusion. f. 1 ;—(2) A 15th cent. MS., presenting the round of offices (ἀκολουθία) from Little Vespers onwards and breaking off imperfectly in the second Epistle of the Liturgy. The text, apart from the Legend, differs considerably in detail from the printed Menaeum. A later hand has supplied ff. 34, 38. f. 32.

The catalogue is arranged by subjects under the following main headings : in the first volume, Theologia, Jurisprudentia, Historia ; in the second volume, Scientiae et Artes and Literae Humaniores. On f. ii of vol. I is an engraved portrait of Thomas Hearne, the antiquary (1678–1735), by George Vertue after Peter Tillemans, 1723 ; cf. F. O'Donoghue, Catalogue of Engraved British Portraits in the British Museum, ii, p. 476, no. 1.

Paper ; ff. iv + 235, i + 203. Large folio. XVIII cent.

40753. Psalter and Canticles, in Greek. Contents :—

1. Psalter, written in στίχοι and divided, like Add. MS. 40731, etc., into twenty numbered καθίσματα, themselves subdivided by the word Δº/ or Δόξα into three στάσεις; the notes of στάσεις have in many cases been omitted or have been cut away in binding, but have usually been supplied by a later hand. As in 40731, the 17th κάθισμα (Ps. cxviii), f. 118, is divided into four στάσεις, only the first of which was noted by the original hand. A mistake in numbering the 6th κάθισμα (f. 45) as the 7th has been corrected by a later hand, and the notation of the 2nd κάθισμα (f. 13 b) is also later; that of the 13th (f. 98 b) has been largely lost in binding. Further divisions in the text, marked by the insertion of two miniatures, are made before Pss. l on f. 49 b (the scribe began to copy this Psalm on f. 49) and lxxvii on f. 75 b. The usual headings are inserted in gold, except for Pss. xciv, xcv (ff. 94 b, 95), where blank spaces were left for them. Vv. 3–44 of Ps. cv (here numbered $\overline{\rho\varsigma}$) are omitted in the proper place (f. 105 b) and inserted in Ps. cxii in the middle of v. 6; the mistake is indicated in both cases by marks in red, and in Ps. cxii also in black by a later hand. The supernumerary Ps. cli, not written in στίχοι or included in the κάθισμα arrangement, is preceded (f. 145) by four lines in red on David's victory over Goliath, beg. Δαουὶδ ὁπλισθεὶς τῆς τριάδος τὴν χάριν, and (f. 145 b) by a miniature. f. 2.
2. Canticles, the usual nine Odes of the Horologion (see Add. MS. 40731). Owing to the loss of a leaf before f. 161, verses 26–39 of Daniel iii (Theodotion's version), part of the Prayer of the Three Children, are missing, as is also the Magnificat, owing to the loss of leaves at the end. f. 147.

Vellum; ff. 163. 3½ in. × 2⅝ in. XI–XII cent. Gatherings mainly of 8 leaves (xvi one cancel, xx misbound [f. 153 should come before f. 161], last imperfect); f. 1, containing the miniature, is a separate leaf. Twelve full-page miniatures of medium workmanship, mostly much rubbed, viz:—(1) David playing the psaltery, f. 1 b;—(2) David doing penance before Nathan, f. 49 b;—(3) Moses teaching the Israelites the Law, f. 75 b;—(4) David killing Goliath and cutting off his head, f. 145 b;—(5) Miriam dancing between two maidens, f. 146 b;—(6) Moses, f. 148 b;—(7) Hannah, the mother of Samuel, praying, f. 152 b;—(8) The Three Children in the furnace sheltered by an angel, f. 153 b;—(9) The Prophet Habakkuk, f. 155 b;—(10) Isaiah praying, f. 157 b;—(11) Jonah cast forth by the whale, f. 159 b;—(12) The Theotokos praying, f. 163 b. Their arrangement and subject matter appear to resemble somewhat the miniatures in Mount Athos, Vatopedi MS. 851, a 12th century Psalter with other matter; see S. Eustratiades and Arcadios, Catalogue of the Greek MSS. in the Library of... Vatopedi on Mt. Athos, 1924, p. 163. Decorative headpieces occur on ff. 2, 76, and a tailpiece on f. 144 b. Binding, 18th century, of wooden boards covered with dark red gilt-tooled leather. In the centre of each side is an oval gilt-stamped panel of floral design not dissimilar to that on Add. MS. 40754. There are remains of metal clasps. At the beginning and the end of the volume are 18th century coloured endpapers. On f. 1 there are two notes in 13th (?) century hands, viz :—(1) Ἄννης Κομνηνης ;—(2) Ἐγενίθοι ο δουλος του Χριστου ονης ο τοῦ αυτου αδε[λφος] μηνι δεκενβρίω ει τη υμερα τρίτοι όρα [·] ετους ϛψκβ [= A.D. 1214] . . . . Acquired with Add. MSS. 40754, 40755.

40754. Evangelistarium, in Greek. The text as a rule agrees with von Soden's K class. Much of the spelling is very corrupt. Contents :—

1. Easter Sunday to Monday after Pentecost, daily Gospels. f. 1.
2. Saturday after Pentecost to the Greek New Year, σαββατοκυριακα or Gospels for Saturdays and Sundays only. The Sunday Gospels are marked in a later hand with the numbers of the ἦχοι and ἑωθινά to be sung at the end of Matins. f. 31.
3. Rubrics concerning the reading of the Gospel of the Canaanitess (Matth. xv. 21–28) and the reading of St. Luke in the New Year. The same rubrics are found in Burney MS. 22, f. 96 ; cf. also Scrivener, Introduction to the Criticism of the New Testament, i, p. 86. Beg. Χρὴ γινώσκειν ὅτι τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τοῦ τῆς Χαναναίας διὰ τὸ πολλάκοις συμβαίνει (sic) γίνεσθαι τὸ πάσχα ἔξω. f. 46 b.
4. New Year to Quinquagesima Sunday (τυροφάγου), σαββατοκυριακά. The majority of the Sundays are marked in the same way as those in art. 2 for the ἦχοι and ἑωθινά. f. 47.
5. Εὐαγγέλια τὰ κατὰ παννυχίδα : Gospels for the Vigils of the first week in Lent. f. 62 b.
6. 1st Saturday in Lent to Maundy Thursday, σοββατοκυριακά for the earlier part, daily Gospels for Matins and εἰς τὴν λειτουργίαν for Palm Sunday and Holy Week until Maundy Thursday, and the Gospel τοῦ νηπτήρου on Maundy Thursday. f. 63 b.
7. Gospels of the Passion, Gospels of the Good Friday Hours, Gospel εἰς τὴν λειτουργίαν for Good Friday, Gospels at Matins and εἰς τὴν λειτουργίαν for Holy Saturday, and a list of "ἀναστάσιμα ἑωθινὰ εὐαγγέλια," the eleven Gospels read at Matins and εἰς τὴν λειτουργίαν on Sundays from Low Sunday to Sunday before Whitsun and on the Saturday before Whitsun. f. 87.
8. Gospels for the Menology. Owing to the loss of leaves after f. 143 the feasts between 29 June and 21 July are missing. f. 109 b.

9. 'Ευαγγέλια τὰ $\overline{\iota\alpha}$ ἑωθινὰ τῶν ἁγίων κυριάκῶν. f. 148.

Vellum, with paper supplements; ff. ii+151. 10⅛ in. × 8 in. Dated in the colophon (f. 151):—(in red) + Γεωργίου ἀναγνώστου σοῦδαρία: (black) + ἔτους ϛψξδ ἰνδ. $\overline{\iota\delta}$ (= A.D. 1256) εὔχεσθαι καὶ μὴ κατήρασθαι (sic); the paper additions (ff. i, ii, 119–121, 126–134, 136–140, 144–148) of the 17th (?) cent. Gatherings originally of eight leaves (vi^{6}, xvi^{7}); ff. 126–151 are miscellaneous double and single leaves of paper and vellum (the paper leaves replacing lost leaves of vellum) sewn roughly together into forms of gatherings. The earlier gatherings are mostly numbered on their first and last folios in a later hand. Double columns of 28 lines. Double accent occasionally on μέν, δέ, μή, ναί, ἐπεί. Extremely coarse headpieces and initials in colours occur throughout. Dark brown leather binding of the 18th (?) cent., with a gilt-stamped floral design in the centre not unlike that on the binding of Add. MS. 40753, but considerably larger. Two 17th (?) cent. memorials occur on ff. 121, 136, viz.:— + Μ*ιστι κυριε την ψυχι του δολου σου* Ν*ηκολαου και τη σιβιο αυτου· καὶ . . ραι . . και του πρ . .* (?) and + Μ*νηστη κυριε τ[ην] ψυχη του δ[ου]λου σου* Γ*ε[ωρ]γιου καὶ [τη] σιβιου α[υ]το και το ι[ου]* (?) αυτου M.[. .]-κας. Notes of ownership are:—(a) 18th (?) cent., Το παρῶν και θείων καὶ ἱερόν ἐβαγγέλιων ὑπάρχῆ ἐμοῦ τοῦ εὐτελοῦς Διαμαντάκη ἐκ της χῶρας του Μεγάλου Ρεύματος τῶν 'Ασωμὰτων καὶ ὅστης βουληθῆ ἀποξενόσι χορῆς θέλιματων ἐδικῶν μου ἔστω τοῦ ἀναθέματος ἐν παντῆ κερῶ. f. i. This presumably refers to the Convent of the Nine Orders near Constantinople, which was known, among other names, as τῶν 'Ασωμάτων (cf. Ducange, Constantinopolis Christiana, iv, p. 188); Μέγα 'Ρεῦμα is a suburb of Constantinople;—(b) Χειρόγραφον εἰς μεμβράναν [. . . . .] εὐαγγέλιον εἰς περικοπὴν τεκμέρεται της δεκάτης προχωρούσης ἑκατονταετηρίδος, καταγόμενον ὡς ἐν τὴ ἄνω ἐπιγραφὴ. ἔλαβον τοῦτο παρὰ Διονυσίου Φαραντάτου ἐκ τοῦ δῆμου Θηνιᾶς, κατὰ τό ἔτος 1853.—νῦν δὲ ὑπάρχει ἐμοῦ τοῦ ὑποσημειουμένου.—Χαραλάμπου Τσημ Γεννατᾶ. f. ii. Other scribblings occur on f. 151 b. Acquired with Add. MSS. 40753, 40755.

40755. Leitourgikon, with other liturgical matter, in Greek, viz.:—

1. Liturgies of St. John Chrysostom, f. 2; St. Basil the Great, f. 21; and the Presanctified, f. 46. The texts are in almost complete agreement with the Leitourgikon printed at Venice, 1867, but the order of the prayers of the antiphons is changed. The ὅτι πρέπει, in the printed text placed before the prayer of the first antiphon, here follows the εἰρηνικά of that prayer. Consequently the ὅτι σὸν τὸ κράτος and the ὅτι ἀγαθός are placed after the εἰρηνικά of the prayers of the 2nd and 3rd antiphons respectively. In the liturgy of the Presanctified the ὅτι πρέπει is placed before the prayer of the 1st antiphon as well as after the εἰρηνικά of that prayer, and owing to the change of order the ὅτι σὺ εἶ is omitted. This order is followed in the texts printed by Goar, Εὐχολόγιον sive Rituale Graecorum, pp. 53, 54, 135, 136, and in Harley MS. 5561, ff. 8, 8 b, 21, 21 b, for the liturgies of SS. John and Basil. On f. 45 at the end of the liturgy of St. Basil a rather later hand has added a longer version of the "εὐχὴ ὀπισθάμβωνη." Various rubrics and unimportant textual additions have been inserted in several hands on ff. 5, 6, 6 b, 10 b, 14, 16, 18, 24, 28, 36, 39 b, 41 b, 43, 49. In the prayer of the δίπτυχα in the liturgies of SS. John and Basil (ff. 15, 37) a memorial is made of a Μιχαὴλ ἱερεύς; see below.

2. Offices for Ordinations, added by a later hand on a gathering after f. 54, viz. :—(a) Τάξις γινομένη ἐπὶ χειροτονία διακόνου; cf. Goar, op. cit., pp. 208–209. f. 55;—(b) Τάξης γινομένης (sic) επι χειροτονεία πρεσβυτέρου; cf. Goar, op. cit., pp. 242–243. f. 56 b;—(c) Τάξις γινομένη ἐπι χειροτονία ἐπισκόπου; cf. Goar, op. cit., pp. 249–251. f. 58.
3. Forms of ecclesiastical titles added on a fly-leaf in a later hand, mentioning the oecumenical patriarchs and the metropolitan of Philippopolis, exarch of Thrace "δρογοβητείας," i.e. Δραγοβιντία (cf. Le Quien, Oriens Christianus, i, pp. 1155–56). f. i b.

Paper; pp. ii+61. 10½ in. × 7⅝ in. XVI cent. Written at Brusa in Asia Minor; cf. colophon on f. 54, Τέλος τὸν παρὸντων τούτον τριῶν λειτουργιῶν· διὰ χειρὸς καμοῦ Μιχαήλ ἱέρέως καὶ οἰκονόμου Προύσης. Illuminated headpieces on ff. 2, 21, 46, containing figures of SS. John Chrysostom, Basil the Great and Gregory, ὁ διάλογος, standing under arches surrounded by a decorative border. An unfinished miniature of St. Basil occurs on f. 61. Historiated initials occur on ff. 9 b, 14 b, 19, 27 b, 28, 31, 44, and numerous initials in gold and colours throughout, all in a late and decadent Byzantine style. The paper has suffered from damp; f. 3 is torn at the top right corner, but without injury to the text. Binding of 17th cent. crimson velvet with circular yellow metal bosses at the corners and in the centre; one of those on the back cover is missing. Various notes occur on f. 54 b, among them :—(1) In red ink (the latter part rewritten in black), Ἡ παροῦσα βίβλος, εἶτει, αἱ τρεῖς αὗται λειτουργίαι, Ἰωάννου τοῦ χρϋσορήμονος Βασιλείου τοῦ μεγάλου, καὶ οἱ τῶν πρωϊγιασμένων, ἠγοράσθη παρὰ τοῦ ὁσιωτάτου εν ἱερομονάχοις, παπα κυριου (?) Leake, Travels in Northern Greece, iii, p. 206; —(3) In a third hand, at the foot of the page, Ἔτος Χριστοῦ. ͵αχπϛ [=1686].

Paper ; ff. iii + 120. Quarto. Late xvii cent. (with xviii cent. additions). Written, probably in the barony of Magherastephana, co. Fermanagh, by a dependant of Mary O'Reilly, wife of Rory Maguire, called 5th Baron Enniskillen (d. at St. Germains, 1708). The MS. was at Louvain in 1732, when Séamus Ó Muireadhaigh inserted art. 59 (he was a Dominican friar from Derry, who preached in Irish in Dublin in 1756 ; cf. De Burgo, Hibernia Dominicana, 1762, p. 197). A stanza on f. 120 b, beg. " A uadh na mogall don chrobhuing dob aoirde craobh," is in his hand. Later the MS. belonged to the Dominican house of Gaula in the barony of Magherastephana (cf. f. i: " Hic liber jure quasi hereditario spectat ad filios Conventus Gaulensis "), and in the late 18th cent. to members of the Ó Caiside family. Pilip Ó Caiside wrote art. 61 in 1784, and Proinnsias Ó Caiside owned the book in 1785 (see his name impressed with a stamp on f. 4, etc.), and added arts. 2, 3, 54, 55 (?), 57, 58, 60, 62–66, 68–71. His son Francis owned it in 1810 (see an interesting note on f. 7 b), and Henry Mac Manus of Ballyjamesduff, co. Cavan, bought it from Mr. [Francis ?] Cassidy in 1838. Original binding of brown leather, with pigskin back (a later addition); a thong of pigskin was used as a clasp, but the brass button used for a fastening (see extract from a bookseller's catalogue, f. ii) has been lost. Belonged to Edmond McClure, Canon of Bristol (sale-cat., Sotheby's, 6 June 1923, lot 783).

40767. FIACĊ'S HYMN on St. Patrick and Broccán's hymn on St. Bridget, translated into Modern Irish. In the hand of Richard Plunket (cf. Egerton MS. 186), who, according to O'Reilly, Iberno-Celtic Soc. Trans., 1820, p. xxxiii, was " a neglected genius of the county of Meath " and translated these two hymns in 1792. The versions begin respectively " Rugad Padruig a Nemthur " (f. 1) and " Nior ghradhaighe Brighid bhuadhach an saoghal " (f. 3 b). For the Old Irish originals see Stokes and Strachan, Thesaurus Palaeohibernicus, ii, pp. 308, 327. For a fuller description see Cat. of Irish MSS., ii, p. 437.

Paper; ff. ii + 12. Octavo. Circ. 1792. Written probably in co. Meath. Attached at the end is a small ruled accompt book (f. 9), which has been used to record payments to workmen on the estate of [Thomas Taylour, 3rd Marquess of] Headfort at Edenburt, co. Cavan. The MS. was found, with others, by Mr. John G. Gilbert of Liverpool in a field (in the Meath-Cavan district ?). These MSS. were the survivors of a collection which had belonged to a schoolmaster, circ. 1840, and had been thrown into a river by his descendants (cf. an article by K. Meyer, Irish Independent, 5 Sept., 1900, f. ii). Sotheby's sale-cat., 27 June 1923, lot 749.

40768. NOTE BOOK or " quarry " for George Eliot's " Romola." Holograph. The novel (the original MS. is Add. MSS. 34027–34029) was begun 7 Oct. 1861 and the plot finished 12 Dec. 1861; it was begun again 1 Jan. 1862 and finished 9 June 1863; cf. J. W. Cross, George Eliot's Life, 1885, ii, pp. 317, 324, 329, 354. It was published as a serial in the Cornhill Magazine, July 1862—August 1863. On the cover is a label (f. i) inscribed "Florentine Notes." Besides lists of books, the subject matter consists of extracts from books on historical, social and topographical matters, with chronological lists of Florentine history, and the career of Savonarola. Among the books used are M. Lastri, L'Osservatore Fiorentino, W. Roscoe, Lorenzo de' Medici, Muratori, Antichità, and D. Manin, Le Veglie Piacevoli. It would appear from the list of books quoted by Cross, op. cit., ii, p. 325, as being read in the latter half of 1861, that these notes were taken at about that date.

Paper; ff. ii + 55. Quarto. Circ. A.D. 1861 (see above). Bequeathed by the writer to Charles Lee Lewes, son of G. H. Lewes, d. 1891, and sold by the executors of his widow, Gertrude Lewes. Sotheby's sale-cat., 27 June 1923, lot 576.

40769. Richard Rolle, translation and exposition, verse by verse, with the Latin text, of the Psalter, followed by the six Old Testament canticles and the Magnificat, in the original and uninterpolated version as printed by H. R. Bramley, The Psalter translated by R. Rolle of Hampole, 1884. Begins imperfectly in Ps. lxxxix. 8 with "to ponisch it," and ends imperfectly in the Magnificat, last verse, with "drough us oute." The dialect maintains a severely northern cast, while the other two MSS. of this version in the Museum, Harley MS. 1806 and Arundel MS. 158, illustrate a progressive substitution of more southern forms. A convenient survey of the various problems connected with this work, along with a list of MSS. and other bibliographical information, will be found in H. E. Allen, Writings ascribed to R. Rolle, Hermit of Hampole, and Materials for his Biography, 1927, pp. 169–192. 40851. Ordinary and Roll of Arms: an early example (second half of the 15th cent.) of the collection known as Jenyns' Ordinary, so called because other copies of a similar armorial derive from a transcript stated to have been made by Robert Glover, Somerset Herald, certificated 12 Feb. 157$\frac{8}{9}$, from an old paper copy in the possession of Thomas Jenyns (cf., for transcripts deriving from the Glover MS., Stowe MS. 696, f. 1; Cotton MS. Tiberius E. ix, ff. 236, 133). Other copies in the Museum are in Harley MSS. 1068, f. 79; 6589, f. 21; Add. MS. 12224. The present copy is in close agreement with the Stowe and Add. MSS. For other copies and an account of the collection see J. Greenstreet and C. Russell, Reference List of the Rolls of Arms, etc. (reprinted from The Genealogist, v, pp. 1, 94, 168).

Quoted as Y and X in Papworth's Ordinary. The occurrence of a large shield of arms of Margaret of Anjou, Queen consort of Henry VI (1445–1482), alone on f. 5 (probably added by a later hand) may indicate some connection with that queen. A retrospective collection, the Ordinary of about 1200 coats, the Roll of about 380. A marked Yorkshire element, possibly from the neighbourhood of Richmond, is to be noted. The Yorkshire connection is further suggested by two later inscriptions under the shields of Robert Hilton de Swyne ("vnius fundatoris de Swyne") and Piers de la Hay ("vnius fundatoris de Swyne Abbey postea Melton modo Dacy"). This is Swine Priory in Holderness. These additions, with others, are incorporated in the text of the Stowe MS.

The shields are in colours, arranged normally 12 to a page, the bearers' names and the blazon being written, in French, in four lines above each row of shields. The Ordinary beg. "Le Roy de Espayne port," etc. (f. 5 b) and ends "William Malbys port," etc. (f. 55 b). The charges are arranged in the following order :—

Lions. f. 5 b ; Leopards. f. 12 b ; Eagles. f. 14 ; Bends. f. 15 ; Saltires. f. 19 b ; Fesses. f. 21 b ; Bars and Barry. f. 25 ; Baruly. f. 29 b ; Nebuly. f. 30 ; Vairy. f. 30 b ; Fess fusily. f. 31 b ; Chevrons. f. 32 b ; Fretty. f. 36 b ; Chiefs. f. 37 b ; Crosses. f. 40 ; Water bougets. f. 44 ; Quarterly. f. 44 b ; Annulets. f. 45 b ; Roses. f. 46 b ; Crescents. ib. ; Cinquefoils and Sexfoils. f. 47 ; Brooches. f. 47 b ; Lozenges. f. 48 ; Maunches. f. 48 b ; Piles and Paly. f. 49 b ; Gyronny. ib. ; Escutcheons. f. 50 ; Chequy. f. 51 b ; Cups. f. 52 b ; Trumpets. ib. ; Bezants. f. 53 ; Mullets. f. 53 b ; Garbs. f. 54 ; Fleurs-de-lys. f. 54 b ; Luces. f. 55 ; Escallops. f. 55 b ; Leverets. ib.

The Roll, beg. (f. 56) "Le Conte de Leycestre port," etc., ending (f. 71 b) "Robert Amondeuile de Wotton en Wardale port," etc., is printed by J. Greenstreet, The Antiquary, 1880, i, p. 205 ; ii, pp. 97, 238, from Cotton MS. Tib. E. ix. In this Cotton copy, as in Harley MS. 6589, which belonged to John Anstis the elder (1669–1744), there are 23 other coats after Amondevile. Anstis notes in the present MS. (f. 72): "I have a copy of this book new placed N. d. 2. taken as I suppose when it had one leafe more, for in this copy after the Arms of Amondevile are the following blazonings," i.e., the first nine of the additional coats. This other copy may have been lot 353 in the Anstis sale, 13 Dec. 1768. There seems no justification for the statement that a leaf is lost after f. 71. Other notes by Anstis are on ff. 1, 2. There are two indexes, one (f. 77) incomplete, in the hand which appears associated with the initials R. P. on ff. 72, 77 (in this case with the date 1575). In Tib. E. ix, f. 134, is the note : "following is taken out of Mr. Poole's copy," but it is doubtful whether the reference is to the present MS. The other index (f. 85) is in an early 17th cent. hand. On f. 75 is the shield of arms, in tincture, of Norton of Norton Conyers, co. York, 15th–16th cent., with the inscription "John Norton" (there were three Sir John Nortons in this period, father, d. 1489, son, d. 1520, and grandson, d. 1557, cf. Vict. County Hist., Yorkshire, North Riding, i, p. 393).

Paper ; ff. 116. 14¼ in.×8¼ in. xv cent. Binding of brown calf, 17th cent., with stamp of the arms of Sir Edward Walker (1612–1677), Garter (cf. Stowe MSS. 440, 580 and C. Davenport, English Heraldic Book Stamps, p. 384). On f. 116 is the name " Thomas Houghton," with scribbles, early 16th cent. Belonged circ. 1575 to R. P. (see above); 17th cent. to Sir Edward Walker (see above); 18th cent. to John Anstis, Garter (sale-cat., 13 Dec. 1768, lot 354). Sotheby's sale-cat., 26 July 1923, lot 357.

40852. " Ordinary of the Filial Distinctions that have been used by the Blood Royal of England, legitimate and illegitimate," compiled in 1826 by Thomas Willement, F.S.A. (1786–1871). Autograph. Shields of arms mostly in tincture, but a few additions more roughly drawn in ink. An index by the compiler is at the end, f. 64, and inserted (f. 70) is a drawing of the arms of Spencer Horatio Walpole (1806–1898) in Lincoln's Inn Library.

Paper; ff. iii + 70. Oblong octavo. Bookplate of the compiler. Sotheby's sale-cat., 18 July 1923, lot 994.

40853. " Arms of Ecclesiastics and of Ecclesiastical Communities arranged in the form of an Ordinary, collected by Thomas Willement, 1831 "; a few additions subsequent to that date (see, e.g., f. 246). Autograph. Shields of arms mostly in tincture, with notes of the sources from which they are taken. Inserted are an engraved plate (f. 1) of the seals of the mitred abbeys of England, from the 1656 edition of Thomas Fuller's Church History of Britain, following Book ii, p. 171, and a few armorial bookplates and other drawings and engravings. Tables of charges (f. 9), places (f. 255), names (f. 270) and dignities (f. 279) are included.

Paper; ff. ii + 285. Folio. Sotheby's sale-cat., 18 July 1923, lot 1028.

40854, 40855. Gospels of St. Matthew and St. Mark, in English, with a commentary ascribed to Sir Anthony Cope, of Hanwell, co. Oxon, chamberlain to Queen Katharine Parr, d. 1551. See Hist. MSS. Comm., 3rd Rep., App., p. 244, nos. xxxiv, xxxv. The first olume is preceded by a dedication to Edward VI (f. 2) and a preface (f. 3 b). The commentary, which is compiled from " divers authors " (cf. f. 2 b), cites SS. Jerome, John Chrysostom and Augustine. Occasional evidences of sympathy with Reformation doctrines are in harmony with Cope's supposed authorship; cf. Sir A. Cope, Meditations on twenty select Psalms, ed. W. H. Cope, 1848, pp. vii–xix.

Paper; ff. iii + 205, iii + 99. Folio. XVI cent. Both volumes are in 16th cent. leather bindings, in 40854 with gilt floral stamps, in 40855 with blind roll stamps. Fragments of mediaeval MSS. have been used in the binding, viz. :—(a) in Add. 40854, parts of leaves from a MS. of Decretals of Gregory IX, lib. i, tit. xl, cap. i, etc.; ii, tit. vi, capp. iii–v. English, 14th cent. ff. ii, iii;—(b) in Add. 40855, parts of leaves from a Latin glossary based on the Catholicon of Johannes Balbus de Janua. English, 14th cent. ff. ii, iii. On f. i of each MS. is the bookplate of Sir John Cope, 6th Bart. of Hanwell 1673–1721; cf. British Museum, Catalogue of the Franks collection of British and American Bookplates, 1903, i, no. 6819. Belonged in 1872 to the Rev. Sir W. H. Cope, 12th Bart.; cf. Hist. MSS. Comm., loc. cit. Sotheby's sale-cat., 23 July 1923, lot 38.

40882. JOHANN BUSCH, treatises relating to the order of canons regular of Windesem or Windesheim, in the form found in all MSS. except that at Gaesdonk, representing a revision of the original work (for the two editions see an article by V. Becker in Die Katholiek, New Ser., xxi, 1885, p. 388). First printed by Heribert Rosweyd in his Chronicon Windesemense, 1621, from this MS., then in the library of the Windesheimian house of St. Martin's, Louvain (cf. the entry in the catalogue of 1639, Sanderus, Bibliotheca Belgica Manuscripta, 1664, ii, p. 218: "Joannes Buschius de viris illustribus Canonicorum Regularium Capituli Windesemiensis"). Rosweyd rearranged the separate treatises in the logical order of events. Notes in his hand, chiefly on words requiring explanation, occur throughout and these words are generally explained in the glossary to his edition. The treatises were edited again, with Busch's Liber de reformatione monasteriorum, by K. Grube, Chronicon Windeshemense, 1886, as vol. xix of Geschichtsquellen der Provinz Sachsen, from the MS. in the Royal Library at the Hague, Aevum medium, script. ecclesiastici 335, with collation of other MSS. For the existing MSS. see Grube, op. cit., p. xxxvii, and J. G. R. Acquoy, Het Klooster te Windesheim, 1875, pp. 314–317.

The work contains the following treatises:—

1. "Liber de viris illustribus patrum et fratrum antiquorum in Windesem." The prologue, headed "Prologus in librum de viris illustribus ordinis canonicorum regularium monasterii in Windesem diocesis Traiectensis," beg. "Illustrium patrum gesta preclara" (f. 5), and is followed by a list of chapters (f. 6), after which the text beg. "Laudemus viros gloriosos patres ordinis nostri primitiuos" (f. 8 b). Rosweyd, p. 247; Grube, p. 1. f. 5.
2. "Incipit epistola de vita et passione domini nostri Ihesu Christi et aliis deuotis exerciciis secundum que fratres et laici in Windesem se solent exercere a teutonico in latinum per libri huius editorem translata": the "libellus dictus [from its incipit] Qui perseuerauerit autem dilecte frater," translated from a Dutch original usually attributed to Johan Vos of Heusden, second prior of Windesheim (cf. Valerius Andreae, Bibliotheca Belgica, p. 578; Foppens, Bibliotheca Belgica, ii, p. 748), but believed by Acquoy, Kloster van Windesheim, i, p. 161, to have been merely used by him and recommended to the brethren for their spiritual exercises (cf. Liber de viris illustribus, cap. xi). Rosweyd, p. 217; Grube, p. 226. f. 109 b.
3. "Incipit liber de origine moderne deuotionis omnium deuotorum presbyterorum clericorum et sororum siue beginarum totius nostre patrie regionis Almanie, et consequenter de origine processu et consummacione temporali et spirituali monasterii nostri in Windesem ordinis canonicorum regularium Traiectensis diocesis ac de origine et consummatione capituli nostri generalis": the account of the foundation of Windesheim and the extension of the houses under its general chapter. Preceded (f. 116 b) by a prologue, headed "Incipit prologus in librum de origine moderne deuocionis, de origine monasterii in Windesem ordinis canonicorum regularium, et de origine capituli nostri generalis et eius consummacione," and beginning "In nomine sancte et indiuidue trinitatis. Autenticorum scriptores voluminum." A list of chapters follows (f. 117 b). Rosweyd, p. 1; Grube, p. 245. f. 118 b.

Paper (watermarks, ox's horns with star on line, cup, etc.) and (the two middle leaves of each gathering) vellum; ff. iii + 162. 8¼ in. × 5½ in. Late xv cent. Gatherings of 10 leaves (last of 8), signed A–Q, preceded by an unsigned gathering of 4 leaves originally blank. Two large initials in blue with leaf patterns in white, other initials in red. On ff. i, iii (vellum, pasted on the inside of the covers) are extracts from Thomas de Cantimpré, Bonum Universale de proprietatibus apum, consisting of the accounts of the habits of bees from the beginnings of various chapters. On the blank leaves of the unsigned gathering the following certificates relating to the passage in the De viris illustribus concerning Thomas a Kempis have been written:—(a) V[ictor] Becker, S. J., Oudenbosch, 22 Jan. 1886, stating that he bought the MS. at the Van der Straelen Moons sale at Antwerp, 18 Jan. [1886], that it formerly belonged to St. Martin's, Louvain, that it was exhibited in evidence at the congress at Paris in 1681, and that it was the basis of Rosweyd's edition. f. 1 b;—(b) Jodocus Eckermans, notary of Louvain, certifying that the MS., as shown to him by Thomas Bosmans, prior of St. Martin's, contained the passage in question; Liége, 28 Nov. 1760 (copied by E. Waterton from Amort, Deductio Critica, pp. 96, 97). f. 2;—(c) Edmund Waterton, stating that he acquired the MS. from Becker and had kept it under lock and key until the date when he sent it to the British Museum for examination; Deeping Waterton Hall, 4 May 1886. f. 3.

At f. ii is a letter signed jointly by Edw[ard] A[ugustus] Bond and E[dward] Maunde Thompson, stating that the passage relating to Thomas a Kempis (f. 36 b) is "an integral part of the text, without erasure, interpolation, or parenthesis"; British Museum, 21 May 1886.

Original binding (rebacked) of wooden boards covered with brown leather, blind-stamped with trellis-work design formed by intersecting triple fillets within a frame of quadruple fillets, rosettes in the centre of the lozenge-shaped spaces and quatrefoil arrangements of five pellets in the triangular spaces and on the intersections. This binding resembles in style two Louvain bindings described by E. P. Goldschmidt, Gothic & Renaissance Bookbindings, 1928, i, pp. 152, 153, and illustrated, ii, pl. xii. Brass clasp-fittings and remains of leathern thongs. On f. 1 is the obliterated inscription: "Est liber hic sancti Martini Louaniensis" (15th cent.), and the MS. was still at St. Martin's in 1621, 1639 and 1681 (see above). The house was finally dissolved in 1797 (Acquoy, op. cit., iii, p. 154). The MS. was bought by Victor Becker at the Van der Straelen Moons sale at Antwerp, 18 Jan. 1886, acquired from him in the same year by Edmund Waterton, and purchased for the Museum at a sale at "The Bury," Arlesey, 17 Oct. 1923, lot 615.

40887. Vol. I. "The Unhappy Revenge": a play described in a note (f. i) as a "Tragedy written by Algernon Charles Swinburne soon after he went to Eton (April 1849), at about 13 years old," and apparently referred to by him in a letter to Churton Collins, 11 Dec. 1876 (Gosse and Wise, Letters of A. C. S., i, p. 285) as composed after reading Tourneur's Revenger's Tragedy "at the ripe age of twelve." Swinburne states that he had burnt the play with other youthful compositions at the age of sixteen and that he had forgotten its "very name."

The action takes place mainly at Rome in the reign of Maximus. Ends incompletely in Act IV, Sc. v (two pages of Sc. iv are also left blank). For a description of the play see G. Lafourcade, La Jeunesse de Swinburne (Publ. de la Faculté des Lettres de l'Univ. de Strasbourg, Fasc. 44), i, p. 97.

41033–41034. Shelton Young Collection. Vols. CXLV, CXLVI. Indexes by J. S. Young to his collections from MS. sources found in Add. MSS. 40917–41032. Each slip of paper, besides its description, bears two numbers, one above the other. The upper number usually refers to the volume, the lower to the page, of the collection. This practice is not, however, consistent, and some of the volumes appear to be unindexed. Each volume has been subdivided into four separate volumes, the arrangement being as follows:—

41033. Vol. CXLV. Part 1 (ff. 67). Wills, A–W;—Pt. 2 (ff. 111). Wills, Y–Z;—Pt. 3 (ff. 76), Pt. 4 (ff. 76). Documents from the Court of Chancery.

Documents from (a) The Exchequer. ff. 1–67 b; (b) The Court of King's Bench. ff. 68 b–82; (c) Miscellaneous sources in the Public Record Office. ff. 83–112 b;—Pt. 4 (ff. 104). Documents from miscellaneous sources including:—(a) Parish Registers, arranged by counties. ff. 1–11; (b) MSS. in the British Museum, ff. 11 b–65, MSS. in the Bodleian Library at Oxford, ff. 65–68 b, MSS. in Bristol, ff. 68 b–70 b, MSS. in other libraries, ff. 70 b–82; (c) Charters in the British Museum, Bodleian, etc. ff. 82 b–101 b; (d) Seals. ff. 101 b–102 b.

41043. SHELTON YOUNG COLLECTION. Vol. CLV. Transcripts, in a feigned hand, of deeds relating to Newport, Siefton, Corfton, Culmington, Diddlebury, Kinnerton and Clee St. Margaret, co. Salop. Latin. The most interesting document is a licence to lay lead pipes from a well in Newport, dated 30 June 1309, on f. 1 b. On ff. 5, 5 b are transcripts of two compotus rolls of the bailiffs of Henry Percy, 1st Earl of Northumberland, holding lands during the minority of Edmund Mortimer, 5th Earl of March, for Chirbury, co. Salop, and Halcestre [i.e. Halton, in Church Stoke, co. Montgomery; cf. R. W. Eyton, Antiquities of Shropshire, xi, pp. 73 n., 141]. Both documents date from Michaelmas 23 Ric. II—Mich. 1 Henry IV [1399–1400]. Abstracts made by Randle Holme II, in 1656, from the originals of some of these documents, then in the possession of Philip Yonge of Caynton, co. MS. 41053 is arranged in roughly the same way as the two preceding volumes. On ff. 92–142 are pedigrees relating to the Young family extracted from wills in the probate court of Dublin. Each pedigree is marked with a number within a circle. This numeration refers to the list of Young pedigrees found in Add. MS. 41040, ff. 192–198 b.
Ff. 153, 159, 142. A.D. 1902–1903.

Paper Roll. 6 ft. 11½ in. × 2 ft. 1½ in.

41057. Shelton Young Collection. Vol. CLXIX. Roll-Chronicle of the municipality of Salisbury, co. Wilts, 1327–1703, each year bearing the name of the mayor as well as the date. Until the end of the 15th century local references are rare (see 1360, 1449). The roll may have been undertaken about 1626, the entries up to that year seeming to be in one hand. Thereafter four or more hands appear. Particularly full entries are to be found under 1687, 1688. Another, but shorter, chronicle similarly arranged was printed at Salisbury in 1817, as A Collection of Remarkable Events Relative to the City of New Sarum. On the verso is a list of mayors of Salisbury, 1328–1689. Here the original hand appears to end at 1638. It resembles the main hand of the Chronicle. Hereafter two hands have made additions. From 1671 to 1689 the names are accompanied by historical notes. As far as the names go the list is in fairly close agreement with that printed by Sir Richard Colt Hoare, History of Modern Wiltshire, vol. vi (Old and New Sarum), pp. 695–698, though the dates vary in many cases.

Vellum Roll. 23 ft. 11 in. × 6 in. Circ. A.D. 1626 with xvii and xviii cent. additions.

41058 A, B, C. Shelton Young Collection. Vol. CLXX. Three rubbings of the sepulchral brass of John Yong, titular Bishop of Callipolis, and Warden of New College, Oxford, 1521–1526, at New College, Oxford, circ. 1525 (see Mill Stephenson, List of Monumental Brasses, p. 415).

A, 3 ft. 8 in. × 2 ft. ⅝ in.; B, 3 ft. 8¼ in. × 2 ft. 5⅜ in.; C, 3 ft. 9⅞ in. × 2 ft. 5⅝ in.

41059. Shelton Young Collection. Vol. CLXXI. Extracts from MSS. in the British Museum, and from printed sources, relating to the heraldry of the Young family, made by John George Bradford. At ff. i, iii are letters from Bradford to J. S. Young. Bradford gave most of these extracts to Young in 1922 (see ff. i, iii), and presented the remainder to the Department of MSS. in 1923.

Ff. iii + 121. xx cent.

41060. Original drafts of two early works by William Wilkie Collins, novelist, viz. :—

1. Original version of Basil: A Story of Modern Life, differing considerably from the published text (1852). "Basil" is called "Philip" for the greater part of the MS.; the first two chapters have been supplanted in print by one new chapter (so that ch. iii of the MS. corresponds to ch. ii of the book), and there are many other divergences. Variations of the proposed title Lanreath occur on ff. 5 b, 34 b, 48 b, and of Basil on ff. 72 b, 84 b, 86 b, while among sketches and other scribblings are imitated signatures of Douglas Jerrold and Mark Lemon (f. 53 b) and practice signatures of Collins in the style of Jerrold and others (f. 61 b). f. 1.

2. Original version of Mr. Wray's Cash-box ; or, The Mask and the Mystery, differing in slight details from the published text (1852). f. 87.

Paper ; ff. 101. Folio. Hodgson's sale-cat., 6 Dec. 1923, lot 214.

41061. HOURS, etc., in Latin. Contents :—(1) Hours of the Virgin, incomplete, lacking the beginning of Matins. According to the Abbé V. Leroquais (see Add. MS. 43688 Z), the use is that of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem. f. 1 ;—(2) " Hic incipit Salutatio sancte Marie " : a devotion to the Virgin consisting, besides ordinary suffrages, of the Magnificat with two prayers followed by the first fourteen of the Gradual Psalms (Pss. cxix–cxxxii) and the Magnificat divided into five parts by prayers based on the Five Joys of the Virgin. It appears to have been composed for a lady, since a prayer on f. 28 mentions the psalms " quos ego indigna et peccatrix decantare cupio." f. 27 b ;—(3) " Hic incipiunt ore (sic) de sancto spiritu." f. 35 ;—(4) " Hic incipit (sic) quinque psalmos (sic) de plagis " : a devotion consisting of Pss. xcix, cxxii, cxxiv, cxxx, cl, each followed by a prayer to one of the Five Wounds of Christ, the first beg. " O Redemptor mundi qui spineam coronam non dubitasti portare pro humani generis salute." f. 41 b ;—(5) Penitential Psalms. f. 43 ;—(6) Litany. The occurrence of the following English saints is worthy of mention :—Thomas of Canterbury, Alphege, Archbishop of Canterbury, Edward, king and martyr. It may be noted that two characteristic suffrages of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, viz. " ut episcopos et abbates, magistrum et priores nostros et cunctas congregationes illis commissas in sancta religione conservare digneris " and " ut gentem paganam dextera potencie tue comprimere digneris" (see V. Leroquais, Les Livres d'Heures MSS. de la Bibliothèque Nationale, i, p. 232) do not occur here. f. 48 ;—(6) Office of the Dead, of the use of St. John of Jerusalem (see Add. MS. 43688 Z). f. 50 ;—(7) In a later hand, incipits of Psalms divided into six categories, viz. :— Conpuncionis, Co[m]passionis, Humiliacionis, Deuocionis, Rectitudinis, Diuine laudis. f. 68 b ;—(8) Memorials, in late 14th cent. hands, viz. :—of SS. Dominic, f. 69 ; Peter Martyr, f. 69 ; Francis of Assisi, f. 69 b ; Clare, f. 69 b ; Elizabeth of Hungary, imperfect, f. 69 b. A leaf is probably missing after f. 69.

Vellum; ff. 69. 6⅞ in. × 5⅞ in. Circ. A.D. 1300. Executed in the South of France (?). Gatherings of 10 leaves, usually with catchwords (i wants 1, vii^{2}, viii^{8}). Wright's Cambridge edition of Pericles, p. 43), while in Rich. III, iii. 1. 94, "lightly" appears as "likely" with the 1634 Quarto. On the other hand Rich. III, i. 1. 160 is loosely quoted as "You runn before your horse to markett," which raises doubts about the status of the other variants. ff. 86, 87. *Presented by Prof. J. Arranged alphabetically under subjects beginning with "Amor" and provided with two indexes, the second forming part of an insertion (ff. 19–47, watermark of anchor) and interrupting the previous pagination. Numerous marginal notes record personal experiences of Bembo between 1471 and 1518 or allude to events of the time. Entries of Bembo's own composition are as a rule distinguished by a B or BB at the side. For detailed descriptions of the MS. see G. Neilson,

41069. LIVES OF SAINTS, Exempla, etc., in Latin. Contents :—

1. Legendary of abbreviated lives of saints beginning with St. Silvester (31 Dec.), f. 1, and ending with St. John Apostle (27 Dec.), f. 48. Many of the lives are marked in the margin " ix ł " [lectiones] or " iii ł " for reading at Matins. All appear to be taken from common sources. Names of saints are given in the index. In many cases the titles written before each life give no indication of the subject, usually taking the first proper name which appears in the text; e.g. " De Arcadio imperatore " (f. 21 b) stands before the legend of St. Alexius. Some of these titles have been corrected by a later hand. Inscriptions in later writing: " De sancta Margareta quere in primo folio huius libri " (f. 22), and " Quere antea in libro de sancto Gallo " (f. 36) suggest that other matter at one time preceded, or was intended to precede, the present first leaf. The following saints are worthy of notice :—(a) Alban, of Mainz (21 June). f. 17 b; —(b) Kilian, of Würzburg (8 July). f. 21;—(c) Narcissus and Afra, of Augsburg (7 Aug.). f. 25;—(d) Verena, of Zurzach, N. Switzerland (1 Sept.). The legend given here is almost identical with that printed in the Breviarium Basiliense (Michael Wenssler), Pars Aestivalis, ff. 210–211. f. 29 b;—(e) Gall (16 Oct.). f. 36.

On f. 6 under the title " In Purificacione," with " ix ł " written in the margin, is the story of the blind man receiving his sight after singing the respond " Gaude Maria " in the Pantheon at Rome, beg. " Temporibus Bonifacii pape qui ut in eclesiasticis historiis legitur." See H. L. D. Ward, Catalogue of Romances, ii, p. 648. The version is in almost complete agreement with that in Add. MS. 18346, ff. 74, 74 b; but in the latter " a Foca imperatore " replaces " ut in eclesiasticis historiis." Cf. also A. Mussafia in Studien zu den mittelalterlichen Marienlegenden, i, in Sitzungsber. d. Kaiserl. Akad. d. Wissenschaften, Hist.-Phil. Classe, Vienna, 1886, p. 946. For a collection of Mary legends arranged as a lectionary in Cambrai MS. 739, cf. Mussafia, op. cit., p. 975.

2. "De Iudeo conuerso": tale of a Christ-image at "Berothi" (Beyrout), which shed blood and water when pierced by the Jews, who are converted. Beg. "Aleuate oculos sensu[s] uestri uniuersi sancte christiane religionis fratres." The text, which is in almost complete agreement with that printed by Migne, Patr. Gr. xxviii. 819–824, among the spurious works of St. Athanasius, belongs to the second version of the story cited by E. Galtier, "Byzantina," Romania, xxix (1900), pp. 515–516. See also H. L. D. Ward, op. cit., ii, p. 702. f. 49.

3. Fragment of a sermon on preachers, the text being "Si linguis hominum loquor," etc. (1 Cor. xiii. 1). f. 50 b.

4. "Inquisitiones confessionis": a series of questions to be asked in the confessional, arranged under headings. f. 50 b.

5. Two sermons:—(a) "De purificacione beate Marie." f. 52;—(b) "De incarnacione," i.e., the Annunciation, f. 53 b, somewhat abbreviated from the respective sermons in the Speculum Ecclesiae of Honorius of Autun (Migne, Patr. Lat., clxxii. 849–852, 901–905). The first sermon includes, like the printed text, the tale of the Jew of Bourges (f. 52 b); cf. E. Wolter, Der Judenknabe (in H. Suchier, Bibl. Normannica, 1879, ii), p. 43. This is followed here (f. 52 b), though not in the Speculum Ecclesiae, by the tale of "The blind man healed"; cf. art. 1 above. In this version reference is made to the Emperor Phocas. The second sermon is divided into six sections, presumably for lectionary purposes.

6. "De asumptione beate Marie," beg. "Cum dominus et saluator noster Ihesus Christus." The account is that of Pseudo-Melito slightly abbreviated from the B text printed by Tischendorf, Apocalypses Apocryphae, pp. 124–136. Some of the divergences show a tendency to follow Tischendorf's M.B. readings, e.g. cap. iv, the passage beg. "Aduenit etiam Paulus," etc. At the end is a note giving the reasons for blessing flowers and making a procession on this feast. f. 55.

7. "De natiuitate beate Marie": a sermon, beg. "Dilectissimi hodie impletum quod Dauid predixerat," consisting mainly of an abridged version of the first eight chapters of the Apocryphal Gospel of Pseudo-Matthew; cf. Tischendorf, Evangelia Apocrypha (1876), pp. 54–69. On f. 58 is the tale of the hermit who heard the angels celebrating the Nativity of the Virgin (cf. Ward, op. cit., ii, pp. 633–4). The form here is closest to that of Vincent of Beauvais, Speculum Historiale, vii, 119, ed. 1624, vol. iv, p. 265. For a similar introduction of this tale after an account of the nativity of the B.V.M.

in a homily for this feast see the Speculum Ecclesiae of Honorius of Autun (Migne, Patr. Lat., clxxii. 999–1002). f. 57.

8. "De natiuitate beate Marie," beg. "Natalis sancte Marie uirginis antiquitus minime celebris habebatur": a sermon which, after a reference by incipit to the tale found in art. 7, divides itself into three parts:—(a) Why the Virgin answers prayers;—(b) An exposition of the text "Surge propera amica mea" (Cant. ii. 10);—(c) "De quatuor nominibus beate Marie uirginis." f. 58 b.

9. "B[ernardus]. De meditatione" (title written in the margin as a guide to the rubricator): abbreviated version of the doubtful "meditationes" of St. Bernard, beg. "Multi multa sciunt et seipsos nesciunt" (Migne, Patr. Lat., clxxxiv. 485), also found as part of the work called Hugonis de S. Victore Liber de Anima (cf. Migne, Patr. Lat., clxxvii. 166). f. 59 b.

10. Theological commonplaces, mainly extracts from the works of SS. Augustine, Jerome, and, particularly, St. Bernard. f. 65. The following items are included:—(a) Verses on confession, beg. "Sit simplex humilis confessio vera fidelis." Cf. Aquinas, Commentum in Lib. iv Sententiarum, Dist. xvii, art. iv, Quaestio iv, Paris ed., 1873, x, p. 512. f. 68;—(b) Verses on the six ages of the world, beg. "Sex uidet etates sex respondere diebus," based upon Bede, Liber de Temporibus, cap. xvi; cf. Migne, Patr. Lat., xc. 288. f. 69;—(c) Four lines on the crucifix, beg. "Aspice pendentem crucifigas in crvce mentem." f. 69;—(d) Reference to a certain Mark who received communion from an angel. f. 69 b;—(e) The verses on the humours from Schola Salernitana (ed. Renzi), ll. 1696–7, 1702–3, 1707–8, 1714–15, beg. "Largus. amans. hilaris. prudens. rubeique coloris." f. 70;—(f) "De monacho": tale of a monk, bishop-elect, who on the journey to his see rests under a tree whose leaves are inscribed "Ave Maria." On inquiry it is discovered that one "bonus Iohannes" formerly lived there. The ground is dug and the body discovered with the tree growing through the tongue and mouth. Beg. "Quidam monachus electus in episcopum fuit." This motive of a tree or plant inscribed with "A.M." on the leaves occurs in various tales, e.g. "Saved by learning two words" (cf. Jacobus de Voragine, Legenda Aurea, ed. Graesse, p. 221, Ward, Cat. of Romances, ii, p. 654); "Poor clerk who died during an interdict" (cf. Vie des Anciens Pères (A. 14), J. A. Herbert, Cat. of Romances, iii, p. 342; Add. MS. 30512, f. 33 b, contains a tale in Irish which is apparently a mixture of "Saved by two words" and the "Clerk of Chartres," cf. R. Flower, Catalogue of Irish MSS. in the British Museum, ii, p. 485. Mussafia, op. cit., ii, p. 91, cites, from a MS. at Florence, Bibl. Laurent., Conventi Soppressi (Camaldoli) 747. D. 3, a tale of one who said "A. M." diligently and dying on a journey was buried by the wayside, from his mouth grew a tree with leaves inscribed "A. M.)." f. 70 b ;—(g) Description of the origin of the Letania major (25 Apr.) ; cf. Vita S. In course of time the Virgin appears to a priest bidding him warn the woman of her approaching death. He goes, and finds that the rod has flowered. f. 71 ;—(i) Note on the Institution of the Rogation Days by St. Mamertus, Bishop of Vienne ; cf. Legenda Aurea, ed. cit., pp. 313–14. f. 71 b.

Rechts*, i, pp. 199–205). Printed by A. Wunderlich, Tancredi Summa de Matrimonio, 1841. Beg. "In omnibus causis quilibet suo iuri renunciare ualeat absque peccato." f. 72.

Vellum (ff. i, ii, iv paper) ; ff. iv + 83. 7⅜ in. × 5⅜ in. Written in a variety of hands, possibly in N. Switzerland, XIII cent. Gatherings mainly of 8 leaves (iv^{6} ; vii^{4} ; viii^{2}, 1 cancelled ; x^{12} ; xi^{12}). Initials of flourished penwork in red and blue. On f. iii is a fragment of a 15th cent. document relating to the parish church of "Amerswilr" [? Amriswyl, in Thurgau]. Owned in the 20th cent. by George Neilson, LL.D., of Glasgow (signature, f. i). 41070. LEGENDARY, in Latin, compiled in alphabetic order by Johannes Aegidii, Franciscan of Zamora (fl. 1280), and stated by the author in the prologue to be excerpted for the convenience of the friars from his more voluminous work entitled "Historia canonica et civilis." See G. Cirot, De operibus historicis Iohannis Aegidii Zamorensis, 1913, pp. 15, 57, who knows the legendary only from the notice in J. a S. Antonio, Bibliotheca Universalis Franciscana, ii, 1732, p. 117, of a copy then in possession of J. M. Pantoja. The opening rubric runs : "Incipiunt legende sanctorum et festiuitatum aliarum de quibus ecclesia solle[m]pnizat, quas frater Iohannes Egidij doctor fratrum minorum Zamorensium compilauit secundum ordinem alphabeti, ut artificialius scribantur, subtilius [habe]antur, facilius inueniantur, forcius imprimantur, diucius et indelebilius retineantur et custodiantur." The prologue begins : "Almifluus eterni patris filius," and is followed by a list of ten tituli in double column for the letter A from "Aduentus Christi in carnem ystoria" to "Assumpcionis virginis in celum ystoria." Text beg. "Aduentus almiflui dei filii."

The transition to the letter B is worded (f. 86 b): " Expliciunt legende ab ista litera .a. incipientes. Et incipiunt ab hac litera .b. inchoantes quorum tituli sunt huiuscemodi qui sequntur," and this formula is repeated between each letter. Part of the legend of St. Hildefonsus, from " Aldeffonsi beatissimi " to " gutur tumidum et inflatum " (ff. 18–25) is printed from a Madrid MS. by F. Fita as " Traslación é invención del cuerpo de San Ildefonso " in Boletín de la Real Academia de la Historia, Madrid, vi, 1885, pp. 60–71, including a section (§ 21) which does not occur in the present MS. Among the saints Dominic, abbot of Silos, is given (f. 174), but no account of the founder of the Dominicans. Authorities are seldom quoted by name, Guillaume d'Auxerre (d. 1230) on f. 279 and John Beleth on f. 345 b being exceptions.

Vellum; ff. ii + 465. 7¼ in. × 5 in. XIV cent. Gatherings of 12 or 16 leaves (last^{14}) with catchwords. Sec. fol. " [innuen]dum ecclesia." Page of 25–28 lines. A leaf is missing after f. 291 with the end of St. Lucy and the beginning of St. Mark, and St. Ypolitus breaks off imperfectly at the end of the last gathering. Initials in red and blue, flourished. At f. 285 b a later hand, commenting on the words: " Campanas pulsamus ut demones cuncti territi fugiant," has added in the margin the verses:

> Sex in campana dicuntur comoda sana. post
> Laudo deum verum. voco populum. congrego clerum.
> Satanam fugo. defunctos ploro. festaque decoro.

For the last two lines, quoted in the Tractatus primus de Canticis of Jean Charlier de Gerson, Opera, ed. 1706, vol. iii, 628, cf. the variants collected by H. Otte, Glockenkunde, 1884, p. 126. Bookplate (crest and monogram) of Mitchell Henry, M.P., of Kylemore Castle, co. Galway, and Stratheden Ho., Knightsbridge (f. i), and on f. ii the names J. A. Neilson and Geo. Neilson.

41137. "EIRENARCHA: or, the Justice of Peace," by William Lambarde: an early holograph draft referred to as the "Module" in the Epistle Dedicatorie to the first printed edition, 158½. Dated, on the title page (f. 1), August 1579—the month in which Lambarde was first placed on the Commission of the Peace for Kent—and there described as "diuided into fowre (substituted for three) bookes." The table of contents (ff. 2, 2 b), however, is complete only for Books i and ii. In the case of book iii, the original summary of contents, "What things be enquirable at the Sessions of peace, etc.," has been struck out and replaced by a shorter summary, "What statutes be wthin the auctoritie of the Justices of peace," and a note is appended, "This booke may be contrived in a smalle volume of the statutes at Large: or otherwise it may be marked out in the Abridgement of the statutes w^{ch} M^{r} Jhon Tyndal hath done," but the original title remains in the body of the text (f. 69). For book iv, the table originally stated "This last booke conteyneth (altered to should conteyne) onlie, certein selected precedentz concerning the affaires by and before Justices of y^{e} peace." The suggested book is, however, omitted in the MS. On f. 10 is the initialled note, "This treatise first Vndertaken for my private Instruction, emboldened the attempt and publishing of the Emprinted Eirenarcha," and other notes concerning the various editions between 158½ and 1594 occur on f. 1. The first two books of the present MS. contain respectively seventeen and twelve chapters, comprising roughly the material, though in different order, of the twenty-five and twenty-one chapters of the 1582 edition, for which the present text was considerably revised, expanded, and, in some cases, entirely recast (see note on f. 2 b). Book iii of the MS. seems never to have been printed as drafted, but the substance of much of the discussion and of many of the Statutes contained in it has been incorporated in book ii, ch. iv, of the 1582 edition, viz. "of the Articles that are to bee giuen in charge at the Sessions of the Peace." It is quite different from book iii of the edition of 1588 and subsequent editions, in which the first three books are a recasting and expansion of the original books i and ii, and the fourth book, "The Description of the Sessions of the Peace," is an addition. In it, passages made obsolete by recent enactments have been cancelled, and, at the end, additions made in connection with new legislation up to and including the Statute 35 Eliz. c. 7. An index to subjects of the Eirenarcha is given on f. 193. For a further description of the MS. see Miss B. H. Putnam, "The Earliest Form of Lambard's 'Eirenarcha,'" in Engl. Hist. Review, xli, 1926, p. 260.

Included also in the volume are the following articles, added later on blank leaves at the beginning and end:—(a) List of the Hundreds of co. Kent by lathes, with the names of the Commissioners of the Subsidy granted by the Statute 29 Eliz. c. 8 (Statutes of the Realm, iv, p. 778), 1587, and indications of the Commissioners of 1589. f. 4;—(b) "Rates of Wages assessed the[re] for all manner of Artificers, Servantes, and Labourers, by the Taske, day, yeare, etc.": wage assessment for co. Kent, originally fixed in execution of the Statute 5 Eliz. c. 4 (S.R., iv, p. 414). A note at the end (f. 173 b) states that the rates "haue bene yearly Certified into the Chauncerye, synce · 5° · Elizab. Reg: wthout any chaunge; and doe stand now · 24 · June · 31 · Eliz. [1589]." Printed by Miss Putnam, loc. cit., pp. 270–273. f. 171;—(c) "Ordinances for the house of Correction at Maydstone, agreed vpon by the Justices of the .p. etc. at the Easter Sessions of the peace . . . to be putt in Execution wthin the Lathes of Aylesford and Sutton at Hone," 25 Eliz. [1583], followed (f. 180) by the assessment on the parishes within those lathes for the "gaole money" towards its upkeep, 1583. At the end of the latter (f. 181 b) is the note, "Alle this assesse is chaunged, by occasion of the Statute 35 · El · Reg. ca. 4," and a later one, "But it was afterwardes restoared, bycause the gaole was not well provided for wthout it." This is followed (f. 182) by the new weekly assessment for the gaol money in the same lathes and for the relief of maimed and disabled soldiers for the whole county rated at Canterbury midsummer quarter-sessions, 1593, in accordance with the Act of 35 Eliz. c. 4 (S.R., iv, p. 847). f. 175;—(d) Collection of five precedents for the Peace. f. 191 b.

Paper; ff. iii + 196. Quarto. A.D. 1579 (with additions to 1600). Contemporary binding of boards covered with brown leather, stamped on both covers with an oval stamp. On the back cover is the note, in a seventeenth century hand: "Fiscus papalis 1621. by a catholique divine," referring to the 1621 edition of William Crashaw's translation of the work of that title published in London. The manuscript remained in the possession of the Lambarde family until 1924 (bookplate on f. 1), when it was sold at the sale of William Gore Lambarde, of Bradbourne Hall, Sevenoaks (Hodgson's sale-cat., 19 June 1924, lot 514).

41156–41158. Motets, etc., for three voices, and string trios, by English and Continental composers of the 16th and early 17th centt. The MSS. probably issue from the same source as Add. MSS. 29388–29392 (motets, etc., for six voices) and Egerton MSS. 2009–2012 (madrigals, etc., for five voices), to which they bear a close resemblance in format, ruling and, in parts, script. Certain of the motets were originally composed for four or more voices; but of some of them only those portions are given here which were confined to three of the voices. It is therefore more probable that all the compositions in these MSS. are adapted as three-voice settings than that volumes containing other voices are missing. The compositions are anonymous; those identified are by Cristobal Morales (f. 4 b), William Byrde (ff. 12–17, 19), John Taverner (vols. I–III, ff. 20, 21, 24, 24 b; vols. I and II, f. 21 b, vol. III, f. 22), Robert White (f. 21 b [no. 1]), Thomas Tallis (ff. 22 b–23 b), Tomás Luis de Victoria [Vittoria] (ff. 26 b–28, 45 b), Robert Johnson (f. 32 b), Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (f. 34 b), Joannes Chaynee al. Chainee (f. 38 b), Jacques Regnart (f. 41), Michael Deiss (ff. 42 b, 44 b), Joannes Deslins (f. 43 b), Jacob Vaet (ff. 47 b–48 b, 53 b–55) and Luca Marenzio (f. 49). Three volumes, containing respectively the Cantus (vol. I), Altus (vol. II) and Bassus (vol. III).

Paper; ff. ii + 56, iv + 56, ii + 56. Early xvii cent. Oblong octavo. At the beginning and end of vol. II (ff. i, iii) are small fragments of leaves from a 14th cent. service-book; while on ff. i, ii of vols. I and III are offsets of fragments of the same book removed prior to the acquisition of the MSS. Bindings of brown leather stamped, similar to those of Add. MSS. 29388–29392 (see above). Sotheby's sale-cat., 17 July 1924, lot 186.

41159. Survey of forfeited estates in cos. Louth (ff. 1–8) and Meath (ff. 9–170 b), made in 1700 for the Trustees of Forfeited Estates appointed under the Act of William III "for granting an Aid to His Majesty by Sale of the Estates and Interests forfeited in Ireland by the Rebellion of 1688." The estates were sold and conveyed by the Trustees in 1702 and 1703 (cf. the accompts of the sale of forfeitures in co. Dublin in Add. MS. 15973). In their report dated 27 Nov. 1703 (a copy in Add. MS. 17774) the Trustees state that they have delivered up all records, etc., relating to the forfeited estates except such as were necessary to perfect their accompts and the Books of Survey which "not being compleat at our leaving Ireland we thought it for the public service to continue in the hands of the Surveyor for that purpose" (f. 3). For an account of the Commission and its documents see the Reports of the Irish Record Commissioners, 2nd Rep., pp. 145–149; 8th Rep., pp. 334–352;

15th Rep., pp. 348–399. For maps of forfeited estates made for the Trustees in cos. Leitrim, Mayo and Sligo in 1701 see Add. MS. 14405.

Paper; ff. i + 170. Folio. A.D. 1700. Original vellum binding. Sotheby's sale-cat., 17 July 1924, lot 216.

41160. YEAR-BOOKS, 1–9 Edw. III, in French; beginning, like most of the MSS., at Easter 1 Edw. III (Harley MS. 739, f. 44, is entitled "Terminus Hillarij vacat: De termino Pasche anno primo"). The reports for Mich. 5 Edw. III are wanting, and those for Mich. 4 Edw. III, Trin. 5 Edw. III and Mich. 9 Edw. III are defective. As in Add. MS. 25184, East. and Trin. 2 Edw. III are combined. Three cases on ff. 36, 36 b are repeated on ff. 38, 39 b. There are many variations, in some terms wide enough to indicate complete independence of source, but more often merely of arrangement and wording, from the printed editions (1562, 1596, 1679), which appear to derive from a text somewhat akin in type to Harley MS. 3636. Other reports covering the same period are:—Harley MSS. 739, ff. 44—290 b (East. and Trin. 1—Mich. 9 Edw. III), 740, ff. 8–247 b (Hil. (sic) 1—Mich. 9 Edw. III), 3626, ff. 1–159 b (Trin. 3—Mich. 9 Edw. III), 3636, ff. 1–223 b (Mich. 1—Mich. 9 Edw. III), 3283, ff. 41–135 (East. 1—East. 4 Edw. III), 5012, ff. 32–98 (Hil. 4—Mich. 5, Hil.—Mich. 7 Edw. III); Add. MSS. 12270 (1–10 Edw. III; arranged by subjects, not by terms), 16560, ff. 121–226 (Hil. 3—Mich. 4, Hil. 7—Trin. 9 Edw. III), 24063, ff. 26–93 (Mich. 1—East. 4, Mich. 5, Trin.—Mich. 7 Edw. III), 25183, ff. 117–162 (Mich. 4—Hil. 6 Edw. III), 25184, ff. 1–146 (East. 1—Mich. 7 Edw. III), 25185, ff. 2–27 b (Hil.—Mich. 9 Edw. III), 34789, ff. 2–13 (Hil.—Trin. 5 Edw. III), 35095, ff. 16–69 (East. 1—East. 4 Edw. III). Perhaps the most nearly related of these MSS. is Add. 25184, but the reports of some terms differ widely, e.g. Mich. 4, Hil. 6—Hil. 7 Edw. III; except in Trin. 3, Hil.—Trin. 5, and Mich. 7 Edw. III, there is also considerable agreement between the present text and Harl. 3626. The volume appears to have been made up of three separate parts, comprising respectively the years 1–4 (ff. 1–84), 5 (ff. 85–97), 6–9 (ff. 98–205). This would explain (a) the gaps at the end of the fourth and fifth years, (b) the changes of hand at the same points (though there are other changes, cf. f. 45), (c) the exceptional divergence of the reports for 5 Edw. III from the norm (they are unlike those of any MS. except Add. 25184, ff. 71 sqq.). Each of the years 1–6 Edw. III bears a separate (15th cent.) foliation. Marginal notes (14th and 15th centt.) throughout, one hand of the (? mid) 14th century occurring in all three parts of the MS.

Vellum (paper fly-leaves, with watermarks); ff. 205. 14¼ in. × 9¾ in. Mid XIV cent. Gatherings of 12 leaves, with catchwords; a gathering is missing after f. 84, and a further lacuna occurs after f. 97 (this leaf, the first of a quire, has been added to the ensuing gathering). Sec. fol. " le scire facias." Several leaves at the beginning have been injured by damp. Fragments (preserved separately) of a 16th cent. binding of beech boards, one retaining part of its original covering of brown leather with roll-tooled borders of renaissance ornament and a portion of one brass hasp. Sotheby's sale-cat., 29 July 1924, lot 169A.

41161. MEMOIRS of Ann Fanshawe, wife of Sir Richard Fanshawe, 1st Bart. (1608–1666), written for the instruction of her son Richard, 2nd Bart. (1665–1694). Transcribed (according to a statement in Lady Fanshawe's hand on f. 1 b) in May 1676, with corrections, additions and deletions by the author (readings of the deleted passages have been supplied in a modern hand on inserted slips). The memoirs end incompletely (f. 119 b) with a reference to the stoppage of payments from the Exchequer on 2 Jan. 1672 (here misdated St. Stephen's Day [i.e., 26 Dec.] 1671). First printed, from an inaccurate transcript by Miss Coleman, great-grand-daughter of the author, by Sir Harris Nicholas, 1829, 1830, and afterwards from the present MS., then in the possession of Evelyn John Fanshawe of Parsloes, by H. C. Fanshawe, 1907. For an account of the MS. and its existing copies see the edition last cited, App. I, p. 221. After the Memoirs there follow, in Lady Fanshawe's hand, (1) Two prayers, one used in the Embassy chapel in Portugal [1662–3], the other in the Embassy chapel [in Madrid] after Sir Richard Fanshawe's death [1666]. Printed, ed. 1907, p. 212. f. 121;—(2) "The Isue (sic) of S^r Richard Fanshawe and Ann his wife," down to October 1659, later children being added in pencil by a modern hand. 41162. MACCHIAVELLI'S Discorsi sopra la prima Deca di Tito Livio, translated into English by John Leuytt, whose preface is dated "Purleigh this 7th of September, 1599." There are two prefaces, prefixed respectively to the first and second books, the first (f. 1) headed "The Translator to the freindly Reader", beg. "I am not ignorant (freindly Reader) that euen all men generally seeme to condemne, & abhorre the very name of Matchiauell (although peraduenture many of them more in their words than in their liues, & actions)", the second (f. 51) headed "The Epistle of the Translator to the Reader", beg. "Friendly Reader, I make no doubt but that many will charge mee with very great presumption." In these prefaces the translator explains that he did the work at the request of a friend who knew no Italian and to increase his own proficiency in that language, with no intention of publication. The translation begins with the author's preface, beg. "Considering with my selfe what great honour is giuen vnto Antiquity." The translator probably used the 1584 edition of the Discorsi, with the forged imprint Heredi d'Antoniello degli Antonielli, Palermo, really printed in London by John Wolfe (cf. H. Sellers, "Italian Books printed in England before 1640," The Library, Ser. iv, vol. 5, p. 111), the Museum copy of which (pressmark, 587.b.9. (1.)) belonged to Lord Burleigh. The first printed English version of the Discorsi is that of E. Dacres, 1636.

Charles Forster in Thirty Years' Correspondence, between John Jebb . . . and Alexander Knox, 1834. Forster omits many letters and passages of purely private interest, and usually reduces proper names to initials. The addresses of the letters are often pasted down, but can be read through the paper. Included also are:—(a) An unfinished letter of Knox [to the Rev. Henry Woodward], advising him on his attitude to Methodists; 20 Mar. 1805. Vol. I, ff. 65–80;—(b) Reflections [by Knox] on 2 Tim. iii. 15; circ. 1803. The first has been printed in the form in which it was delivered to the Dublin Association on 27 Jan. 1803, and the last appears in Jebb's Practical Theology, i, pp. 93–116. Vol. III, ff. 29–34, 57–64, 148–152;—(d) The Song of Moses, a translation [by Jebb] of Deut. xxxii; 1 Jan. 1810. Printed in Forster, Life of John Jebb, i, pp. 457–462. Vol. III, ff. 231–232 b.

The tenants-at-will (f. 1) and freeholders (f. 12 b) of Holme-on-Spalding-Moor are given separately, the arrangement otherwise being territorial. Notes of bonds for fines entered into with Sebastian Gabriell, William Lambard, the bailiff, etc., by most of the tenants-at-will with leases of eight years and under, and also of later payments by them, have been made in the margin, at various times, in a different hand, during the years immediately following the date of the rental. The rents and fines of tenants-at-will with leases of eight years and upwards have been listed on f. 17, and an accompt of Sebastian Gabriell's indebtedness to the lord of the manor, in connection with the above-mentioned bonds, 18 Jan. $158\frac{0}{1}$, is given on f. 19. On f. 18 is a list of covenants,

A volume of Russel's letters, edited by his father as Letters from a Young Painter Abroad (1747 ?), was revised and republished, with the addition of a second volume, in 1750. Much of the present correspondence relates to this new edition. A receipt subscription form for the work, *SS. 41174. MISSAL of Lyons use. The text is in substantial agreement with that of Missale ad vsum Lugdunensis ecclesie, 1510 (the earliest printed missal of this diocese in the British Museum); it also reproduces some of the peculiarities of the rite described by Dom Buenner in Compte-Rendu of the Sixth National Eucharistic Congress, Lyons, July 1927, pp. 76–109, such as (a) the inclusion in the Ordinary (f. 127 b) of the ancient "Oratio ante altare: Deus qui non mortem" (Buenner, p. 93), and (b) the insertion (ff. 12, 138 b, 168 b) in the Agnus Dei of the antiphon "Ad Eucharistiam: Venite populi" (Chevalier, Repert. Hymnol., 21307) on high festivals, here, as in the printed missal (f. ix b), set out at length on Christmas Day (Buenner, p. 106). Contents:—

Wilson, Henry Bradshaw Soc., 1915), is as follows:—Temporale, second Sund. in Advent (two leaves are wanting at the beginning)—eighth Sund. after Christmas, incorporating SS. Vellum; ff. i + 272. 10$\frac{3}{4}$ in. × 7$\frac{1}{4}$ in. Early xv cent. Gatherings of 8 leaves (i wants 1, 2; xvii^{6}, 1 cancelled; xviii^{4}; last wants 8), with catchwords. Contemporary foliation in red, omitting the number 'Ciiij^{xx} vj,' and leaving the quire containing the Prefaces (ff. 132–137) unnumbered. Coarse illuminated initials, some with partial borders (ff. 11, 31, 91, 129, 138, 145, 162, 167 b, 175 b, 220, 223, 235, 246); other initials in red and blue, with pen-work.

41175. THE GOSPELS of St. Matthew and St. Mark in the earlier Wycliffite version, with gloss by an author calling himself in his prologue to St. Matthew "a symple creature" and identified as John Purvey by Margaret Deanesly, The Lollard Bible, 1920, pp. 275–280. What appear to be the remaining glosses of the series, that on

St. Luke by " a pore caityf " and that on St. John by " a symple creature of God," are preserved, the first in Bodleian MSS. 143 (1913), 243 (1933), and Cambridge University Library MS. Kk. II. 9, the second in the above-mentioned Bodl. MS. 243 and in MS. B.1.38 of Trinity College, Cambridge (no. 36 in the catalogue by M. R. James, vol. i, 1900). The gloss on St. Mark, which lacks a prologue, is known only from the present copy; that on St. Matthew is extant also in the above-named Trinity College MS. Another gloss on St. Matthew, by " a synful caytif," which is found in Add. MS. 28026 and in the Bodleian MS. Laud. Misc. 235, has been equated with the present gloss by Deanesly, op. cit., p. 456, but the two, in spite of similarities, are quite distinct works. The gloss is written, in smaller characters, alternately with the translation, each section of the latter being followed by the gloss on it. The contents are :—

1. " Þe prologe of þe schorte exposicioun on Matheu," beg. " Þe holi goost seiþ bi þe profete Sacarie." Ends " þat scheddist þi preciouse blood for þe loue of mennis soulis : graunte þis ende amen." In parts the text resembles the wording of the prologue to the St. Luke gloss printed from Bodl. MS. 143 in Forshall and Madden's edition of the Wycliffite Bible, vol. i, 1850, p. ix. f. 1 b.
2. St. Matthew's Gospel, closely agreeing with the peculiar OU text of Forshall and Madden. Beg. " The book of generacioun of Ihesu Crist : þe sone of Dauiþ · þe sone of Abraham." Gloss beg. " Þe book : þis book is as a schoppe of graces." Gloss ends (f. 103) " Pope Leo in a sermoun of þe lordis passioun. Here endiþ þe schorte exposicioun on Matheu : blessid be þe holy trinete amen." f. 2.
3. St. Mark's Gospel, with the same peculiarities as the UV text of Forshall and Madden and some unrecorded readings of its own, e.g. " reparelynge " for " makynge " in i. 19 (f. 106 b) and " ȝaf " for " puttide " in xii. 1 (f. 138). Beg. " Þe bigynnyng of þe gospel of Ihesu Crist : þe sone of god." Gloss beg. " Gospel : þe gospel is seid a good tellyng." Gloss ends (f. 164) " and þis sufficiþ ynow to resonable men. Here endiþ þe schorte exposicioun on Mark· blessid be þe hooli trynete amen." f. 105.

The glosses are drawn chiefly from the major Church fathers, either directly or through Aquinas and other commentators, but the specific Lollard intention appears most plainly in the long extracts against ecclesiastical abuses taken from " þe worþi clerk Grosted þat was bischop of Lyncolñ sumtyme " (so called in the gloss on Mk. ix. 49, f. 128) and from " Parisience " i.e. the Dominican Guillaume Pérault, to whose Summa Virtutum ac Vitiorum the present commentator is much indebted. Both were favourite authors with Wycliffe and his followers (cf. J. Loserth, Johann von Wiclif und Guilelmus Peraldus, 1916, and J. von Wiclif und Robert Grosseteste, 1918, in the Sitzungs- berichte of the Vienna Academy, Philosophisch-historische Klasse, vols. 180, 186). "Ardmacam," i.e. Richard Fitzralph, Archbishop of Armagh, is quoted once (f. 136) on Mk. xi. 17, and "Abuyle," i.e. Johannes Algrinus de Abbavilla (al. Abbatisvilla, Abbeville in France), is cited on i. 3 and elsewhere in St. Mark. Among the glosses on Mk. xiii. 27 is one subscribed (f. 147 b) "Y foond þis in a deuoute sermoun prechid late in Oxenforde."

Vellum; ff. v + 164. 14¼ in. × 9½ in. Circ. A.D. 1400. The similar Bodl. MS. 243 with the glosses on St. Luke and St. John is perhaps a companion volume. Double columns of 60, occasionally 61, lines in the smaller (gloss) script. Gatherings of 8 leaves (xiii^6, last^4); an additional leaf with the prologue is prefixed to the first gathering, and a similar leaf to St. Mark, but left blank. Catchwords and signatures, the latter commencing afresh with St. Mark. A small historiated initial with symbol of the evangelist and full bar border on the first page of each Gospel. The first recorded owner's name occurs in three forms, viz. "H. B." on f. 1 b, "Orate pro anima domini Hugonis Blyth" on f. 2, repeated, with omission of "domini," at the end of St. Mark on f. 164; this is perhaps the Hugh Blyth, rector of Roding Abbess, co. Essex, who died in 1455. Three further inscriptions, all on f. 1, are as follows:—(1) "Pray for the Soule of Maister John Crowlond [d. 1493] ffelowe of the Quenes College of Cambrigge and person of South Wokyngton [Ockendon] in Essex, Gyver of this boke";—(2) "Memorandum quod Maiester Galfridus Downes vult quod liber iste post mortem Maiestri Jacobi Downes donetur capelle de Potte &c. in commitatu Schropschyrre," the last three words in a later hand. This Geoffrey Downes must doubtless be identified with the fellow of Queens', 1490–1494, and with the founder, by his will of 7 June 1492, of the chantry chapel of Pott Shrigley in Cheshire (not Shropshire, as the note erroneously states), for which Crowlond seemingly gave his book as an endowment. For an account of this foundation see J. P. Earwaker, East Cheshire, ii, 1880, pp. 325–332, with important extracts from the will, and G. Ormerod, The History of Cheshire, iii, 1882, pp. 773–774. James is apparently the brother of Geoffrey (see genealogy in Ormerod, iii, p. 775) and rector of Wickham Breux in Kent (will, 1529), for whom see under Geoffrey Downes, D.D., in Venn, Alumni Cantabrigienses;—(3) ". . . (name erased) mutuo accepit a magistro Grylls quondam socio in Collegio Exoniensi cui Collegio liber iste restituatur." William Grylles was fellow of Exeter College, Oxford, from 1541 to 1551. With the volume are bound a note on it by W[illiam] D[unn] Macray and two letters of Margaret Deanesly. Presented by Harold Arthur [Lee-Dillon, 17th] Viscount Dillon, whose bookplate of arms is on f. i.

41176. MAP of the tithe-wards of North Frith and Town Ward, etc., in the parish of Tonbridge, co. Kent, shewing the different holdings and their acreage; surveyed by R. Budgen, 1757. The tithes are stated to belong to Fraser Honywood Esq. (for his connection with the Honywood family see Hasted's Kent, vol. ii, p. 218, and J. C. Nichols, Topographer and Genealogist, vol. ii, pp. 139–192).

Vellum and paper; ff. 161. 10⅞ in. × 8⅛ in. xv cent. (the watermark, an anchor, no. 449 in Briquet, Les Filigranes, is found from A.D. 1450 onwards). Gatherings of 12 leaves, with catchwords, the outer and inner leaves of each gathering being vellum. A double leaf has disappeared from the first gathering, causing gaps after f. 4 and f. 6, while an extra leaf (f. 31) has been inserted in the third gathering to remedy a skip. Lines to the page, 32–39. The original numeration of pages and gatherings has been damaged by cropping. Blank spaces for rubrics and initials at the beginning of each Life have been left unfilled, but an original table of contents appears on f. 1. The word "Especialment," written as a catchword on f. 1 and repeated at the top of f. 2, appears to be a direction to the rubricator. The sound of l mouillée is represented by lh, e.g. "fille," written "filhe." Lot 891 at the Pearson sale (Sotheby's, 8–12 Dec. 1924).

41180. Canons, and Stichera for Vespers, in Greek. The MS., which is arranged, like the Parakletike, by weeks according to the eight ἦχοι or modes, is very imperfect, the first, seventh and eighth weeks being entirely lacking and none of the other weeks complete. Textually it differs considerably from the printed versions of the Parakletike. Many of the Canons are addressed to the Virgin. The two canons and portions of a third, in honour of the Trinity, by Metrophanes of Smyrna, for the third, fourth, and sixth modes, found at ff. 21, 42, 74 also occur in Add. MS. 29715, ff. 206, 208, 212 b. Followed (ff. 92, 93) by two consecutive leaves from a Gospel book of earlier (11th–12th cent.) date, containing Luke vii. 40—viii. 16, with notes for the lectionary in red.

Vellum; ff. 93. 6⅞ in. × 5½ in. xii–xiii cent. Written in at least three hands. Imperfect, as above. Gatherings originally of 8 leaves, but many indeterminate, signatures, θ and ι̅α̅, on ff. 34 b, 40. The double accent occurs very occasionally on δέ and μέν. Initials in red. Scribbles in a modern hand occur on ff. 92, 93.

41181. "Directions Leading a well willing soule by a facill and easie way to Perfection . . . composed by the R^{d} Fa^{r} A[ugustine] B[aker] of the holy order of S Bennet": a compendium of (1) "The Summary of Perfection"; (2) "Instructions for the right and profitable use of mental Prayer" (a revised version of Baker's "Directions for the Ideots Devotions," similar to Ampleforth MS. 146, which was copied in 1656 from an exemplar dated 1645); (3) selections from "The Ideots Devotions." The history and MSS. of these works are discussed by Dom Justin McCann in Ampleforth Journal, vol. xxxiv, 1929, pp. 135–150 (on "The Ideots Devotions"); Life of Father Augustine Baker, Appendix II, pp. 183–4, 197–8; Memorials of Father Augustine Baker, Catholic Record Society, vol. 33, pp. 274–293. The contents are as follows:—

1. "A Summarie of Perfection," consisting of:—(a) "A Preparatiue to the ensueing Sumary," f. 4; (b) "The Summarie of Perfection Consisting of tenne Articles," f. 5; (c) "An Advertisment Vpon the foresaid Treatis," f. 12.

2. "Instrvctions for the right and pofitable (sic) vse of Mentall Prayer," consisting of:—(a) "The Preface to the Reder," f. 17; (b) "Certain obseruations for the Reader abut (sic) the vse of this booke," f. 21 b; (c) "Instructions for the right vse of the Acts or exercise of imperfect Loue," f. 23; (d) "How one is to behaue himselfe in time of Desolation & Aridtie (sic)," f. 42; (e) "Instrvctions for the right vse and vnderstanding of the exercises of Resignation," f. 53; (f) "Certaine Obseruations concerning the desires or Affections of the perfect Loue of God," f. 73; (g) "Of Proper Aspirations," f. 78; (h) "Of the Excellencie of Praer. Expressed by a deuout writer," f. 86.

3. "The Acts Affections or Desires of the Will," consisting of:—(a) "The Acts of the first sort which are Affections or Desires. Of the Imperfect soule," f. 90; (b) "The Actes of the Second Sorte which are Affections or Desires of The perfect Loue," f. 124; (c) "The Acts of the Third sorte: which are of Resignation," f. 127; (d) "Certaine Choise Aspirations according to the former Instructions," f. 153; (e) "Soliloqvies which are Amorous speakings of yᵉ soule to her selfe," f. 155 b; (f) "A Patterne of Acts which a soule may exercise towards God as Absent," f. 160; (g) "A Patterne of some speakings supposed to be made by God to a sowle," f. 163 b.

Paper; ff. xxix + 164. Octavo. Mid XVII cent. Binding of limp vellum, probably not original, as the leaves have been shorn. Two fragments from the Commune Sanctorum of a 13th cent. Gradual, taken from the binding, are preserved at the beginning (ff. ii, iii). On ff. 2 b, 3 are the signatures "Hen: Ben: Hall" and "Henry Hall" respectively; the latter may be Henry, son of William Hall, of Highmeadow, co. Glouc. (d. 1644), in which case the date of the MS. is fixed between 1638, when "The Summary of Perfection" was composed, and 1644; the former is almost certainly his nephew Henry Benedict, son of Benedict Hall (d. 1684). Henry Benedict Hall's mother and two sisters entered the Benedictine nunnery at Cambrai, hence it is highly probable that the manuscript, like so many copies of Baker's works, was written there; and since his granddaughter Benedicta Maria Theresa married Thomas, 1st Viscount Gage, it is to be presumed that, like 41182 (q.v.), it passed into the possession of the latter. For these members of the Hall family see S. Rudder, Hist. of Gloucestershire, pp. 569, 690; Bennet Weldon, English Benedictine Congregations: Chronological Notes, pp. 210–211; H. N. Birt, Obit-book of the English Benedictines, pp. 215, 221. Descriptions by Dom Justin McCann of Ampleforth MS. 146 and of Newport Public Libraries MS. $\frac{\mathrm{M.120}}{012}$ (the best MS. of the "Directions for the Ideots Devotions"), with copies of two letters, are bound in at the beginning. Bought at Puttick's with 41182 (sale-cat., 4 Feb. 1925, lot 197).

41182. Two Latin Plays, of unknown authorship, viz.:—(1) "Canutus Magno Maior, Siue Innocentia de Ambitione Victrix": a dramatised account of the end of Canute IV, King of Denmark, based, according to the Argument (f. 2), on "Hermoldus" [i.e. Helmoldus, Cronica Slavorum], c. 51, and Saxo Grammaticus, lib. 13. Written in iambic trimeters. Beg. "Heu lacrimos (l. lacrimosos) Martis inuisi iocos," ends "Quicunque scandit Magnus, hic minor cadet." f. 1;—(2) An allegorical piece, entitled "Clearchus Furens Siue Peccator omnis tortor immanis sui." Beg. "Quies, o inquieta! heu fluctuo dubio natat," ends "Peccator omnis Tortor Immanis Sui." Chiefly in iambic trimeters, with choral interludes. The colophon reads "Ad Maiorem Dei, Deiparæ, S$^{\text{tæ}}$que Eulaliæ V: M: Gloriam." A note on f. 54, "Desunt Nonnulla," proves the MS. to be a copy. f. 34.

Paper; ff. iv + 69. Octavo. xvii cent. Printed library-label, a ram passant beneath a Viscount's coronet (probably Viscount Gage, cf. 41181), with number "Case A. Shelf 2.," 18th–19th cent. (f. i). Bought at Puttick's with 41181 (see above).

41183. Treatise on the Sovereignty of the Kings of England down to the reign of James I, by a royalist lawyer, beg. "The Kingdome of England first began & was founded." The work, which has not been identified, would appear from internal evidence to have been originally compiled after 1647, as there are references (e.g. f. 201 b) to Fleta, first published in that year, while the addition of the words "o^{r} late" above a reference to Charles I on f. 8 b and a passage, also apparently added, on f. 175 b referring to "o^{r} late kinge Charles" suggest a date not later than 1649 for the work itself. Among the authorities quoted are William Camden, Sir Edward Coke, "the late" Hugo Grotius [d. 1645], François Hotman, Andrew Knichen, "Mr. Lambert" [sc. William Lambard], Selden's Titles of Honour, Speed's Chronicle, Sir Henry Spelman, Sir Roger Twysden, Sir Thomas Walsingham, etc. The author, whose apparent object is to show that all benefits enjoyed by the people were ultimately derived from the crown, shows himself throughout to be on the side of the King; he is sympathetic (e.g. f. 142 b) towards King John rather than to his barons and bishops, and in another passage (f. 27) he refers to Henry VIII as "a most wise gallant and glorious King." The MS., which is in several hands, is probably the author's copy, as it is extensively corrected throughout, in some cases in ink over pencil (e.g. f. 129 b); in many instances blanks are left for details (e.g. ff. 5 b, 26, 151 b–152, etc.). The original order of chapters appears to have been changed, and the present arrangement is inconsistent, e.g. Chapter 4 was apparently 6 (f. 71), the words "Parag. 5" being written at the top of f. 71 b; Chapter 5 seems to be made up of two previous chapters, 3 ("3. 2. parte," f. 105) and 4 (f. 141 b); there is no Chapter 6; Chapter 7, which was formerly 9, shows (like Chapter 5) a marked change of hand and has a separate pagination, 1–72, at foot (f. 142); the last chapter (f. 177) is numbered "Sect. 4," and ends imperfectly "Nowe it remayneth in the next place that I shewe how the said Pope & his partie in England accordinge to theire former insolencie & presumption with and against other our saide Kinges did to theire great mischiefe & selfe ruine provoke King H. 8."

Paper; ff. ii + 212 and 50* (f. i is the old vellum wrapper). Quarto. A.D. 1647–1649 (?).

41184, 41185. CORRESPONDENCE of C[harles] C[avendish Fulke] Greville with Henry Reeve; 29 Mar. 1839—[7 Jan. 1865]. Holograph, except for Greville's letter of 29 Apr. 1855 (41184, f. 230), which is a copy by Reeve. Included in the collection are a number of letters from Greville to [Mrs. Henry Baring], 10 Jan. 1842—[21 Mar.] 1862, with one apparently to [Henry] B[aring], [26 Oct. 1836]. The correspondence, which is mainly on political topics, is followed by copies (watermark 1882; lacuna of 5 pages between ff. 381 and 382) of letters exchanged by Greville and Reeve during the period [30 Nov.]—27 Dec. 1845; the originals are all included in the above correspondence, except for 3 letters from Reeve to Greville (16 Dec., [? 20 Dec.; the beginning is lost], 23 Dec.) and one from J. T. Delane to Reeve (6 Dec.). Apart from a letter from Greville to Reeve of 2 Dec. 1846, all these letters have been printed (in some cases with inaccurate or insufficient dates) by the Rev. A. H. Johnson, The Letters of Charles Greville and Henry Reeve 1836–1865, London, 1924. Two vols., viz.:—

41184 (ff. 390). [26 Oct. 1836]—4 Dec. 1846.

41185 (ff. 392). 10 Dec. 1846—[7 Jan. 1865].

Paper. Large quarto. XIX cent. For the history of the collection see Johnson, op. cit., p. xxxi, note i.

41186. LETTERS (19) from Dorothy Wordsworth and other members of the Wordsworth family to Catharine Clarkson, wife of Thomas Clarkson, the anti-slavery philanthropist; June (?) [1803]–May 1838. The topics dealt with are the same as those in the series in Add. MS. 36997, which the present letters supplement. A few extracts from Dorothy's letters are printed by Knight, Letters of the Wordsworth Family, 1907. A postscript by Wordsworth to Dorothy's letter of 22 Apr. [1808] runs (f. 20 b): "Wm Wordsworth in his own handwriting sends his best love to Catharine Clarkson." One letter (f. 27) from Mrs. Clarkson to Dorothy Wordsworth, dated "Xmas day 1814," is included. At f. 35 is a portion of a letter from Mary Wordsworth, wife of the poet, written apparently from Rydal Mount early in May 1838 to Mrs. Clarkson, but addressed (following a direction endorsed upon it) and franked by J[ohn] Rickman, clerk assistant of the House of Commons, from London, 11 May 1838. It contains copies of three sonnets by Wordsworth: "Hark! tis the Thrush, undaunted, undeprest" (dated "Rydal Mount Easter Monday Evening 1838"), "If with old love of you dear hills I share" (dated "May morning 1838 Rydal Mount") and "Life with yon lambs, like day, is just begun" (dated "May-morning 1838"). For these sonnets (first printed in Sonnets of William Wordsworth, 1838) see The Poetical Works of W. Wordsworth, ed. Knight, viii, pp. 93, 95, 97, where variant readings from MS. sources are given. At the end (f. 36) is an undated letter from S[ara] H[utchinson] to Mrs. Clarkson.

Paper; ff. 37. Folio. A.D. [1803]–1838.

41187. "The Compossicion Booke of Conought": transcript by John Moore (f. 126 b), circ. 1700, of the original inquisitions and indentures drawn up for the assessment of the composition of the taxes of Connaught (including co. Clare, then part of Connaught) under Sir John Perrott, Lord Deputy of Ireland (1584–1588), in 1585. The original documents were in the Public Record Office of Ireland and were presumably destroyed in the burning of the Four Courts in 1924. There are two contemporary copies, substantially identical, of an abstract of the Composition in the Public Record Office, London (cf. Cal. of State Papers, Ireland, 1574–1585, p. 582) and in the Carew MSS. at Lambeth Palace, vol. 614, p. 15 sqq. The substance of the Indentures for Connaught (exclusive of co. Clare) was printed from the originals by J. Hardiman, Chorographical Description of West Connaught (Irish Archæological Society, 1846), p. 309, and a complete edition of the present MS. is in preparation (1936) by A. Martin Freeman for the Irish Manuscripts Commission, Dublin.

Paper; ff. i + 126. Folio. Circ. 1700. Binding of boards covered with vellum (the vellum covers preserved). Puttick and Simpson's sale-cat., 25 Mar. 1925, part of lot 218.

41188–41191. Letters of "George Sand" (i.e. Amandine Aurore Lucie Dudevant), 1836–1876, in four volumes, viz. :—

41188, 41189 (ff. 357, 357). Letters (originally 230 in 226 folders; 7 letters and 2 folders now missing) to Charles Poncy of Toulon, worker-poet, or his family; [27] Apr. 1842—15 Aug. 1857, [3 Jan. 1858]—3 Apr. 1876. A certain number have been published in the Correspondance de George Sand, 6 vols., 1882–1884, and many more are quoted by Samuel Rocheblave, "George Sand : Lettres à Poncy," in the Revue des Deux Mondes, lii, 1909, pp. 599–633, 902–934. The collection passed through the hands of Solange Sand, who has added in pencil a variety of comments, often acrid, and Rocheblave has jotted a summary of contents on most of the folders.

41190, 41191 (ff. 210, 215). Letters (241 in all) to her daughter Solange; [1 June 1836]—12 July 1855, 25 July 1855—6 July 1873. Refused by Solange to her brother Maurice for the above-named edition of the Correspondance, and first used to any extent by S. Rocheblave, George Sand et sa Fille, 1905, a reprint of articles in the Revue des Deux Mondes of that year. The letter of 24 Aug. 1852 is a copy by Rocheblave, who also annotates most of the others.

Paper. Quarto. 1836–1876.

Nos. 41192–41194 were purchased at the sale of a further portion of the collection of the 26*th Earl of Crawford* (cf. 41170–41173).

41192. Letters and Papers largely relating to the campaigns of the First French Republic, 14 Pluviose, an 4 [3 Feb. 1796]—16 Apr. 1804; mainly in French. The names of the writers are given in the Index. Among the contents are :—

1. Papers of British naval commanders in the Mediterranean, viz. :—(a) Autograph letters of, and commissions signed by, Admiral Sir John Jervis, Earl of St. Vincent (1797); 20 Apr. 1796—22 July 1798. Jervis's letter of 30 Dec. 1796 (f. 5) speaks disparagingly of Sir Hyde Parker and Rear-Admiral Mann, the latter of whom had recently failed to rejoin the Mediterranean fleet. ff. 1–8;—(b) Letters of [Vice-Admiral] William Waldegrave [Baron Radstock 1800]; 9, 16 Feb. 1796. ff. 9, 10.
2. Three letters from P[hilippa Elizabeth Dorothy, wife of Richard Malone, Baron] Sunderlin to her sister-in-law, Elizabeth, wife of John Rooper, of Berkhampstead Castle, co. Hertf., describing the progress of the Irish rebellion; 29 May—3 Nov. 1798. On f. 15 is the statement: "had the french landed any Body of Troops, the affair could not have been disputed, since it has required our utmost Efforts to preserve ourselves without them." The last letter adversely criticizes Lord Cornwallis's leniency after the suppression of the rebellion. ff. 12–17.

3. Despatch from the French Directoire-Exécutif, signed by [Étienne François Louis Honoré] Le Tourneur, President, and [Lazare Nicolas Marguerite] Carnot, on behalf of the Secretary, to General [Barthélemi Louis Joseph] Schérer, Commander-in-chief of the Army of Italy, modifying the plan of campaign addressed to him on 2 Pluviose and ordering him to take the offensive immediately; Paris, 14 Pluviose, an 4 [3 Feb. 1796]. The despatch is described, from the copy in the Register of the Proceedings of the Directory (Arch. nat., AF 111, 344, dossier 1554), in Recueil des Actes du Directoire (Coll. des Docs. inédits sur l'Hist. de France), 1910, i, p. 539 (cf. also pp. 462–465). Fr. f. 19.
4. Letters to [Antoine Christophe] Saliceti, Commissioner with the French Army of Italy, from:—(a) His colleague François Joseph Ritter, respecting a mutiny at Ormea due to shortage of rations; Nice, 14 Ventose, an 4 [5 Mar. 1796]. Fr. Signed. f. 21;—(b) The Directory, congratulating him on his share in the victory over the Austrians [at Montenotte]; Paris, 4 Floréal, an 4 [23 Apr. 1796]. This letter, which is printed in Recueil des Actes du Directoire, ii, p. 211, is signed by [Étienne François Louis Honoré] Le Tourneur, President, and [Joseph Jean] Lagarde, Secretary of the Directory. Fr. f. 23.
5. Papers relating to the French campaign in Egypt; 4 Complémentaire, an 6 [20 Sept. 1798]—3 Nivose, an 8 [24 Dec. 1799], and one n. d. The writers include É[tienne] Poussielgue, Administrateur-général des Finances de l'Égypte, and the following generals: A[uguste Frédéric Louis Viesse de] Marmont [Duke of Ragusa 1808], [Charles François Joseph] D[ugua], [Jean Louis] E[benezer] Reynier [afterwards Count]. With the exception of Marmont's letter of 16 Floréal, an 7 (f. 44), which is concerned with disturbances in Lower Egypt, the documents deal solely with matters of administration. Fr., etc. ff. 34–54.
6. Papers of General Jean Baptiste Kléber (assassinated 14 June 1800), Commander-in-chief of the French Army in Egypt after Bonaparte's departure (22–23 Aug. 1799); 16 Nivose—27 Prairial, an 8 [6 Jan.—16 June 1800]. ff. 55–62. Included are:—(a) Kléber's despatch to the Directory announcing the conclusion of the Treaty of El Arish (24 Jan. 1800); 10 Pluviose, an 8 [30 Jan. 1800]. Printed (from two different versions) in Le Moniteur universel of 22 Germinal, an 8, and Kléber et Menou (ed. M. F. Rousseau, 1900), p. 213. Fr. Signed draft. f. 58;—(b) Accompt by M[arc] A[ntoine]

Geoffroy [-Château], Chef de Bataillon du Génie, of Kléber's funeral expenses; 27 Prairial, an 8 [16 June 1800]. Fr. f. 62.

7. Papers of Napoléon Bonaparte during his command of the Army of Egypt, viz.:—(a) Proclamation to the inhabitants of Cairo upon the surrender of the city on the day after the Battle of the Pyramids; Giza [Ghizeh], 4 Thermidor, an 6 [22 July 1798]. Printed, with some differences, in Correspondance de Napoléon I, iv (1860), p. 241. Fr. Signed copy. f. 63;—(b) Letters to Contre-Amiral [Honoré Joseph Antonin, afterwards Comte] Ganteaume; Cairo, 28 Thermidor, an 6 [15 Aug. 1798], 19 Pluviose, an 7 [7 Feb. 1799]. The former, congratulating Ganteaume on his escape from the explosion of L'Orient at the Battle of the Nile (1–2 Aug.), is printed ibid., iv, p. 339; the latter orders the equipment of vessels to protect Alexandria from an English blockade. Fr. Signed. ff. 64, 65.

8. Letter from Napoléon Bonaparte, as First Consul, to [Louis Alexandre Berthier, Prince of Neuchâtel 1806 and of Wagram 1809], Minister of War, ordering the immediate despatch of troops to Flushing and the island of Walcheren and the preparation of those places for a state of siege; Paris, 10 Germinal, an 11 [31 Mar. 1803]. Printed ibid., viii, p. 262, with differences. Fr. Signed, the letter being in the hand of Baron Agathon Jean François Fain (cf. Add. MS. 23004). f. 66.

9. Letter from [Major-General] John Moore [K.B. 14 Nov. 1804] to Major [afterwards Lieutenant-General Sir Hudson] Lowe, Corsican Regiment [Royal Corsican Rangers], Malta; Sandgate, 16 Apr. 1804. After referring to Lowe's mission to Portugal, Moore writes: " In our intercourse with Foreign States, we shall be outwitted by the French—which tho' the most profligate & wicked, seems to be the only Government in Europe that possesses much energy, or is directed by great talent—In England certainly, tho' we have had men of abilities, we have not, for many years, had a Great Statesman —at present our views do not extend beyond self defence, and to judge by the deficient manner in which this is executed, we may conclude our rulers wise who do not attempt more—fortunately the difficulties in the way of Invasion are innumerable, and, I suspect, so difficult to surmount, that I doubt if even Bonoparte [sic] will hazard an enterprize, where there is so little prospect of success." This letter is perhaps an answer to a long letter from Lowe, a copy of which is in Add. MS. 20162, f. 16. Other correspondence between Moore and Lowe (chiefly copies) will be found in the following volumes of the Lowe Papers:—Add. MSS. 20107, 20163, 20165, 20166, 20189. f. 68.

41194. REGISTER of general orders issued to the French Army in Egypt; 1 Vendémiaire—5 jour complémentaire, an 7 [22 Sept. 1798—21 Sept. 1799]. Fr. Until 6 Fructidor [23 Aug.] the orders are usually in the name of General [Louis] Alexandre Berthier [afterwards Prince of Neuchâtel and Wagram], Chief of Staff to Napoléon Bonaparte. Extracts from the majority of these (ff. 1–137) have been printed by C. E. L. M. de Taffanel de la Jonquière in L'Expédition d'Egypte (1899–1907), tom. 3–5, passim, clearly from another copy of the register, which is probably preserved amongst the French war archives (cf. ibid., 1, p. 7). Other extracts will be found in Correspondance de Napoléon I, v (1860), passim. Berthier is later replaced by General [François Étienne] Damas, Chief of Staff to the new Commander-in-chief, General J. B. Kléber. The orders were apparently issued in printed form: a signed copy of the first is in a volume of papers concerning the Egyptian campaign, press-mark 1296. h. 12, in the Dept. of Printed Books (cf. also 8825. h. 29, a collection of Egyptian army orders for the succeeding year).

Paper; ff. ii + 152. Folio. Crawford sale-cat. (Sotheby's, 27 Apr. 1925), lot 772.

41195. ITALIAN TRANSLATION of the plays of Terence, in versi sdruccioli, by Gio[vanni] Giustiniano [of Candia]; with a dedicatory preface addressed to Margaret of France, sister of Henry II [Duchess of Savoy 1559], dated 25 Oct. 1549. In the preface to a translation of Cicero, Philippico secondo tradotto in volgare, 1538, addressed to Georges d'Armagnac, Bishop of Rodez and French Ambassador at Venice, Giustiniano mentions having sent him a translation of the comedies of Terence, which the Bishop had had transcribed and presented to Francis I; other copies of this translation were already in private circulation in Venice (E. A. Cigogna, Delle Inscrizioni Venez., iii, p. 368, note). That this translation covered only the Andria and the Eunuchus appears from the preface written by Giustiniano when he printed his version of these two plays in 1544; in the same preface, however, he speaks of having completed his translation of all the six plays, and in a letter to d'Armagnac of 1545 he promises to send him "quatuor Terentiae comoediae quae nondum publicum sunt sortitae" (Cigogna, op. cit., p. 372), which can only refer to the four remaining plays. These were never printed, and no MS. of them other than the present appears to be known.

Paper; ff. iii + 270. Octavo. XVI cent. Gatherings of 8 leaves (i *), signed B-M, Aa-Yy; Gg iii and iiii are transposed by error. Belonged to Richard C[harles] Jackson (book-plate, 1896, f. i).

(1) "Officium de corpore Ihesu Christi": a copy of the bull of Urban IV [11 Aug. 1264], instituting the feast of Corpus Christi (Potthast, Regesta, no. 18999; Magnum Bullarium Romanorum Pontificum, Aug. Taurinorum, iii, 1858, pp. 705–708), omitting the clauses at the end relating to indulgences. Beg. "Transiturus de hoc mundo." f. 1.

2. "Incipiunt centum meditationes de passione domini," beg. "Eya mi dulcissime Ihesu." Preceded by "Oratio deuota ante excercicium centum articulorum de passione domini," beg. "Intimo cordis affectu." The text is an adaptation, in Latin, of the meditations which form the third part of Henry Suso's "Büchlein der Ewigen Weisheit" (cf. C. Bihlmeyer, Heinrich Seuse. Deutsche Schriften, pp. 314–325). Farced for devotional use with prayers and versicles. This version is not identical with the texts as printed in the Cologne (?) edition of Suso's Horologium (? 1480), and in the Precordiale devotorum, Strassburg, 1489, which also differ somewhat from one another. Related to, and on occasion identical with, another translation (cf. art. 7 below). f. 5.

Following this is another Latin adaptation from the German of Suso's prologue and meditations on the Passion of Christ, by William, a canon-regular of the Augustinian monastery of Groenendael, near Brussels, beg. "Eya nunc eterna dei sapiencia." The text differs somewhat from that printed in the above-mentioned edition of the Horologium under the title of Prologus cuiusdam fratris de uiridi valle super centum meditationes dominice passionis. Preceded by a prologue, shorter than the printed text, beg. "Amatorie passionis domini nostri." See above, art. 2. f. 46.

8. A prayer beg. "Tue nunc igitur o crucifixa," printed op. cit., gathering z v, under the heading Oratio pro agentibus hanc centifariam memoriam dominice passionis. f. 58 b.

Abbey of St. Martin-aux-Jumeaux] of Amiens ("Aux Celestins D'Amiens," 17th cent., f. 1). No. 15 in the library (f. i), it is represented by nos. 142, 167, 187, 303 and 393 in the extracts printed by E. Coyecque, Cat. MSS. Bibl. France, xix (1893), pp. lviii–lxxx, from L. F. Daire's 18th cent. manuscript catalogue raisonné of manuscripts in libraries of French Celestine convents (Bibl. Nationale, fonds français, no. 15290). Among miscellaneous papers included in the volume are an autograph catalogue of Sir William Hamilton's pictures, 1798 (vol. IV, f. 121), and some undated notes on eruptions of Vesuvius (vol. IV, f. 229), partly in his hand. The names of the writers will be found in the Index. For other correspondence of Sir William Hamilton during this period see Egerton MSS. 1614–1622, 2634–2641, and Add. MSS. 34048, 37077, 39793. Some of the drafts of the despatches of 1798 missing from Add. MS. 41200 are in Add. MS. 37077 (compare ff. 7, 13, 17, 21, 23, etc., with Add. MS. 41200, ff. 99, 105, 107, 117). Four volumes, arranged as follows:—

41198.	Vol. II (ff. 141).	1775–1786.
41199.	Vol. III (ff. 241).	1787–1795.
41200.	Vol. IV (ff. 266).	1796–1803 and n.d., with some extraneous matter of later date.

Paper. Folio. A.D. 1761–1803. Purchased at Sotheby's (sale-cat., 27 May, lots 745, 747–755).

41201. FORMULARY of legal and manorial documents, compiled after the enactment of the "ordinaciones nouissimas apud Westmonasterium factas," i.e. the Third Statute of Westminster (Quia Emptores), in 1290. Latin. The contents are:—(a) Thirty-six forms of deeds, ending "Explicit modus omnium cartarum, conuencionum, cirografforum, obligacionum." f. 1;—(b) "Modus computandi sub compendio compositus": form of manorial accounting. f. 3;—(c) "Testamentarium": instructions for, and an example of, a will. f. 3;—(d) "Atachiamenta": a collection of precedents in court-keeping. f. 4;—(e) "Inuentarium plenarie compositum." f. 4. Endorsed in several hands on f. 1 are formulae for use in the Courts Christian, including Letters of Citation before the Official of Rouen, with the ensuing libellus or Plaint, both dated 1301, and a ratification by G[ilbert de Sancto Leofardo], Bishop of Chichester, of an indulgence of the Bishop of Nicastro, dated 1300. Further indications of date are supplied by the following:—(i) A lease in (a) is said to be granted by the Master of the Knights Templars in England, the members of which Order were arrested in January 1308; (ii) A lease of a manor, also in (a), runs from the Assumption of the Virgin, 26 Edw. I [15 Aug. 1298]; (iii) The manorial accompt in (b) covers one year from Michaelmas, 27 Edw. I [Sept. 1299—Sept. 1300]. Originally a roll of four vellum membranes, each approximately 9¼ in. wide and respectively 29⅞ in., 27⅞ in., 27⅜ in., 28¼ in. in length, the document was laid down in a volume during the last century. Bound with it are an offprint from The Archaeological Journ., xxii (1865), containing a description of the roll (ff. ii–iv), and a transcript, March 1865, by the Rev. William Dunn Macray, of the Bodleian Library, Oxford (ff. v–lii). The text was edited as a memorial to the late Julius Parnell Gilson, Keeper of Manuscripts and Egerton Librarian in the British Museum 1911–1929, under the title Legal and Manorial Formularies, Oxford, 1933.

Vellum and paper; ff. 4 + lii. Large quarto. Circ. A.D. 1300. Initials in red and blue, with penwork. On the dorse of f. 2 is a copy (15th cent.) of the quatrain of leonine hexameters beg. "Sunt tria que vere facunt (sic) me sepe dolere." Bought, circ. 1865, by Baker Morrell from — Kirtland, of Oxford. Belonged later to Frederic Parker Morrell (d. 1908), of Black Hall, Oxford (Sotheby's sale-cat., 25 May 1925, lot 216).

41202 A–AA. Memoranda-Books, A–E of Sir Edward Nicholas, Secretary of State, 1649–1669, F–Z of his son, Sir John Nicholas, Clerk to the Privy Council, 1667–1703, and AA of his grandson, Edward Nicholas, Treasurer to Queen Mary, 1706. With the exception of A, which was originally composed of loose gatherings of leaves, the notes are entered year by year in interleaved copies of printed almanacs. Vols. B, H, I are "Gallen," K, L "The Royal Almanack," the rest "Rider's British Merlin." All entries except those in A are of a private nature, and there are numerous accompts at the beginning and end of each volume. A contains political gossip relating chiefly to the affairs of Charles II in exile, the entries being fullest for the years 1649, 1650; it is written mainly in a cypher, whose key is on ff. 1, 21, with a sparse use of compendia. In F, ff. 23, 50, are references to a picture of Sir John Nicholas by "M^{r} Lely." Twenty-six volumes, as follows:—

A	(ff. i + 22).	5 July 1649–13 Feb. 1655.
B	(ff. i + 55).	1664.

Paper. Octavo. 1649–1706. Contemporary bindings of black, brown or dark blue leather, some tooled and stamped, with metal clasps. Belonged in the 18th cent. to William Nicholas of West Horsley, co. Surr., brother of Edward Nicholas (see AA, f. i), and from him passed into the Weston family of West Horsley; see Victoria County History, Surrey, vol. iii, p. 355. The signature of Henry Perkins Weston (d. 1826) occurs in vol. W, f. 17 b.

41203 A–F. Eleven Fragments of wooden tablets, forming four complete leaves and the halves of two others; covered with white or light-coloured plaster, and written in ink on both sides, in Greek, mainly with metrological and chronological tables, one of the latter mentioning Eusebius. One tablet (A) contains a list of ἰσόψηφα, i.e. pairs or words of which the individual letters, regarded as figures, add up to the same totals. Probably from the Thebaid, as Antinoopolis is mentioned. The name Δαμόνικος in A recto, l. 8, perhaps that of Fl. Sabinus Antiochus Damonicus, Count of the Sacred Consistory and commander of the troops in the Theban limes, mentioned in a tablet from Achmîm published by G. Zereteli (Aegyptus, ix, 1928, pp. 113–128), who identifies him with the Damonicus who died fighting the Vandals in A.D. 468, suggests that the date is the 5th cent. Tablet A is to be published in Mizraim, vol. iii.

Average size of complete tablet 4⅝ in. × 6 in. v cent. Found in Egypt.

41204. The Arcadia of Sir Philip Sidney, in the original form known as the "Old Arcadia," in five books or "acts," divided by eclogues. There is no title or colophon. The text begins: "Arcadia, amonge all the Provinces of Greece, was ever had in singuler reputation." Six other MSS. of this version are known: Add. MS. 38892, Bodleian MS. e Mus. 37, Queen's College, Oxford, MS.R.38/301 (Coxe, no. ccci), St. John's College, Cambridge, MS. 308, the Clifford MS. in the collection of the late W. A. White of New York, and the Ashburnham MS. in the Huntington Library, San Marino, California. To these may be added a collection of poems and one prose passage from this version in Add. MS. 41498. Edited from the Clifford MS. by A. Feuillerat, Works of Sir Philip Sidney, iv, 1926 (in the Prefatory Note, p. vi, there is a confusion between Add. MSS. 38892 and 41204). The MSS. (with the exception of the St. John's MS. and Add. 41498) are described and the problems of the text discussed by R. W. Zandvoort, Sidney's Arcadia, Amsterdam, 1925, where an account of the present MS. is given at p. 13 and some of its readings cited among the collations for the first twenty-two pages of Feuillerat's edition on pp. 19–21. Abraham Fraunce's Arcadian Rhetorike, 1588, contains upwards of eighty quotations from a MS. of this "Old Arcadia" and in the revision of the text of the Quarto of 1590 embodied in the Folio of 1598 books 3–5 of this form were used, with modifications, to provide a sequel to the Quarto text, some readings from this source also being introduced into the earlier books (cf. Zandvoort, pp. 23–40).

Paper; ff. ii + 190. Folio. Late XVI cent. Belonged to Thomas Martin of Palgrave, the antiquary (1697–1771), who has written his name on f. i b, and supplied a title on f. ii; Martin Catalogue, 1772, no. 270, sale-cat., 5 June 1773, lot 4543. Owned, 18 May 1774, by Charles Brietzcke, clerk in the Secretary of State's Office (d. 1794). Presented by Miss M. E. Davies.

41205. COLLECTION of dance tunes, etc., mainly by English composers of the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries, apparently written or arranged for the harpsichord. Said (f. ii) to be in the hand of John Barrett [Music Master at Christ's Hospital; d. circ. 1735]. Many of the compositions are anonymous; of those to whom authorship has been attributed the majority are by Henry Purcell and Dr. John Blow. Some of the pieces have been published from this MS. by E. Pauer, Old English Composers. In that work the anonymous "Almand" in A (f. 8) and the two following pieces, without title, were printed as one composition and ascribed to Blow, whereas the Almand at least appears to be by Robert King (cf. Egerton MS. 2959, f. 19; Christ Church, Oxford, MS. 46; and J. A. Fuller-Maitland, The Contemporaries of Purcell, vi, p. 4). Though the MS. contains compositions of Purcell included in Pauer's work but otherwise unknown, it was not accessible to the editors of the Purcell Society's volumes (see its publications, vi, 1895, pp. i, ii). The names of the composers, where known, are given in the Index.

Paper; ff. ii + 45. Oblong folio. First half of XVIII cent. Belonged, in the 19th cent., to W[illiam] A[lexander] Barrett, Vicar-Choral of St. Paul's Cathedral (see f. i b and Pauer, op. cit., p. 4) and later to Francis Ernest Horace Joyce Barrett (Hodgson's sale-cat., 26 June 1925, lot 410). Purchased with the aid of a gift from the late W. Barclay Squire, M.V.O.

41252. CAMPBELL-BANNERMAN PAPERS. Vol. XLVII (ff. 263). Letters and memoranda addressed to the Rt. Hon. John Sinclair, M.P., 1st Lord Pentland 1909, in reply to requests for autograph letters, etc., of Sir Henry, with a view to the compilation of the "Life" (eventually written by Mr. J. A. Spender and published in 1923); 1908–1923. Copies of Sir Henry's letters have been inserted in their proper places in the correspondence, as catalogued above. The present correspondence is divided into two sections by a break between 1 Mar. 1911 (f. 113) and 12 Sept. 1919 (f. 120), Lord Pentland having been absent in India as Governor of Madras from 1912 to 1919. The first series of letters was, in part, in answer to a letter, 1908, to The Times (6 Nov., p. 13, col. 5), the Westminster Gazette, and other papers, the second series in answer to the circular letter on ff. 118–119. Included in the second series are (a) reminiscences by Henry Higgs, C.B., of H.M. Treasury, Private Secretary to Sir Henry as Prime Minister (1905–1908), 29 Dec. 1919, ff. 146–160; (b) extracts from the records at the War Office, 1921, typewritten, with manuscript corrections, ff. 175–185; (c) extracts from Col. Paper; ff. i + 21. Folio. 41253 B presented by J. Pierpont Morgan, Esq.

41254. LETTER-BOOK of [Thomas Belasyse, 2nd] Viscount Fauconberg [of Henknowle, 1st Earl Fauconberg 1689], as Lord Lieutenant of the North Riding of Yorkshire, including some letters received; 15 June 1665—18 Aug. 1684. The correspondence relates in part to the defence of the North Riding against invasion by the Dutch and French and against possible risings during the Dutch War. Originals of letters on ff. 10, 12, 15 b–16 b, now preserved at Newburgh Priory, Coxwold, co. York, are calendared in Hist. MSS. Comm., Report on MSS. in Various Collections, vol. ii, pp. 124, 126. For the letters on ff. 7 b, 8 b, from Whitehall, see Cal. of State Papers, Domestic, 1666–1667, p. 287, op. cit., 1667, p. 130. Included also are (1) a list of Deputy Lieutenants, 22 Sept. 1680, f. 1, and (2), reversing the volume (ff. 78 b–23), copies of muster-rolls for the North Riding, one of them, f. 73 b, dated 9 Aug. 1665.

Paper; ff. ii + 78. Folio. A.D. 1665–1684.

41255. NOTE-BOOK of Thomas Belasyse, 2nd Viscount Fauconberg of Henknowle, 1st Earl Fauconberg 1689, written in a variety of hands with a few entries in his autograph. Accompts, rentals, and notes concerning his property are the main contents. Included also are lists of plate, 1677-1692, ff. 26 b–31 b, and pictures with valuation, 1684–1701, ff. 109 b–112 b. On f. 4 is a short list of contents.

Paper; ff. 114. Quarto. A.D. 1671–1710. Contemporary black morocco binding, gilt-stamped, with remains of silver clasps.

41256. THE FOUR GOSPELS, in Slavonic, with the usual tables of κεφάλαια, lectional rubrics, menology and Gospel tables. The text begins imperfectly with Matth. i. 7: РОДН АВНЮ, and the original MS. breaks off imperfectly in January of the menology (f. 298 b). A number of leaves are missing at various points. All after f. 298 is a later (15th cent.) addition on paper.

Vellum and (ff. 299–316) paper (water-mark: a scissors, like no. 3666 in Briquet, Les Filigranes, of circ. 1450); ff. 316. 12 in. × 9½ in. XIV and XV centt. Gatherings, when entire, of 8 leaves, usually numbered at both ends; nos. $\overline{\zeta\iota}$ and $\overline{\varsigma\iota}$ are bound in the wrong order. Double columns of 19 lines. An apostrophe between two consonants sometimes marks the loss of a sound, but at other times has no linguistic justification. Nasal vowels are not used, and of the obscure vowels only ь. The script somewhat resembles the example in Karski, Otcherk Slav. Kirillov. Paleografii, 1901, p. 416. Binding of brown leather over wooden boards, blind-tooled; on the front cover a Greek cross with the legend IC OY NH K[A]. Said in an enclosed note to have belonged to the Troitsko-Sergiev monastery near Moscow.

41257. BILLS for expenses of prisoners in the Gatehouse at Westminster, rendered quarterly to the Privy Council by successive Keepers of the prison, and signed by members of the Council; 29 Sept. 1596—24 June 1606, with gaps. The Keepers for the period are Morrys Pykeryng, Hugh Parlor, William Okey, Anne Okey, his widow, with her son, Thomas Harlowe. The identity of "Christopher Marlowe als Mathews, a Seminary preist" on f. 29 b is the subject of letters from Sir Israel Gollancz and J. B. Whitmore in The Times, 23 June, 24, 27 July 1925.

Paper; ff. 40. Folio. A.D. 1596–1606. No. 164 in P. J. and A. E. Dobell's Catalogue, July 1925. Purchased with the help of contributions collected by Sir Israel Gollancz.

41258. "HENR[ICUS] DE BRACTONE" (16th cent. title), De Legibus et Consuetudinibus Angliae. A comparison with the collated passages in G. E. Woodbine's Bracton: De Legibus (Yale Univ. Press), i, pp. 113–184, suggests that the MS. belongs to "Group II," the group textually most remote from the original. It appears to be impossible to establish continuous relationship with any one of the MSS., over forty in number, used by Woodbine. On ff. 37–38 (f. 68 b of the edition of 1569) are interpolated the non-Bracton drawing of the "arbor consanguinitatis," and two treatises, the first very brief, on affinity and consanguinity. These, which are not identical with any of the discourses inserted at the same place in Bodl. MS., Rawlinson C. 160, and Harley MS. 653, and prefixed to Bracton in Cambr. Univ. MS., Dd. vii, 6 (cf. Law Quarterly Rev., ii. pp. 278–279), begin: "Affinitas est regularitas personarum ex carnali copula & consanguinitate proueniens" (f. 37 b); "Sciendum est quod circa personas matrimonio copulandas" (f. 38). The text of Bracton is resumed on f. 39 b, f. 39 being left blank. At f. 50 the MS. omits most of the contents of ff. 87, 87 b of the edition of 1569 (Rolls Ser., ed. Sir Travers Twiss, ii, pp. 10–15). The last four lines of f. 152 b, col. 2, and most of the succeeding column, which should contain the text in Twiss, iv, p. 180, l. 29–p. 184, l. 3, are blank. The Action for Dower (Twiss, iv, p. 450–end), not found at the usual place (f. 172 b), is added at the end of the MS. (ff. 255– 268 b). Another extensive omission (Twiss, vi, pp. 440–464) occurs at ff. 250 b–251 b, which are blank; while at the foot of f. 252 most of the contents of Twiss, vi, pp. 470–478 are missing. The MS. abounds in addiciones which Woodbine considers to be no part of the original work. In one place only (f. 17, col. 1 = f. 32, ll. 5–31 of the edition of 1569; cf. Woodbine, i, p. 377) is such an interpolated passage distinguished in the text by the word "additio"; though a hand of the early fourteenth century has noted "Addicio noua" against the "Casus de Jordano Vauasore," 16 Edw. I (cf. Woodbine, i, pp. 82, 83), which is an integral part of the text of f. 79. Among other marginal annotations by the same, or a similar, hand are the following: "Miror si ius scriptum hoc dicat" (f. 33 b), "Nota pro Dauid" (f. 36 b), "pro illis de Kildare" (f. 45 b), "pro me ipso," referring respectively to Reliefs and Dower (ff. 48 b, 54 b), "Wellynton." (f. 85), "De hoc habes in statuto de Merton · c · iij· Et de Marleberge · c · vij· Et in secundo Westm · c · xxvj · & · xxvij ·" (f. 139), "Hodie dicunt contrarium multi" (f. 143 b). There is no scheme of book division, the text being arranged in tituli, tractates, etc., indicated by more prominent initials. At the end is an incomplete index of the 14th cent., with a few later additions (f. 272 should follow f. 274); the references in it are to a contemporary foliation, from which the numbers xiiii, ccli–cclix have been omitted and xl cancelled.

Vellum; ff. iv + 274 (f. 269 a stub). 14 in. × 9½ in. Double columns of 44–46 lines to a page, in several hands. Circ. A.D. 1300. Gatherings of 12 leaves, with catchwords; iv^4 (3 cancelled), v has 1 cancelled, xiii^{10}, xviii^8, xxiii^6, xxiv^{14}, last^6 (composite). At the end of vii (f. 74 b) is the note "examinitur (sic) per capitula." Sec. fol. "uel pro eo." Initials in red and blue, with penwork (those on ff. 1, 68 in gold). The two vellum fly-leaves are from a late 13th cent. copy of the Digest, containing parts of lib. xlvii, tit. xv–xxi (f. ii) and lib. xlviii, tit. v–viii (f. iii). Among the scribbling at the end is a partially erased inscription of the end of the 15th cent., "Thomas Whytyng est Bonus legista" (f. 274). Binding of bevelled oak boards covered with brown leather (16th cent.). Intersecting vertical and horizontal blind rolls form a large central panel, rectangular in shape, filled with impressions of the same roll (cup, etc., in the Renaissance manner) alternating with another (Tudor emblems). Lot 78 in an unidentified sale. Bookplate of B[roughton] B[enjamin] Pegge-Burnell, f. i. Presented by Major E. A. Pegge-Burnell-Smith-Milnes.

41259 A–D. MAPS of exploration in Central Africa, viz:—

A, B 1–11. Route map of the Emin Pasha [Eduard Schnitzer]

Relief Expedition under Henry Morton Stanley [G.C.B. 1899], [1887–1889], consisting of (A) five paper sheets, each 12½ in. × 19⅞ in., laid down on one length of canvas, recording the march from Yambuya, which was left 28 June 1887, to Lake Albert Nyanza, counter-marches in search of the rear-guard, etc. ;—(B) eleven paper sheets, each 16⅛ in. × 11½ in., except B 4 (9 in. × 11½ in.) and B 5 (7⅛ in. × 11½ in.), showing the first portion of the retreat from Lake Albert Nyanza to the Island of Zanzibar, by way of Lakes Albert Edward Nyanza and Victoria Nyanza. The chart is discontinued at Masari Poro (reached 28 Sept. 1889), at which point (sheet B 11) there is a note concerning the maps used for the remainder of the journey. On the verso of the same sheet there is a copy, with some variations, of sheet B 9, and on the verso of B 10 a map of the Rev. — Blackburn's route from Mamboya to Mombasa. Originally drawn in pencil, apparently by Stanley himself, but many of the entries have been inked over and a number have been erased. These charts are probably the basis of the map preceding p. 1 of Stanley's In Darkest Africa, 1890, which contains an account of this expedition.

C. A "New Plan of Victoria Nyanza," by H. M. Stanley, in pencil. At the foot is a note, "This is mere indication." 16⅛ in. × 11½ in.

D 1-3. Three paper sheets, forming part of a map of the expedition to Lake Bangweolo under Joseph Thomson on behalf of the British South Africa Company, [1890–1891]. The first sheet shows the route from Chiloma (12 July 1890) to Blantyre; the second and third, from Kota-Kota on Lake Nyassa (left 23 Aug.) westwards towards Lake Bangweolo and back to Kota-Kota (4 Jan. 1891). The portion of the route west of longitude 29° 30′ and north of latitude 12° 30′ was perhaps continued on other sheets now missing. For an account and printed map of the expedition see Geographical Journal, i, 1893, pp. 97 sqq., and map opposite p. 192. Each sheet measures 10½ in. × 16½ in.

Presented by the widow of John Bolton, Esq., F.R.G.S., in accordance with her husband's wishes.

41260. Poem in heroic couplets entitled "The Poet's Walk, Sloperton" by G[eorge] F[ield] M[ulvany], painter, Director of the National Gallery of Ireland (1854–1869). Beg. "This spot to Genius consecrate! Her shrine." Preceded (f. 1 b) by a pen-and-ink vignette of the Walk, signed G. F. Mulvany, and followed (f. 3 b) by a tail-piece of a Cupid with harp across which is written the name "Moore." Sloperton Cottage near Bowood in Wiltshire was the home of Thomas Moore the poet, of whom Mulvany painted a portrait reproduced in Letters from Prof. T. J. Mulvany to W. T. Mulvany, 1908, opposite p. 53. The present miniature volume may have been a gift to Moore from the artist. A pencil sketch of a ruin on a cliff has been added later (ff. 4 b, 5).

Paper; ff. 5. 1⅞ in. × 1½ in. XIX cent. Transferred from the Dept. of Coins and Medals.

41261 A–C. THREE TINTED PLANS of Dutch settlements on the coast of Tanjore in the vicinity of Negapatam, viz.:—(A) "'t Dorp Chikkel" [Sikkle];—(B) "Kiveloer" [Kivalore];—(C) "Naöer" [Nagore]. The titles of B and C are flanked by coloured drawings of Indians. Dutch. Negapatam was surrendered to the British 12 Nov. 1781.

Paper rolls backed with linen; 17½ in. × 21⅜ in., 16½ in. × 22 in., 16⅞ in. × 21 in. XVIII cent.

41262–41267. CORRESPONDENCE and papers of Thomas Clarkson, the slave trade abolitionist, and his brother, John Clarkson. These papers, while still in private possession, were drawn upon by Earl Leslie Griggs for his book Thomas Clarkson; the Friend of Slaves (London, 1936). The names of all the writers are given in the Index. Eight volumes, arranged as follows:—

41262 A. CLARKSON PAPERS. Vol. I. Papers of John Clarkson (1764–1828) relative to the transport of negro settlers from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to Sierra Leone in 1791–2, and the founding of the colony, of which Clarkson became first Governor. Included are letters from his brother Thomas, William Wilberforce, Henry Thornton (Chairman of the Sierra Leone Co.) and Granville Sharp. John Clarkson came home on leave at the end of 1792, and did not return to Sierra Leone (cf. 41263).

Paper; ff. 231. Folio. 17 June 1785—29 Dec. 1792.

41262 B. CLARKSON PAPERS. Vol. II. Small note-book of John Clarkson, entitled "Remarks Halifax."

Paper; ff. 24. Duodecimo. 29 Oct.—29 Dec. 1791.

41263. CLARKSON PAPERS. Vol. III. Papers chiefly relating to John Clarkson's dispute with the Sierra Leone Co., ending in his supersession as Governor, and correspondence with various members of the colony (to 1798). Included is a memorandum by him (ff. 155–182), in the form of a letter to [William Wilberforce] on the foundation of the colony, written in reply to Robert Thorpe's attack, in 1815, on the past conduct of the company. A number of the periodical, The Herald of Peace, vol. vi, New Series, no. 7, July–Sept. 1828, containing an obituary of Clarkson, is bound in at the end of the volume.

Paper; ff. 251. Folio. 31 Dec. 1792—Sept. 1828.

41264. Clarkson Papers. Vol. IV. Register of medical cases among negro colonists of Sierra Leone, 26 Nov. 1791—5 Jan. [1792], ff. 1–5, followed (ff. 6–35) by a private journal, 7 Mar.–[25 Apr. 1792]. At the end, reversing the volume (ff. 34 b–39 b; a leaf is missing after this), are further notes of cases, ending 23 [Dec. 1791]. The owner of the volume was no doubt the "Mr. Taylor" mentioned in 41263, f. 170, and described in 41264, f. 21, as Surgeon to the Colony. Some of the earlier entries in the journal would appear to have been copied by John Clarkson, since they appear almost verbatim in his diary as published by F. G. Ingham, Sierra Leone after a hundred years, pp. 16–167.

Paper; ff. 39. Small quarto. 26 Nov. 1791—25 Apr. 1792.

41265. Clarkson Papers. Vol. V. Official correspondence of Sir Robert Farquhar, Bart. (1821), Governor of Mauritius, relating to the suppression of the slave trade. Copies. The chief contents are despatches from Farquhar to [Francis, 1st] Marquess of Hastings, Governor-General of Bengal, and correspondence (often in the form of copies transmitted with the despatches) with Capt. Fairfax Moresby, C.B. [G.C.B. 1865; admiral 1870], Senior Naval Officer at Mauritius, [Pierre Bernard, Baron] Milius al. Mylius, Governor of Bourbon, the Imaum of Muscat, the Governor of Zanzibar, the King of Johanna (Comoro Is.), and Radama, King of Madagascar. There are also two letters from Farquhar to Thomas Clarkson.

Paper; ff. 74. Folio. 31 Mar. 1819—18 Feb. 1822.

41266. Clarkson Papers. Vol. VI. Haiti and Jamaica Papers of Thomas Clarkson, including:—(1) Letters from Henry [Christophe, King of Haiti], to his son [Jacques Victor Henry], the Prince Royal; 19 Aug. 1813—15 June 1816. Fr. Signed. f. 1;—(2) Letters from the same to Thomas Clarkson (Fr. Signed; occasionally with Engl. translations), with hologr. copies (Engl.) of Clarkson's replies, mainly on the subject of public education in Haiti and on foreign policy; 5 Feb. 1816—10 July 1820. Clarkson's appeal on behalf of Haiti to Alexander I at the Aix-la-Chapelle conference of 1818 is described (f. 43) in terms resembling those of a MS. published as Thomas Clarkson's Interview with the Emperor of Russia (Wisbech, 1930). Other letters and papers relating to Haiti, some of them printed, are included in this section. f. 12;—(3) Later Haitian papers, including several accounts of the revolution of 1820, and letters from Jean Pierre Boyer, President of Haiti, and the widow and daughters of Henry Christophe during their residence in England; 6 Sept. 1820—

24 Nov. 1840. Fr. and Engl. Interspersed and following are papers relating to negro labour in Jamaica; these include letters from W[illiam] Wilberforce, S[tephen] Lushington, M.P., and W[illiam] S[mith], M.P., concerning Matthew Gregory Lewis, author of The Monk (d. 1818), and his Jamaican estates (cf. 41267A, f. 79). f. 180.

ACQUIRED IN 1921.

Eg. 3031. CHARTULARY of Reading Abbey, including also lists of the libraries at Reading and its cell Leominster, and of relics and vestments at Reading. Compiled originally, and provided with a table of contents, early in the reign of Richard I (1189–1199) and added to at various dates till towards the end of the reign of Henry III. Perhaps rather earlier, but not before 1253, another chartulary, somewhat more topographical in arrangement, was begun (now Harley MS. 1708), and a third edition was made in the 14th century (now Cotton MS. Vespasian E. xxv). These contain many of the same charters, but give very few witnesses' names, whereas here all are usually, though not invariably, given. Certain charters are also transcribed in Cotton MSS. Domitian iii, a Leominster chartulary, and Vespasian E. v, perhaps an almoner's book; and some fragments are prefixed to Harley MS. 82. A valuable series of the original Reading charters is in Add. Ch. 19571–19659, presented by the then Marquess of Westminster in 1873. Contents :—

1. Preliminary matter, viz.—(a) " Abbreuiatio cartarum que habentur in Radingensi ecclesia " : table of the original contents (a few later inserted). f. 3 ;—(b) " He sunt reliquie que continentur in ecclesia sancte Marie de Radingia " : a long list ending " Multe etiam alie reliquie quarum scripta desunt." Of one relic, of singular nature, it is added " creditur esse cum cruce de ligno domini in textu quem imperator Constantin[opolitanus] misit Henrico regi Anglorum primo," but no other mention of such a MS. seems to occur. At the end of the section of Apostles' relics is a tooth of St. Luke, " sed nescitur ubi sit," to which a 14th century hand has added " nisi fu[e]rit Leomistrie Iohannes rex Anglie dedit nobis caput Philippi apostoli uenerandum. Et nobis Nundinas ipso die concessit habere." f. 6 b ;—(c) " Hii sunt libri qui continentur in Radingensi ecclesia " : catalogue of the monastic library, printed by S. Barfield in The English Historical Review (Jan. 1888), iii, p. 117. Beg. " Bibliotece. iiii.

prima in duobus uoluminibus.". The entry near the end, beginning "Hii libri uenerunt de Burdegalia," and the succeeding entry of books given by Ralph, priest of Whitchurch, are additions, as are also a few (entered in the margin) of the preceding entries, but none are much later. f. 8 b;—(d) "Hii libri habentur in Leonensi ecclesia": the library of Leominster, printed ib., p. 123. In more than one hand, but all nearly contemporary. Beg. "Biblioteca ex integro per ordinem." f. 12 b. Between (c) and (d) are additions in later hands, viz. (α) an addition to the table of contents referring to two charters transcribed on f. 76 b. f. 11;—(β) "Hec sunt sub manu Custodis Capparum": list of the Abbey's vestments, printed ib., p. 116. Beg. "Cappe ⁝ centum.et nouem.ex quibus ⁝ xiiii$^{c.lm.}$ sunt brudate." f. 11;—(γ) Confirmation by H[ugh] Foliot, Bishop of Hereford (1219–1234), of the taxation of the vicarages of Leominster and Hop[e under Dinmore, co. Heref.]. f. 11 b. The foregoing in 13th century hands;—(δ) "Pro leprosis": note about Abbot Ancherius's provision for the leper-house of St. Mary Magdalen at Reading. f. 11 b;—(ε) "Ordinacio pro leprosis delinquentibus." f. 12. These two in a 14th century hand.

2. The chartulary proper, in the original hand, classified somewhat as follows, but nearly every section has later entries, sometimes a whole gathering, added:—(a) Royal charters (Henry I—Richard I). f. 13;—(b) Charters of the lay nobility (beginning with one of David, King of Scotland, though most of his occur later), all apparently of the 12th century so far (to f. 46 b) as the original hand extends. f. 36;—(c) Charters from other monasteries and from bishops. The latest appear to be Hubert [Fitzwalter], as Bishop of Salisbury (1189–1193), and William [de Vere], Bishop of Hereford (1186–1199). The appendix to this section occurs after section (e). f. 47;—(d) Scottish charters (David–William the Lion). Followed (f. 63) by two English royal charters omitted in their proper sequence, and so noted, "post cartas de Scotia," in the table of contents. f. 60 b;—(e) Papal charters (Calixtus II—Clement III). f. 63. From f. 73 b onwards there is practically no systematic arrangement, though some traces of grouping appear, especially at the beginnings of gatherings.

Vellum (except f. i); ff. i + 114. 11¼ in. × 8¼ in. Tempp. Rich. I —Hen. III. Gatherings of 8 leaves ($i^{10?}$, $iv^{3+4?}$, $xiii^{4}$, xiv^{4}, two fly-leaves at beginning and end). F. i is a paper note of the discovery of the MS. in a bricked-up chamber at [Arthur James Plunkett, 7th] Earl of Fingall's house at Shinfield, co. Berks, in the 18th century (cf. also Add. MS. 37130, f. 37 b, and English Historical Review, iii, p. 113). Binding (13th century ?) of oak boards covered with white leather. Strap-fastening.

Eg. 3033. Chartulary of the Priory of St. Mary, Canons Ashby, co. Northt., apparently founded (cf. f. 1) by Stephen de Leya, temp. Rob[ert de Chesney], Bishop of Lincoln [d. 1166]; compiled early in the reign of Edward I, with additions (mostly on inserted leaves) to 19 Hen. VI (ff. 37, 97). Latin (f. 57 b French). Apart from a group of seven fines on ff. 98 b–99 b and a series of episcopal indulgences at the end (ff. 119–120 b), the arrangement is topographical; for a list of the places, which are usually named and numbered at the head of each page, see the description of the MS. in Hist. MSS. Comm., 3rd Rep., Append., p. 274. At least one deed has been twice entered (see ff. 18 b, 23 b). The account of Canons Ashby by John Bridges, Hist. and Antiquities of Northamptonshire, i (1791), pp. 223–228, is largely derived from this MS., the grants of the supposed founder and his family within the county (ff. 1–6) being described in some detail; the MS. is also cited under the various Northamptonshire parishes in which the Priory owned property, e.g. Moreton Pinkney (ff. 17–32 b; cf. Bridges, pp. 250–252). Bridges' original extracts from the chartulary, taken in 1721, are now in the Bodleian Library, Oxford (MS. Top. Northants c. 19; cf. Madan, Summary Cat. of . . . MSS., iii, p. 647, no. 16636, p. 283). An even more elaborate analysis of the entire contents of the book was made by George Baker in his Hist. and Antiquities of the County of Northampton, ii (1822). Some notice of the possessions of the Priory in cos. Bedf., Hertf. and elsewhere will be found in the Victoria County History, for Northampton, ii, pp. 130–133; Bedford, iii, pp. 85–87, 104–109; and Hertford, ii, p. 264. Documents occurring in the chartulary have been printed (from other sources) as follows:—Dugdale, Monasticon Anglicanum, vi (1830), pp. 442, 443 (ff. 58 b, 61 b); Madox, Formulare Anglicanum (1702), nos. ccccxxxix, dxxxvii, dcxc (ff. 88, 70, 43); Rotuli Roberti Grosseteste, 1235–1253 (Canterbury and York Society; Dioc.

Lincoln, iv), p. 327 (f. 116 b). The originals of the deeds on ff. 31, 61 b, 9, 9 b, 67, 109, 18 b are now Add. Ch. 5882, 5883, 5884, 7527, 7535, 19817, and 22320. Many others are preserved in the Public Record Office and are calendared in the Catalogue of Ancient Deeds, vols. i–iii, passim.

Vellum (ff. i, 37, 97 paper); ff. v (f. i is a memorandum by Henry Etough, Minister of Elstow, co. Bedf., and later rector of Therfield, co. Hertf., dated 8 May 1723, recording Bishop Tanner's opinion of the date of the MS) + 122. 9 in. × 5½ in. Temp. Edw. I (early), with later additions. Gatherings irregular. Binding of oak boards covered with leather, with brass stud and leather thong. On f. 80 b are the opening lines (late 15th cent.) of a Christmas carol: "In bedlem in þat fere Citte / born he was of a mayden fre . . ." (cf. Carleton Brown, Register of Middle English . . . Verse, ii, nos. 889, 891, and R. L. Greene, The Early English Carols, 1935, no. 21, pp. 14–16). At the end, reversing the volume, are fragments of two leaves from a gathering of a Collectar, written in England, circ. A.D. 1200, containing (in double columns) portions of the offices:—(a) Second Sund. of Advent—Ember Frid. in Advent (f. v b);—(b) Epiphany—first Sund. after the octave (f. iv b). According to Baker, Hist. . . . of Northampton, ii, p. 13, this chartulary passed with the title deeds of the Podington and Hinwick estate, co. Bedf., once part of the possessions of the Priory. In 1647 (cf. V.C.H., Bedf., iii, p. 82) this estate became the property of George Orlebar of Hinwick, and the chartulary thenceforward remained in the hands of his family, at Hinwick House. From the Farnborough Fund.

Eg. 3034. TERRIER of the Somersetshire estates of Glastonbury Abbey; 1514–1517. Latin. The first of a series of registers, of which two other volumes are Egerton MS. 3134 (for co. Somerset), written in 1514–1517, and Harley MS. 3961 (for co. Wilts), written in 1518–1520. The present volume was compiled, at the orders of Abbot Richard Beere, by Thomas Sutton, "cellerarius forinsicus," assisted by John fitz James, steward of the Abbey, William Lange, auditor, Thomas Gunwyn, a clerk with a special knowledge of the Glastonbury muniments and "circa terrarium mensuratorem precipuum," and John Horner, bailiff of Whitstone, who made the actual measurements. In the preamble Sutton, after an account of the Abbot's motives in ordering the survey, states that the work was begun in the twenty-second year of his abbacy, i e. 1515 (but see f. 62, where the year is given as the twenty-first, i.e. 1514). The survey, which is preceded (ff. 3–8) by a perambulation of the twelve hides of Glastonbury, made by the Abbot between 1503 and 1510, relates to Glastonbury (ff. 9–38); Street (ff. 39–41 b);

West Pennard (ff. 43–60 b); Godney (ff. 62–69); Meare (ff. 70–91 b); Northload [in Glastonbury] (ff. 94–102 b); East Brent (ff. 105–130 b); Lympsham (ff. 132–147 b); South Brent (ff. 149–170 b); Berrow (ff. 172–193 b); Wrington (ff. 195–234); Houndstreet [in Marksbury] (ff. 235–236 and ff. 246–247 b); Marksbury (ff. 236 b–245 b); Middleton (f. 249 and f. 250 b, the former cancelled, the latter formerly pasted to the wooden cover). The manors appear to have been surveyed independently and the resulting terriers bound up later (not in chronological order); blank pages are left at the end of many of them, and with few exceptions each begins at a new gathering. Notes on changes of tenancy, etc., have been inserted subsequently. Extracts from the MS., omitting details of actual holdings, have been printed by T. Hearne, Johannis Glastoniensis Chronica, 1726, ii, pp. 287–357; and see also British Museum Quarterly, x (1935), pp. 69–72. On ff. 131–131 b are copies of an indenture dated 1331, and of an undated inquisition, relating to common pasture rights on Thurlemere and Edington moors. Latin. Inserted after f. 188 are the following, all in Latin:—(i) An inspeximus by John [de Holand], Earl of Huntingdon [Duke of Exeter 1397], Admiral in the West, of a record and process in the Court of Admiralty, concerning the claim of the Abbey to salt from the river Axe and certain customs from ships anchoring there; 2 Aug. 15 Ric. II [1391]. f. 189:—(ii) Memorandum reciting the limitations imposed on the jurisdiction of the Court of Admiralty by the statutes 13 Ric. II [st. 1, c. 5] and 15 Ric. II [c. 3], and the penalties prescribed by the statute 2 Hen. IV [c. 11] for infringement of those enactments; temp. Hen. VI. f. 191:—(iii) Commission to John [de Holand], Earl of Huntingdon, as Admiral, 2 Oct. His appointment is recorded under two different dates in 1389 on the French Rolls, viz., 18 May and 22 June; see Carte, Cat. des Rolles Gascons, Normans et François, ii, pp. 159, 160. f. 191 b;—(iv) Exemplification of a suit in the Court of Admiralty, admitting the claim of John [de Sellwode], Abbot of Glastonbury, to certain tackle of a ship called "le Christoffer de Luxbon," late owned by Bartholomew Fornand, a merchant of Bilbao, in Spain, who had murdered Peter Cutt at Berwe [Berrow], co. Som., and absconded; 12 Sept. 3 Hen. VII [1487]. f. 192 b.

Vellum; ff. ix + 250. 15 in. × 10 in. A.D. 1514–1517, in several hands. Gatherings of 8 leaves (i^4, ii^{10}, $viii^{10}$ [1 cancelled], ix^4 [2 and 3 cancelled], xv^4 [3 cancelled], xxxii [3 and 4 cancelled]). The catchword on f. 250 b suggests that the volume is imperfect. Contemporary binding of oak boards, covered with white leather, with circular brass bosses at the four corners and at the centre (2 missing); one leather thong with brass buckle and stud (the second thong missing). On the back cover is a vellum table of contents, covered with horn, in a rectangular brass frame. At the Dissolution the present MS. apparently passed to Richard Watkyns, who received (5 Sept. 1543) a grant of manors formerly belonging to the Abbey (Letters and Papers, Foreign and Domestic, Henry VIII, xviii, pt. 2, p. 141). Pasted in at the beginning of the volume (f. vii) is a warrant, dated 16 Feb. 1543 [1544], from [Sir] Richard Southwell and [Sir] Thomas Moyle [General Surveyors] and William Stainford [Attorney to the Court of General Surveyors] to the High Steward, the Particular Surveyor, the Auditor and the Receiver of Glastonbury lands, to deliver the evidences and muniments to Watkyns. Belonged in the 17th cent. to [Sir] Thomas Cotton [2nd Bart.], who in Cotton Appendix xlv, art. 13, f. 2, records the loan of "The booke of Glastonbury" to Selden in 1637, but this might have been another MS., e.g. Cotton MS. Vitellius E. v or Tiberius A. v, and in any case the book appears to have been returned, the entry having been cancelled. A list of contents in a 17th cent. hand is on f. ix b. In 1726, when Hearne published his extracts, the MS. belonged to Charles Bruce, Lord Bruce [3rd Earl of Ailesbury 1741], and a letter, 10 Jan. 1877, from Canon J[ohn] E[dward] Jackson to the Rev. T. L. Kingsbury bound in as ff. ii, iii shows that it was then in the possession of George William Frederick Brudenell-Bruce, 2nd Marquess of Ailesbury, at Savernake.

Eg. 3035. FRAGMENTS of a breviary of Dominican use (cf. f. 26, col. 2), in Latin. The contents are:—(1) Portions of the Psalter and Canticles, beg. imperfectly with Ps. cviii. 27; leaves are wanting after ff. 10, 11, 19, 20. f. 1;—(2) Portion of the Temporale, beg. imperfectly in the Office for the first Sunday after the octave of the Epiphany and ending imperfectly in the third lesson for Quinquagesima Sunday; a leaf is wanting after f. 41. f. 21.

Vellum; ff. 42. 10⅝ in. × 7¼ in. XIV cent. Executed in France. Double columns of 28 lines. Catchwords and the contemporary note "correctum" on ff. 20 b, 31 b, 42. A small miniature of the Trinity within a tricolour frame on f. 1, and historiated initials of St. Paul (f. 23), the Creation (f. 38), the Ark afloat (f. 41), and Abraham and Lot (f. 42 b); decorative initials and bar-borders throughout in good French style, and grotesques on f. 1. Belonged to John Ruskin (bookplate, f. i), who has written pencil notes on many of the leaves. Modern red velvet binding with silver clasps. From the Farnborough Fund.

ACQUIRED IN 1925.

Eg. 3036. MISSAL of the monastery of Fonte Buono, in the diocese of Arezzo, the parent house of the cenobitical branch of the

Camaldolese Order; written in A.D. 1240. The circumstances of the production of the MS. are set out in a colophon (f. 416 b), which was printed in full by Mittarelli and Costadoni, Annales Camaldulenses. iv (1759), pp. 348, 349, but has since been partly erased. According to this colophon, Consilius, a monk of the house, was authorised to obtain contributions towards the cost of the book from various abbots and other persons (named), the money so collected being expended upon vellum and in payments to the scribe and illuminator. Epistles and choral portions of masses are omitted (except in artt. 7–10), the omissions being to some extent supplied in the margins by later (14th cent.) hands. The text differs considerably from that of the Missale monasticum secundum ordinem Camaldulensem, Venice, 1503. Contents :—

1. A preliminary gathering (not included in the original quire numeration) with musical notation on a two-line stave—C yellow, F red—containing :—(a) "Benedictio cerei in sabbato sancto." f. 1 ;—(b) "In dominicis diebus prephatio" (practically the Preface for Trinity Sunday), with Pater Noster. f. 5 b ;—(c) "In ferialibus diebus uel in tribus lectionibus [prephatio]." f. 7 b ;—(d) Intonations for Gloria in excelsis, Creed, etc. f. 8. Others, on a four-line stave, are on f. 412 b.
2. Temporale. As far as Septuagesima Sunday (f. 34), the omitted portions of offices have been inserted in the margins (except in the case of feasts repeated in full in art. 7), the lessons from the Prophets for Ember Sat. in December being relegated to ff. 1–3, probably owing to insufficiency of space. There are also insertions for Maundy Thursday (ff. 119–120 b), and for Sundays and (Epistle only) Wednesdays between 22nd Sund. after Pentecost and Wed. following 24th Sunday (ff. 197 b–200). The special Holy Week rites are omitted, and there is no office for the Holy Trinity on the first Sunday after Pentecost. f. 9.
3. Prefaces and Canon, placed at the end of Whitsun week. Three leaves are missing after f. 157, with which has disappeared the beginning of the Canon. The prayers at communion, "Perceptio corporis et sanguinis," etc., have been added in the margins of f. 162. f. 155 b.
4. Sanctorale. Omitted parts have been added to most offices between the vigil of St. Andrew and the feast of St. Paul, hermit (ff. 203–211), between the feasts of SS. Frigidianus and Catharine (ff. 277–279 b), and to the masses appended to the Sanctorale (see below). A mass for St. Romuald, the founder of the Order, differing completely from the text in Miss. ord. Camaldul., has been inserted in the margins of f. 233 b. This appears to be the only distinctive Camaldolese festival, with the possible exception of the office, on 9 Nov. (f. 275), in honour of St. Saviour, in which name St. Romuald's foundation was dedicated (for an earlier instance of this feast in a Camaldolese MS. see Ebner, Missale Romanum im Mittelalter, p. 40). On the other hand, a number of local Italian feasts are included, the most uncommon being the office, on 13 Nov. (f. 276 b), for [the translation, in 1088, to Pisa, then the metropolitan see of the province, of] SS. Ephysius and Potitus (cf. the Bollandists' Acta Sanctorum, 3rd ed., 13 Jan., pp. 35, 36). Full ritual for the blessing of candles precedes the mass for the Purification (ff. 217–219), and a blessing of grapes is introduced into the office for SS. Sixtus, Felicissimus and Agapitus on 6 Aug. (f. 249 b). Appended to the Sanctorale (ff. 280 b–281 b) are the following masses which had presumably been adopted at Fonte Buono in the interval between the dates of the present MS. and its archetype :—SS. Thomas of Canterbury, canonized 1173 (29 Dec.), Francis, canonized 1228 (4 Oct.), Leonard (6 Nov.), Justus and Clement [5 June], whose monastery at Volterra had been transferred to the Camaldolese Order in 1113 (Acta SS., 5 June, p. 441, etc.). f. 203.

5. Commune sanctorum, with a few marginal insertions at the beginning. f. 282.
6. Missae votivae, beginning with masses for week-days throughout the year arranged for a cycle of seven weeks, and an office for Sundays between the octave of Epiphany and Advent " nisi in sollemnitate " (ff. 302 b–318 b), and including "missa ad honorem sancti Sigismundi" for a fever patient (f. 321), and " missa contra plága (sic) mortalitatis" (f. 333). The collect and secret of the last-named are identical with those for the " missa pro vitanda mortalitate " which is sometimes (e.g. Hen. Bradshaw Soc.'s Missale Romanum, ii, p. 327; cf. Add. 40146, f. 307 b) stated to have been ordered and indulgenced by Clement VI [1342–1352]. Some of the masses (ff. 319 b–321, 322–323, 325–333) are given in full. " Missa quinque uulnerum Christi " has been added in a 14th cent. hand on f. 334 b, which had been left blank. f. 302 b.
7. Masses for the principal feasts throughout the year (third mass of Christmas—St. Nicholas). The texts, given in full, usually include sequences and tracts (where appropriate). f. 335.
8. Masses of the Commune sanctorum (in full). f. 382.
9. " [Missa] in dedicatione ecclesie." f. 391.
10. Votive masses, beginning with " missa in honore sancte Trinitatis." Except in the case of the mortuary masses, which follow (f. 404) the "missa pro defunctis," full texts are given. An office for the recovery of the Holy Land has been added at the foot of f. 393. f. 393.
11. Blessing of the paschal lamb and other benedictions. f. 409 b.

12. Masses " de humanitate Christi " and for the peace of the church, the latter perhaps composed by Innocent III (Migne, Patr. Lat., ccxvii. 917; cf. Missale Romanum (H.B.S.), i, p. 460). Written in a different hand from the rest of the MS. f. 411.
13. Tables, viz.:—(a) Epistles for the Temporale, ending (imperf. ?) at Wedn. in the ninth week after Pentecost. f. 413;—(b) Two tables of prayers for the year. The second, headed " Ordo orationum totius anni," is the more akin to the " Tabula de ordine orationum missarum " in Miss. ord. Camaldul., f. 148 v, but differs widely from it in details. Neither table in this MS. makes provision for prayers for St. Romuald. The tables are separated by the colophon referred to above and a prayer for a lector. ff. 415, 417;—(c) Gospel lessons for the Sanctorale (10 Jan.—31 Dec.). Additional feasts noted in the margins include SS. John Gualbert, Francis, Placidus and B.V.M. ad nives. f. 422.
14. Calendar, in red and black, in several hands. Its chief divergencies from the calendar in Miss. ord. Camaldul. are accounted for by the absence of festivals of later institution (e.g. SS. Thomas Aquinas, Anne, Visitatio B.V.M., etc.) and by the omission of most of the Camaldolese feasts (St. Romuald appears, in red, on 19 June). Although such entries as [dedicatio eccl.] Marie ad martyres (13 May) and St. Francis (4 Oct.) have been cancelled, the offices for these festivals remain in the Sanctorale (ff. 230 b, 280 b). On 23 May is the entry " Obiit [A.D. 1294] illustris domina comitissa vxor comitis Tegrimi Alberia " (see Annales Camaldul., v, p. 214), and on 6 Sept. occurs " Obiit [A.D. 1259] dominus Martinus [III] venerabilis prior Camalduli " (the day is doubtful; cf. ibid., v, p. 47). f. 419.

Vellum; ff. i + 423. 14⅜ in. × 9½ in. A.D. 1240, with XIV cent. additions. Written for the monastery of Fonte Buono. An erased inscription (17th cent.) on f. 1, " Sacrę heremie (?) Camaldulensis," is accompanied by the press-mark Q v–4 (cf. the erased mark Q v–7 on the title-page of the Museum's copy (C. 24 f. 8) of Miss. ord. Camaldul.); another, W 199 (cancelled), is on the same page. Gatherings of 8 leaves (xx wants 3, liii^{2}, liv^{5}, last^{3}), usually numbered at the end, with catchwords. The vellum flyleaf (f. i) is from a missal of contemporary date. Illuminated initials in gold and colours in Italian style at the principal feasts (including St. Saviour); that on f. 18 b has a small miniature of Christ in the manger, the remainder are decorative. Other initials in red. In a blank space on f. 157 b is an outline drawing of the Annunciation. Binding of wooden boards covered with brown leather, much repaired, with bosses, mostly modern (for the materials employed in the original binding see f. 417). There have been excisions from the lower margins of ff. 68, 223, 258, 267, 275, 303, 314, 319, 357, 364, 371.

Eg. 3037. MISSAL of Dominican use, from the priory of nuns at Poissy, Dép. Seine-et-Oise, France. Contents:—(1) Calendar. Among the original entries in gold are SS. Thomas Aquinas [d. 1274, canonized 1323] (7 Mar.), Peter Martyr "de ordine predicatorum" (29 Apr.), and the Translation (24 May) and Deposition (5 Aug., with octave in red) of Dominic, all "totum duplex." The original entries in purple and red include SS. Servatius (13 May; cf. Add. MSS. 23935, 35085, and B.M. Reichert, Acta Capitulorum Generalium, ii, Monumenta O.P. Historica, tom. iv, pp. 195, 206, 216) and Martialis [for whom the General Chapter at Bruges confirmed an office of three lessons in 1336; cf. Reichert, pp. 223, 229, 236] (16 June). The re-grading of the feast of St. Vincent (22 Jan.) as "totum duplex" was an alteration made necessary by an act first introduced in 1337, but not confirmed until the Chapter at Lyons, 1348 (Reichert, pp. 244, 307, 313, 322). Added in red by more than one slightly later hand are: Transl. [A.D. 1369] of Thomas Aquinas (28 Jan.), "Dedicatio ecclesie beati Ludouici de Pissiaco" (12 Feb.), "Festum Corone Domini" (4 May) and Louis, King of France (25 Aug.), each "totum duplex" (except Corona Domini, which is "simplex"). The Dominican anniversaries (4 Feb., 7 July, 5 Sept., 10 Oct.) have been inserted in black. Other additions include St. Procopius (8 July; cf. Reichert, p. 380) in red, and St. Adelbertus (24 Apr.; cf. Reichert, p. 365) in black. f. 1;—(2) "Incipit missale predicatorum": Temporale, Advent—twenty-fifth Sund. after Trinity, ending (ff. 151 b–152 b) with masses for the dedication and consecration of a church. In the Litany on Holy Saturday (f. 92) St. Olaf ends the short list of martyrs; among the confessors Dominic receives a double invocation, and Louis stands last, the entries for "Heinciui" [? Hyacinth] and Ladislas having been cancelled. The Ordinary, Prefaces and Canon are inserted between Holy Saturday and Easter (ff. 94–104). f. 7;—(3) Sanctorale, SS. Andrew—Vitalis and Agricola. Included are masses for SS. Thomas Aquinas (f. 167 b) and Peter Martyr (f. 171), the Festum Corone Domini (f. 173 b), the Translation (f. 175 b) and Deposition (f. 192 b) of St. Dominic, and St. Louis the King (f. 198; a different office from that in Missale predicatorum, Venice, 1506, f. 215 b). f. 153;—(4) Epistles and Gospels for the Commune Sanctorum. f. 213 b;—(5) Votive masses and (ff. 226 b–229 b) masses for the dead. f. 219 b;—(6) A supplement, added in the second half of the 15th cent. (cf. art. i), presumably at Poissy (cf. art. iv), containing:—(i) Masses for SS. Servatius (13 May), Alexis (17 July), Martialis (16 June), Martha (27 July), Wenceslas (28 Sept.), Edward the Confessor (13 Oct.), the Eleven Thousand Virgins (21 Oct.), "In festo beate Marie de pietate" (Frid. bef. Palm Sund.), Vincent Ferrer (5 Apr., canonized 1455), Catharine of Siena (30 Apr., canonized 1461), Adelbertus (24 Apr.), Ivo (19 May), Procopius (4, 8 or 11 July), Anne (26 July). The first seven masses were adopted in or before the first half of the 14th cent., and to these there are marginal references in the Sanctorale (except in the case of St. Alexis, whose mass, given in full on f. 186 b, is repeated here). f. 230;—(ii) Choral portions of the Commune Sanctorum. f. 236;—(iii) The Epistle for St. Marcellus Pope (16 Jan.), the cue for which is on f. 159 b. f. 239 b;—(iv) Blessings of the ashes on Ash Wednesday and (f. 240 b) of palms on Palm Sunday. The chief difference from the text incorporated in the Temporale of Missale predicatorum is the substitution by the MS. of "sorores" for "fratres." f. 239 b;—(v) Directions for Maundy Thursday. f. 241;—(vi) "Incipit lectio de passione Domini legenda ad mensam in die Parasceue": a meditation or homily beg. "Si pie et diligenter attendimus omnia que hodie per Christum." f. 241 b;—(vii) "Melliflua consideracio passionis dominice" (so colophon), as in Add. MS. 16608, ff. 215 b–219 b. Beg. "Ut aliquatenus possis comprehendere cum omnibus sanctis." f. 244 b;—(viii) "Omelia Origenis secumdum (sic) Johannem [xx. 11]": the spurious sermon De Maria Magdalena, printed in Jacques Merlin's edition (Paris, 1519), iii, f. 129. Other copies, with some differences, are in Royal MS. 6 E. iii, f. 103 b, Burney MS. 300, f. 143, and Egerton MS. 673, f. 53 b. Beg. "Maria stabat ad monumentum . . . . Audiuimus, fratres, Mariam ad monumentum." f. 249 b;—(ix) "Benediccio paschalis cerei. Exultet iam angelica turba," and (f. 260) "Ante crucis adoracionem. In Parasceue," with the two tracts for Good Friday. All with musical notation. f. 256;—(x) Collects, etc., for the blessing of the ashes on Ash Wednesday and of the palms on Palm Sunday, the cues for which are on ff. 240 b–241. f. 265 b;—(xi) "Gloria in excelsis" and "Credo in vnum Deum." f. 266 b;—(xii) "Feria quinta in cena Domini. Secundum Iohannem [xiii. 1–xvii. 26]." f. 267 b.

Vellum; ff. iv + 272. 8¼ in. × 5⅝ in. Double columns. XIV (circ. A.D. 1336–1348) and XV (after A.D. 1461) centt. Written and illuminated in France. Gatherings chiefly of 8 leaves (i^6, xiv^6, xx^4, xxx^4, $xxxi^{10}$, $xxxii^6$, $xxxiii^{10}$, $xxxiv^{10}$, xxxv and xxxvi undetermined), sometimes with catchwords. Sec. fol. "Jhesu Christi." Seventeen small rectangular miniatures, eight historiated initials (including representations of SS. Dominic, ff. 175 b, 193, and Louis, King of France, f. 198), other large and small decorative initials and bar-borders in gold and colours, and flourished initials in gold, red and blue. Other MSS. from Poissy are Add. MS. 32579 and Egerton MS. 2601; it has also been stated that Add. MSS. 28162 and 39843 originate from this house (cf. Comte A. de Bastard in Bulletin du Comité de la Langue . . . de la France, iv, 1857, p. 585). Belonged, 19th century, to the Rev. H[——] F[——] B[——] (cf. ff. iii, 102), and Frederic Parker Morrell (d. 1908), of Black Hall, Oxford (Sotheby's sale-cat., 25 May 1925, lot 133).

Eg. 3038. THE TWO final chapters, numbered 10 and 11, of Persuasion by Jane Austen, as originally composed. Holograph. The novel, as published posthumously (2 vols., 1818), retains the final chapter, renumbered 12 but discards the other in favour of a new chapter 10 and a partly new chapter 11, the latter incorporating with slight alterations the section of the old chapter 10 from "that as to character" to "motive for remaining here" (ff. 6 b–8 b, 15–16, corresponding to vol. 2, pp. 283–292, of the first edition). The present MS. was edited anonymously in 1926 as Two Chapters of Persuasion, where a full account is given; the cancelled chapter had already been printed by J. E. Austen-Leigh, A Memoir of Jane Austen, 2nd ed., 1871, pp. 167–180. See also British Museum Quarterly, i, pp. 15–17 and plate V.

Paper; ff. 16. 6 in. × 3⅜ in. Dat. 8–18 July, 1816. After that date a passage (ff. 15–16 b) for insertion at f. 8 b in ch. 10 was added. A slip pasted on f. 16 b runs: "The contents of this Drawer for Anna," i.e. Anna Lefroy, niece of Jane Austen.
